NEBRASKA CONGRESS

DAILY REPORT OF WHAT IS BEING DONE.

Many Measures of More or Less Importance Being Introduced at the Present Session of the Golden Rod Legislature.

Wednesday.
The house of representatives, in committee of the whole on the 24th, voted to rise with the recommendation that the Trans-mississippi Exposition bill, which had been under consideration all day, be ordered engrossed for a third reading.

The real interest of the morning session of the senate on the 24th commenced when Mr. Osborn of Paynes, chairman of the railroad committee, reported several bills for indefinite postponement.

When the house took a recess Friday night the resolution to pay the four members from Douglas County—Yeiser, Baldwin, Roberts and Taylor—for the twenty-two days during which they were contesting the seats of Representatives Cox, Crow, Butler and Burman, was pending.

Eugene Moore, ex-advisor, was on Wednesday arrested for embezzling $25,000 state funds. Attorney General Smith filed an information with the county authorities charging Moore with embezzling public funds.

Speaker Giffin announced bills on third reading in order immediately following the reading of the journal. Nesbit's bill appropriating $1,392 for the relief of Burt county for money expended in the trial of the alleged murderers of George Phillips was passed by a vote of 84 to 6.

Friday.
In the senate a large amount of routine work was transacted. The list of bills on general file was considerably lengthened by the addition of numerous bills reported from standing committees.

When the house took a recess Friday night the resolution to pay the four members from Douglas County—Yeiser, Baldwin, Roberts and Taylor—for the twenty-two days during which they were contesting the seats of Representatives Cox, Crow, Butler and Burman, was pending.

NATIONAL SOLONS.

REVIEW OF THEIR WORK AT WASHINGTON.

When the house journal was read Friday morning the name of Foulke of Gage, who had voted in favor of Sodermon's scrip bill, house roll No. 117, was found to be recorded against the bill.

The Legislative Grind.
Most of Wednesday was devoted to District of Columbia business. The conference report on the bill to define the rights of the purchasers of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad under the foreclosure sale was adopted.

THE TALK OF THE DAY.

An ordinance against the use of narrow tires on vehicles is to be introduced in the City Council of New Orleans.

There is an oyster shell on exhibition in Portland, Me., which weighs 153 pounds. It was brought from the China Sea.

The Kansas City Star says that Kansas City will soon be the greatest market in the world. It already ships thousands annually to all portions of the United States, Central America and Mexico.

Ragged Wayside—"Why did yer steal dat scientific paper when der wuz lots wild gals' pictures in dem lyin' round?"

A story comes from a town not a thousand miles from Bar Harbor, Me., that equals the celebrated note story of Hans and Fritz.

Notes of Current Events.
Mrs. Booth-Tucker, wife of Commander Booth-Tucker of the Salvation Army, became so ill in Brooklyn that she had to give up her work there, and was taken to her home in New York.

Joseph Murdock, of Scott County, Va., who was supposed to have been murdered twenty-five years ago, and for which crime "Bud" Lindsay served twenty-one years in the Virginia penitentiary, has returned to his former home.
