Louella Kirk Weds Airman England At Lincoln Church

GREENWOOD (Special)—Louella Beth Kirk and Airman Sammy R. England were united in marriage at the church of Christ in Lincoln, Friday evening, November 22, in an 8 p.m. ceremony.

Two large bouquets of white chrysanthemums and pink pom-poms decorated the chancel of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirk of Greenwood and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Almos E. England of Arbyrd, Mo.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a gown of silk organza fashioned with a fitted bodice accented by a wide asque neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The skirt front and bodice were enhanced by embroidery, repeated on the back of the very bouffant skirt which extended to a chapel length train. Her bouffant veil was held by a lace crown centered with a large organza rose. She carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Cecyl Fitzgerald and brides matron was Mrs. Herbert Juozonis, sister of the bride. They wore identical dresses of pink organza and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Best man was Cecyl Fitzgerald and groomsmen was Duane Baker of Omaha. Ushers were Art Johnson and James Ladson.

The groom and his attendants were attired in dark business suits.

Mrs. Earl Fitzgerald of Albion cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Willard Casper poured coffee and Miss Linda Casper served the punch.

Miss Julie Cyr had charge of the guest book. Approximately one hundred and twenty-five attended the wedding. After a wedding trip to Missouri the couple will live at 1328 K. St. Lincoln.
