ANDREW L. ROLLINS, 23, of the Second New York State Troops, has been ordered by the medical board to be discharged from the service. He is recovering slowly from his wound, which he received at the battle of Gettysburg.

BOSTON GOES TO CHINA.

The steamer with the Great Eastern Steamship Corporation's mail steamer, the Empress of China, left for Japan last night, accompanied by the American minister to Japan, the late Robert B. Moore, and his family. Captain Moore was accompanied by his family, including his wife, a member of the staff of the American Consulate in Tokyo, and several other members of the American Legation.

The Empress of China is a modern, well-equipped steamer, and is expected to reach Japan in about 10 days. Captain Moore is expected to return to the United States in a few weeks.

SUNRISE IS THE SEASON FOR GARDENING.

The season for gardening is now begun, and the sun is rising on the gardeners. The sun is the gardener's friend, and the gardener's friend is the sun. The sun is the gardener's guide, and the gardener's guide is the sun. The sun is the gardener's foe, and the gardener's foe is the sun. The sun is the gardener's helper, and the gardener's helper is the sun. The sun is the gardener's enemy, and the gardener's enemy is the sun. The sun is the gardener's master, and the gardener's master is the sun.

FIGHT TO THE DEATH.

HORSE LADIES ENGAGE CIVILIAN TROOPS AT SEAR ISLAND.

Major Williams, three soldiers and a civilian man engaged the mounted soldiers of the American Legion at Sear Island, New York, yesterday. The troops were engaged in a dispute over the use of the island, which was occupied by the troops. The soldiers were engaged in a dispute over the use of the island, which was occupied by the soldiers. The soldiers were occupied in a dispute over the use of the island, which was occupied by the soldiers. The soldiers were engaged in a dispute over the use of the island, which was occupied by the soldiers. The soldiers were engaged in a dispute over the use of the island, which was occupied by the soldiers.

JEALOUS WOMEN MURDER.

A woman was murdered in Clinton, Ohio, yesterday, by her common-law husband, who was brought to the house of the woman by a woman who was her common-law husband. The woman was murdered in Clinton, Ohio, by her common-law husband, who was brought to the house of the woman by a woman who was her common-law husband. The woman was murdered in Clinton, Ohio, by her common-law husband, who was brought to the house of the woman by a woman who was her common-law husband. The woman was murdered in Clinton, Ohio, by her common-law husband, who was brought to the house of the woman by a woman who was her common-law husband. The woman was murdered in Clinton, Ohio, by her common-law husband, who was brought to the house of the woman by a woman who was her common-law husband.