Thomas County News

Entered in the post-office at Thedford, Nebraska, as second-class matter.

John Krickbaum was in on Tuesday. Dr. Clark was called to Dunning on Monday.

Geo. Kellar was in town on Tuesday smiling and shaking hands with friends. McMillan shipped two cars of stock, part of them being from Krickbaum's ranch.

County Treasurer Talbot was here early in the week looking after the delinquent tax list. Squire Posten has recently purchased the land formerly occupied by Mr. Cooke at Seneca.

George Higgins and two brothers were here attending to the shipment of some stock on Monday. The postoffice has been moved to the old Dr. Langsdon office; postmaster West having purchased it.

County commissioners Walters and Crawford were attending the meeting of the board on Tuesday. Mr. Farley of Aurora, Nebraska, was here Tuesday and went out with Mr. Etinger to buy some cattle.

Fete Rouché was over on Monday looking for a doctor for his wife who was left here for treatment. Mr. Etinger of Dundee, Illinois, owner of large cattle ranch interests was here early in the week.

Mr. Felix Posten Sr., of Seneca, was at the meeting of the commissioners and has been appointed justice of the peace for Seneca. M. Dunham, of Kennedy, came in with Dell Ayers' U. S. mail carrier from Brownlee Saturday evening. Mr. Dunham visited Hanford over Sunday at the Upham sheep ranch.

Nebraska Falls.
Since our last writing Miss Sara Adanson visited her brother John for a day. Lynn W. Parker visited his parents a couple of days last week.

R. Grooms returned Monday from a trip to Sparks on business. Felix Nollette & Wm. Archer passed through this vicinity Tuesday with a bunch of cattle they had purchased from Sparks Bros.

Reese and Reed went up to the German settlement Sunday after some pigs they had purchased. Sergeant Elmer Cole was in town the first of the week and applied for an extension of time on his furlough. The Sergeant is rapidly regaining his health and spirits and another month will patch him up as good as new.

Jake Anthis came over from Brownlee Monday to file on a homestead. Lon Mosher has commenced digging his 'tater crop. Thinks he will have enough to feed the old woman on this winter.

John Mark fell through his hay rack a few days ago and it is reported that he broke a couple of ribs. BAD BOY.

Kennedy.
Charles Austin has returned after locating his family for the winter in Loup City. Mr. John Bardson is here visiting from Edgmont.

Sears Bros. started October 1 with a fine bunch of steers for the South Omaha market. The dance at Charles Kime's last week was attended by some of our Kennedy young folks. Miss Lizzie Kime is visiting in Lone Tree valley this week.

James Steadman, of Pass, was in Kennedy on the 1. J. A. Gee has commenced building an ice house in his grove in the west end of the valley. Some hay is being bought about the vicinity for $1.50 per ton while others are holding for $2.00. Quite a number of cattle have died on the lakes close to Kennedy; supposed cause black-leg. U. S. Monthly report of school in Dist. No. 2: Number pupils enrolled 27. Those not absent nor tardy, 'annie, Malvin, Ora and Rhoda Hooper, Byrdie and Johnnie Melton, Carl and Frances Connelly, Fred Cottle and Earl Ward. Eli Precinct.

F. R. Yanish and wife took in the Gordon Fair last week. William Selder of Sioux City was up visiting and looking after his interest in the Selder Bros. ranch. He filed on a quarter section of land while here.

P. Sullivan, Henry Heckel, J. P. Gardiner and E. E. Crane delivered cattle at Merriman last week. E. F. Devine seems to be right in the push these days.

While in Gordon recently we dropped into the Journal office and was having a very pleasant chat with the editor when we noticed posted on the wall "No Loafers Allowed in Here." The only thing we could do was to beg the editor's pardon and pull our freight.

Aiva Green of Merriman was seen meandering around this neck 'o woods one day last week. Hugh Bovill and Fred Robinson each sold a bunch of steers last week. A sister of Mrs. Selder, of Hot Springs, has been visiting with her the last week or ten days.

Blackleg is quite common through this part of the county at the present time. SANDY

Anna Kissel, wife of W. R. Kissel of Brownlee, Neb., departed this life Sept. 28, 1898, at her home six miles north of Brownlee. She fell asleep quietly after three weeks' illness with typhoid dysentery.

Anna Lee, sister of John R. and Jas. M. Lee, was born near Monaghan, Ireland, December 20, 1834. She came to America in January, 1851, and lived a few years in Bradford Co. Pennsylvania moving thence to Wisconsin where in 1857 she married Wm. R. Kissel and came to Nebraska. In the spring of 1888 she came to Cherry county so she is entitled to be called an old settler.

Mrs. Kissel was of Godly parentage and in early life made profession of her faith in Christ. She was for many years a member of the Covenanter church at Fremont and Wahoo, but a few years ago she identified herself with the Methodist church of Brownlee. In the even tenor of her life she sustained a godly profession.

She was laid to rest in the Brownlee burying ground Thursday afternoon, Sept. 9, the service being conducted by the Rev. Wm. C. Paden, of Wahoo, assisted by the Rev. Campbell. Her husband, one son and five daughters mourn the death of this good woman.

Geo. O'Donnel and wife are stopping at the Gordon Hotel. Hugh Bovill and Fred Robinson, of Merriman, each shipped cattle this week.

Nellie Dobson of Merriman is visiting this week with Mary VanBuskirk. It is said there were fully a hundred drunk Indians in town this week. One of these days when it is too late our citizens and town authorities will awaken to the sad realization that it is dangerous business to fill a red man's skin full of rotgut whiskey and turn him loose within the bounds of civilization.—Gordon Journal.

Andrew Yaryan, of Pullman, shipped out two cars of cattle Sunday night to the South Omaha market. Dr. Bradley was called to Mullen to prescribe for Rev. Hulbert's daughter Grace, who was threatened with typhoid fever.

Thirty-six cars of "cross-anchor" cattle from the company's Wyoming ranch were unloaded at this place Monday to be ranged north-east of Pullman.—Whitman Sun.

The free silver republican voters of the 14th senatorial district are requested to meet in convention in Ainsworth Tuesday, Oct. 11, 1898, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for state senator. All republicans who believe in the remonetization of silver are cordially invited to attend. J. G. ACKERMAN, Chairman.

J. H. Shore, fusion candidate for representative, accompanied by his wife stopped in town a few days to visit relatives while on his way from Omaha to his ranch in Cherry County. Mr. Shore learned of his nomination when arrived at Basset. He left for Cherry County on Monday.—Springview Call.

Mary Boule of Valentine, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gray. L. K. Alder sold a big bunch of cattle last week, to F. E. Gillette, to be delivered Oct. 17. The Excelsior roller mills shipped a carload of flour direct to London last Thursday.—Ainsworth Star-Journal.
