Mrs. Antrim, who has been visiting her parents, J. W. Tucker and wife, returned home to Traer, Iowa, this week.

The Harrison Press last week published the names of twenty-five children in its town who were ill with measles.

C. A. Johnson, of Woodlake, was in town yesterday. He informs us that he will erect a new bank building in the spring.

Newt Grooms was in from Sparks this week and made the editor's heart glad by donating a few plunks on subscription.

Leila McCloud is having rock hauled preparatory to building a new residence 24 x 36 just east of her present property.

On behalf of the mortgagee attorney Morrissey replevined the Gillette millinery stock and has placed Cora Gillette in charge of same.

Tom Sharkey, "the sailor," whipped Kid McCoy in the 10th round of their fight before the Lenox Athletic Club, New York, Tuesday night.

Hugh Bovill was in town Tuesday to attend the county convention of the Modern Woodmen, and ordered his stock brand published in this paper.

Vernie Stevenson of Woodlake has purchased a half interest in C. R. Walcott's livery business, and assumed the duties of partnership yesterday.

Max Viertel represented the Crookston camp and L. E. Stuart Cody, at the Woodmen convention. P. F. Simons was elected delegate to the state meeting at Fremont.

Dave Hamar and wife were in town Monday, to bid Mrs. Holsington goodbye. She left for her home at Key-Stone, after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Hamar.

Stuffed Dates simply delicious at T. C. Hornby's.

C. Hamar registered at the City Hotel, Tuesday.

Elmer Bristol was laid up with the grip several days this week.

Dr. Compton has recovered from his illness and is caring for his patients once more.

Parsons, the photographer, will not visit Valentine in February. His next trip here will be March 1.

Jim Irwin of Fort Niobrara drives a pair of mules which he says are the speediest animals in the county.

County Judge Towne has been confined to his home all week with grip, and unable to hold court. He is improving at this writing.

Postmaster Sherman has been quite ill the past week, and W. E. Haley and J. H. Yeast have been assisting Miss Watson during the busy hours.

Representative Shore is a member of the house committee on School Lands and Funds. Why the speaker did not put him on Live Stock and Grazing is a mystery.

J. A. Fike was called by telegram to the bedside of a sick brother last Sunday morning. The home of the brother is in Illinois, and the word came that he was not expected to live.—Newport Republican.

Sarah Ann Miller has been adjudged insane by the county board of insanity, complaint being made Monday by her husband, Japheth Miller, of Woodlake. The unfortunate woman will be sent to Norfolk.

Hon. O. P. Billings, of Norden, was in town this week and purchased two cars of hogs from Cherry county farmers, paying three cents therefor. He shipped yesterday and will probably visit Valentine again in about a month.

R. F. Pettycrew was in town Saturday and with a smile which reached almost to his ears informed us that his wife presented him with a lively little boy baby Friday. Fish says it ain't very big but it's a dandy just the same.

Ed Ross, formerly of the Twelfth infantry, returned to Valentine Saturday and will once more run his livery stable near Fort Niobrara. He says the boys of the Twelfth are very much opposed to going to the Philippines, and are using every possible means to secure their discharges.

Hon. John Shore came home Friday night and spent Saturday and Sunday with his family. He informs us that his was the only desk in the house that was decorated with a bouquet at the opening session, and naturally feels that he has something to be proud of. In his opinion D. E. Thompson at present is the leading candidate for United States Senator.

County Attorney Morrissey has rented the two west rooms in the Cherry County Bank building for his office, the county allowing him three tons of coal per year and he paying his own rent. Superintendent Brown will use the present county attorney's office for her work, and retiring Attorney Walcott will move into the building heretofore occupied by Clarke & Tucker. He is having a new front put in this building and both rooms are being entirely refitted and repaired. Clarke & Tucker will move into the Watson building, south of the postoffice.

J. J. Bothwell, of Pullman, came in Monday after two Short Horn calves that were shipped to him over the Burlington from Iowa. They were fine animals and came through in excellent shape.

What came near being a fatal shooting affair happened at Seneca on Sunday evening about 6:30 o'clock, when Nels Ikes, a boiler maker, employed by the Burlington, shot druggist Goddard in the thigh with a .38 caliber revolver. It seems that Ikes is of a quarrelsome nature and came into the drug store Sunday afternoon looking for trouble, when Goddard asked him to leave the store. Some words followed, when Mr. Goddard shot in the floor near Ikes to scare him out, and he left the house. About 6:30 Mrs. Ikes came to the store asked for Goddard and backed out on the sidewalk when Mr. Goddard stepped out, and she started to go around the building as though trying to lure Mr. Goddard with her, but he noticed Ikes standing in the street and started to step into the store when Ikes shot at him, inflicting a severe flesh wound.—Whitman Sun.

VALENTINE, Neb., Jan. 11, 1899.
Whereas the reaper of death has "garnered in" the beloved mother of Brother Hopkins, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Northern Star Chapter, No. 50, O. E. S., extend to our brother our heartfelt sympathy. May he realize that not in cruelty, not in wrath, the reaper came that day, and that his own welcome will be the warmer because of the loved ones gone before.
