Official Paper of Cherry County, Nebraska. $1.00 Per Year in Advance

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

Entered at the Post-office at Valentine, Cherry County, Nebraska, as Second-class matter.

This paper will be mailed regularly to its subscribers until a definite order to discontinue is received and all arrears are paid in full.

THIS AND THAT

On and after January 1, 1900, all subscribers who are in arrears to this paper two years or more will have their accounts placed in the hands of attorneys for collection. We must have money, and that right away. We have offered liberal inducements for patrons to pay in advance, and if they do not choose to take our offer, they will be the only ones to lose by the transaction. Anyone who pays a year in advance, either for subscription or brand, will be credited to January 1, 1900.

Bob. Dyer of Rosebud, is in town this week.

Crabb & Vincent are moving into the Barker building.

Ed Clarke spent Saturday and Sunday on the reservation.

Jas. Nolan of Harrison, registered at The Donoher Tuesday.

S. S. McClean of Brownlee, was in town yesterday on business.

The NEWS-DEMOCRAT from now until Jan 1st, 1900, for only $1.

Those two jolly young boys, Tom and Jerry, are in town today.

Bennett & Lord, of Simeon, were in town on business Saturday.

Wm. Hook was down from Cody on business the first of the week.

A. B. McAlvey was in from Kennedy on land office business, Monday.

Major Chas. E. McChesney was over from Rosebud Tuesday, after annuity money.

Wm. Beamer, who attended court as a juror last week, stayed in town visiting friends all week.

Frank Brayton returned home Saturday night from a six week's business trip in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Fred Gordon returned home from Fremont, where she has been attending school, Sunday night.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

A number of our young people had a dance in the Ludwig house in the west part of town, last Friday night.

The ice on Lake Minnehadusa is about six inches thick and smooth as glass. Skaters are enjoying it by the score.

Hon. John Shore has rented the Fischer property on Cherry street and with his family will move therein shortly.

Dan Handy and several others of the Rosebud contingent of Valentine workmen returned home during the past week.

Earl Comstock treated a number of his friends to oysters at The Donoher Monday evening. The editor was one of the friends.

Of one thing we are certain and that is this: Even the most ardent anti-annexationist is today in favor of taking Turkey.

G. W. Burge of Kennedy dropped a dollar in the slot Monday morning and heard the editor's dulcet voice murmur words of thanks.

Miss Caveny of Fremont, came down from Cody, where she had been visiting her mother, the first of the week, and is visiting friends here.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a supper in the old Republican office last Friday night, and every thing in sight was eaten.

We have had a splendid autumn and winter has held off remarkably well, but we'll bet a dollar that lots of people haven't got their sheds fixed for winter yet.

Wanted, at The Donoher, a laundress. Will pay $4.00 per week.

C. M. Sageser is under the weather this week, enjoying an attack of "grip."

The South Omaha Daily Drivers Journal and the Stockman have consolidated.

Water pipes in the Cherry County Bank building burst Tuesday night and the building was flooded next morning.

The genial J. McLane, of the Rosebud reserve, was in Valentine several days the past week combining business with pleasure.

Bert Gillette, who has been at the Dwyer hospital taking treatment for catarrh of the stomach, returned to Ainsworth this week much improved in health.

I. M. Rice came down from his homestead in the western part of the county Saturday and is enjoying himself circling around with his many friends in Valentine.

The Nebraska legislature this winter will be republican, but the NEWS-DEMOCRAT has made arrangements whereby it is enabled to give the proceedings in full. Now is the time to subscribe.

Dr. Ed Dwyer, who has been practicing medicine in South Omaha, arrived in Valentine Saturday and will enter into partnership with his brother, Dr. J. C. Dwyer.

Martin Christensen returned home from Rosebud Monday night, after five week's work at the agency. He hasn't done anything but talk democracy since, and is rapidly making up for his deficiency during the campaign.

G. H. Fritz has sold the Keya Paha Call to W. M. Skinner who has once again changed the paper's name and politics. It is now the Springfield Herald, republican in politics. Bro. Fritz has not yet decided what he will do this winter.

I. M. Rice has accepted an agency for the Nebraska Mutual Insurance Co. and will make this his headquarters for the future. We understand that he will go into partnership with J. M. Carpenter shortly and open a general stock of merchandise.

Business is rushing at the Indian freight depot and it keeps Colonel Tucker's head push, Messrs. Monshouer and Zarr on move all the time, while the genial clerk, Homer Smith, records the proceedings in a manner that bespeaks great credit for him.

F. T. Lee, a prominent stockman of the Loup country, was in town Tuesday and advanced the price of his subscription to this paper another year. From him we also learned that the general merchandise firm of Fritz & Lewis, Brownlee, had sold out to Mr. Skirving, of Stuart, who is to take possession the first of the year.

From all reports we would judge that C. P. Jordan's establishment at Rosebud is one of the neatest stores in this section. The outside front is of stamped steel, painted to resemble Milwaukee brick with stone trimmings, and has large plate glass windows. The ceiling of the interior is of stamped steel artistically designed, and having been painted by M. Christensen is a thing of beauty and will likewise prove a joy forever.

Our readers have all heard of the great prairie fire which swept southern Brown county a short time ago, but its origin has been shrouded in mystery. While in Ainsworth Saturday we were told by a couple of ranchmen that they had at last solved the conundrum relating to the fire's cause. Asked for the solution they said: "The whole thing is clear as mud. Judge Toliver passed through our section a day or so before the fire, and he was making such a hot campaign for the county attorneyship that he set the grass afire."

C. H. Thompson, who went as a delegate to the state meet of the Improved Order of Redmen, returned home Saturday. He reports a very interesting and enthusiastic state convention. Cicero was honored by the Great Sachem with an appointment as Guard of the Forest of the Great Council, and a full attendance is desired at the next meeting of the local lodge, Sitting Bull Tribe No. 22, to hear his report of the Great Council. The pipe of peace will be smoked and it is probable that corn and venison will be provided.

Andrew M. Morrissey has many friends in Chadron and Dawes county who will congratulate him most heartily upon his election as county attorney of Cherry county. Andrew is one of the best young men who have left Chadron to seek fortune elsewhere. He studied law in the office of Hon. Allen G. Fisher and has made a successful record for himself during the time that he has been in practice. He has the necessary requirements for success and, barring his politics, Andrew is a most worthy young man in every respect.—Chadron Journal.

Market Growing. The growth of the cattle market at Kansas City is very apparent when one studies the figures for the past few years. The receipts for the month of October were 231,300, which is 43,500 more than a year ago and is the largest month's receipts ever arriving at the Kansas City stock yards. The previous big month was September, 1896, when the figures were 229,945. The prices, too, are better than the average of the past twelve years. The top price for native steers in October was $5.50; in 1894 the top price for the month was $6; in 1893, $5.60, and in 1891, $3; in all other years of the twelve the top figure for October was below $5.50.

Miraculous. Last Friday at Davenport & Thacher's a customer fell to the floor in great pain. As no doctor was about, it was impossible to give the poor man relief. Mr. Louis Loeb of Rock Island, Illinois, manufacturer of that well known Hi Hi Bitters happened to pass, and hearing the cries of the sufferer ran in, opened his sample case and gave the patient one drink of Hi Hi Bitters and he was immediately relieved.

Our reporter was not at the rescue but looking up Dr. Loeb wanted to interview the gentleman but being rather bashful all he would say was that Hi Hi Bitters was good for what ailed you, and it was a common occurrence to save people's lives.

Gets a New Trial. A. L. Morgan, who was sent to the penitentiary a year ago for obtaining money from C. R. Watson on fraudulent representations, has been granted a new trial by the efforts of Judge Broady before the supreme court, and was brought here Sunday night and now occupies a cell in the county jail. Strong efforts are being made to have the case against him dismissed, and as the expense of a new trial will at this time be more than double that of the first trial, to say nothing of jailor's fees and board for six months, it is very probable that the efforts being made in his behalf will be successful. Judge Kincaid will be here next month on other business, and the prosecuting attorney may at that time dismiss the case.

Twelve Years Old. The Republican passed the 12th milestone of its existence last week, and appropriately celebrated the event by moving into a neat, new and substantial office of its own. We are glad to note both these evidences of the Republican's prosperity, and trust that after we have been here for twelve years we will be able to go it one better and move into two buildings. Bro. Barker has worked hard during his life in Valentine, and his success must be a gratifying thing. Like most newspaper men he has had to bear many "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune," but now that he is able to lie on "flowery beds of ease," we with all others who love Valentine and its business enterprises make our obeisance and wish him continued success.

Our Dogs are Under Doctor's Care. Col. Dixon, of the Richardson Drug company, Omaha, came up to Chadron the fore part of the week, and went out three consecutive mornings on wolf chases. Valentine sports have offered a wager of $1,000 that they have the fastest hound in a chase in Nebraska, and Mr. Dixon was here on these chases with a view to backing Ben Davis' hounds, and they went together after coyotes and jack rabbits to test the speed of the hounds. A backer of hounds in South Dakota wants to enter the race also. The contest will likely be made at Gordon. It was first intended to be made about Thanksgiving, but it may not take place until near the holidays. Mr. Davis thinks he has two or three hounds in his pack that cannot be beaten. Grayhound coursing is a common fad, and field sports from the east come west to enjoy the sport.—Chadron News.

They are Thankful. In conversation with numerous prominent people we learn that they are thankful for the following reasons: Dr. Wells—That Dr. Jackson's dentist sign blew down at the same time his did. Ed Clarke—That Valentine gave him a splendid endorsement even if the county didn't. M. Christensen—That there were more republican votes at Rosebud on election day than democrats. A. M. Morrissey—That he was elected. W. F. Morgareidge—That Davenport lost his bet on Cleveland precinct. F. M. Walcott—That he didn't run for county attorney. J. J. Guth and numerous others—That the court house bonds carried. Al Thacher—That he voted the democratic ticket in part. W. S. Barker—That he finally has a new office. Frank Brayton—That he escaped the matrimonial noose while in Wisconsin. E. Sparks—That only a few of his water pipes burst. J. C. Pettijohn—That his record has been vindicated.
