HEAVENS' GREATEST SPECTACLE OF THE CENTURY.

HOW THE ECLIPSE WILL APPEAR THROUGH A TELESCOPE

INDIA will be the hub of the scientific world on the 28th of this month. On that date will occur a total eclipse of the sun, and for over four hours during the day darkness will be spread upon the earth and the stars will shine bravely forth. But American star gazers will be seriously handicapped because totality will be confined to the eastern hemisphere. There will be little on this side of the Atlantic to indicate the obscuration of the sun. To view this eclipse the Indian Government and several astronomical societies have arranged to occupy all convenient spots along the whole line of totality, wherever the railway system intersects this line. They will witness a sight which few men have been privileged to see.

The obscuration will begin generally over the territory where it can be observed at 4:46 in the morning of Jan. 22. It will be visible over all of Asia, Africa and Europe, with the exception of Spain, the west of France, Belgium and Holland. In other words, the western rim of the eastern continent will not be favored. The eclipse will begin in longitude 21 degrees 36 minutes east and latitude 28 minutes north at the hour named. It will end generally in longitude 110 degrees 7 minutes east and latitude 35 degrees 36 minutes north at 9:53 o'clock, thus affording observers something over four hours. The actual period of totality will be two minutes.

DURRANT PAYS THE PENALTY.

Legally Hanged for Diabolical Crimes Committed Three Years Ago.

has, after almost three years of dramatic history, at last paid the penalty of his horrible and revolting crimes. Durrant was hanged Friday in San Quentin prison, and when the hangman sprang the trap he rung down the curtain on what has been one of the longest, most exciting, sensational and sharply contested murder trials in the history of American criminal law. While Durrant was convicted of but one murder under the law, he was held responsible by public opinion for the murder of both Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams, and it is felt that his death expiates one crime as much as the other. He kept up his remarkable nerve until the last and died protesting his innocence.

On April 3, 1895, Blanche Lamont, a member of the Sunday school attached to the Emanuel Baptist Church, suddenly disappeared from the residence of her aunt, with whom she lived. Nine days later Minnie Williams left her home in Alameda to attend a meeting of young people, and, like Blanche Lamont, she failed to return. The following day, April 13, the body of Minnie Williams was found in the library of Emanuel Baptist Church. It was terribly disfigured, and gave evidences of the girl having given her slayer a fearful battle before she yielded up her life.

The machinery of the law was put in motion. Detectives, with hardly any clue to work upon, set out upon their task. In some way the finding of Miss Williams' body was linked with the disappearance of Blanche Lamont. A diligent search was instituted. Every nook and corner of the church was searched, and on the following day the police discovered Miss Lamont's body in the dusty belly of the church. The method and manner of her death was identical with that of Miss Williams. San Francisco was horrified. The police were astounded at the enormity of the crime, but kept to their work assiduously.

COLONEL ARANGUREN.

Daring Young Cuban Commander Who Ordered Ruiz's Execution.

Col. Nestor Aranguren, about whose personality so much interest centers because he met Col. Ruiz's offer of peace by ordering his execution, is one of the younger and most daring of the Cuban leaders. He is in command of a detachment on the outskirts of Havana, and much has he worried the Spaniards. Aranguren's most daring piece of work was a raid into the town of Guanabacoa, a suburb of Havana, across the bay. He held possession of the place for several hours, despite the fact that it contained a strong Spanish garrison. He laid a plot to capture Gen. Weyler on one of his trips into the country, and would probably have succeeded had not the premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge given warning of the presence of the insurgents.

LONDON, ONT., CITY HALL.

Scene Where Scores of People Were Precipitated Into a Death Pit.

It now appears that there were but twenty deaths from the collapse of the floor in the London, Ont., city hall, although first reports gave as many as thirty killed.

Great as is the horror, it seems almost miraculous that more were not killed. Writing of the disaster a newspaper man who went down into the pit says: "The writer was hurled backward into the pit and underneath the falling timbers. When the air cleared of the dust and the bright chandelier immediately overhead shone into the death pit, a ghastly sight met the eyes. Faces gashed and covered with blood were everywhere to be seen. The drawn countenances of those who suffered internally and were in the throes of death were also among the number. Old men, with gray hair and beards matted with blood, lay pinned in the heap, along with small boys, distorted with pain. The clothes and faces of all were ashy with the dust of plaster and added to the horror of the scene. From above me, blood from those killed and injured began to trickle, and that, with the cries of the dying for deliverance from their pains made an impression on me which I shall never forget."

England exultingly declares that she holds "the key to the East," but whether she will use it to lock herself in or Germany out remains to be seen. The key trick may not work in the present case.—New York Mail and Express.

Edward Clifford was sentenced in Jersey City to be hanged for the murder of William Watson, a division superintendent of the West Shore road.
