THE BRANCH ACCEPTED. Last week George Reinert "extended the olive branch" of peace to us, and to accept it, when, great guns! we found that the end of the branch which we so cheerfully grabbed was full of thorns. This is only in keeping with his many other acts, so after Dear Mr. Melindey: recovering from the shock we expressed no surprise. He intimates that we have been fighting him ever every week to our detriment. Until man that needs it. The movement within a few weeks we paid but little attention to the flings. He censures us for asking patronage from populists and whiningly pleads at last, "Is he willing now that we should have patronage from the democratic land office and county judge?"

But all of this is as nothing com pared to the infamous lie which he has for months taken delight in rolling un. der his tongue and spitting out to the public in various forms, viz: That the editor of THE DEMOCRAT is a republi can in reality but is masquerading as a democrat for revenue only. Reinert knows that nothing more untrue was ever attered, but for the sake of "har mony" at the carnest solicitation of friends we have refrained from combatting the charge. In 1891, in 1892 and again in 1896, prior to coming to Valentine, the editor was employed upon republican papers, but never in an editorial capacity, and was never looked upon as the author of the policy of the papers. This is the only foundation for the charge. Reinert learned his trade while in the employ of the last paper we worked for, the Ains- balmy spring breezes eausing the accuse him of being a republican because of that fact. He is like the robber who runs through the streets while handsome and debonair pharma-"Stop, thief," in order to attract attention to an innocent party. As a stool pigeon for republicans he has been successful in stirring up strife among ley, a back view like Fitzsimmons, than one instance of his regard for the party of McKinley could be shown, but one will suffice:

school lands must be notified of their they see him coming. delinquency in certain instances by publication. These notices are given out by the commissioner of public lands. Reinert could not publish the notice, so he by underhanded methods DEMOCRAT, is soon to take anto himprevailed upon J. V. Wolfe, a man whom we assisted in electing to the office he holds, to send this notice to The Republican, and that paper is tion to be present at the nuptials, but better show his loyalty to the party of pain that we send our regrets. To see Mark Hanna? Ask Treasurer Crabb about this little matter. Ask any well edicts does our heart good-we are posted populist in Valentine if it is not married. The future Mrs. Good is a a notorious fact that Reinert has been ever since his advent here, a close companion of the republican, Ask them then what they think about it.

Live stock properly kept and inteldigently managed will come nearer keeping the average farmer in funds than any other form of rural industry. In certain sections some special kinds Delphos Tri-Weekly Courant says: of work, such as truck farming, dairying or sugar beet culture, will prove the salvation of thousands, but the cow and the sow will continue to lif more mortgages, in the corn belt as least, than all other agencies com bined. Keep good ones and they will Leep you. - Byannis Tribune.

The people of Valentine would like to know where Reinert stands on the court house question. The people of where he stands on the recount fraud, and the populist party would like to of fusion with the republican party.

Sociologists should study the different names given to crime according as the criminal moves high or low in society. A minister never commits a crime but what there are plenty of This paper will be mailed regularly people who will say that "his mind to its subscribers until a definite order was a blank during the whole process;" a bank wrecker never flees from justice, he "seeks seclusion in order to prostration;" a rich woman is never thief, she is a "kleptomaniac;" society man never cheats at cards, he we gladly reached out with both hands makes "a mistake in the deal;" and so on ad nauseum. What a mockery it allis, anyway.

Washington, April 10, 1890.

It is a great mistake to take hides from the free list where they have been for so many years. It is a slap in the face to the South Americans with since he came to town, but anyone whom we are trying to enlarge our who takes both papers knows that the trade. It will benefit the farmer by intimation is false. For six months adding 5 to 8 per cent to the price of and not an intente not slight. Come, he has never failed to say something his children's shoes. It will yield a and bring wives at d daughters or even profit to the butcher only the last sweethearts, and they will be made injurious from beginning to end-inevery form and phase. Pray stop it before it sees light. Such movements as this for protection will protect the republican party into a speedy retire ment. Yours hastely,

JAMES G. BLAINE. Hon. William McKinley, Chairman Ways and Means.

The chief point about this, aside from its evident truthfulness, is that Mr. Blaine might have gone further and included wool in the same criticism. The tax on wool benefits the farmer by adding to the price of his purchases of woolen clothing. The only difference between hides and wool so far as the imposition of a tax is concerned is that the protest of the Masschusetts manufacturer against tax on hides is more powerful than the | ments of warm regard. protest of the people against a tax on their woolen clothing. - Siona City

Whishertess. One never realizes how homely a man is until he shaves his face clean. The last week or two has been peculiarly fatal to hirsute growth, the worth Journal, but we would never whiskers to disappear even as the chinook melts the snows on the western plains. One shining example of these statements is C. K. Brower, the erstwith his booty in in his pocket crying cist at Quigley's drug store. We never before realized what an improvement a few hairs on the upper lip and flowing locks on man's poli were. Brower now presents a good profile of McKinthe fusion forces of the county. More and a full face which resembles the moon with a crack in it. Another victim is W. F. Bullis, but words are too weak to describe the impression a view of his countenance inspires. His Under our law delinquent lessors of best friends turn their heads when

In Advance. Our friend and former compositor on the Daily Herald, Robert Good, now editor of the Valentine, Neb., self a better half in the person of Miss Iva, daughter of Mr, and Mrs. J. S.
