With this issue of the WESTERN NEWS-DEMOCRAT the paper enters the fourteenth year of its existence, which has been a checked one. Starting as the Democratic Blade it finally became the Gazette, next the Independent, and then the Valentine Democrat. In September it was merged with the Western News and bears its present hyphenated name with modesty and decorum. The paper speaks for itself, and for it we have no apologies to offer, except that we would make it better were it not for our straitened circumstances. This obstacle however will be hope be gradually removed, and as our ambitions soar no higher than our paper, the readers of the NEWS-DEMOCRAT may rest assured that they will be made richer as we grow in wealth. Our circulation is now larger than that of any other country paper on this line of road, and we shall strive to make of every reader a friend. True to its principles and its clientele, it will always be found standing up for the right and the interests of the stockmen and farmers who are the "bone and sinew" of the northwest. We are proud of our paper, and hope that our readers may always be proud of it too. With this wish we begin the new volume, and hope to begin many more the same way.

A letter from a friend in England to the Shelby Sun contains the following significant item: "One thing demonstrates the gigantic fraud which the people of the United States almost unconsciously submit to, and that is the sugar trust fraud. Here in England and where there is not a pound of sugar produced, granulated sugar retails at three halfpence (3 cents) a pound, but in the "land of liberty" where sugar is produced, the government, under the guise of tariff dues, throws its mantle of support over one of the worst monopolies that ever cursed a nation, and the consequence is that the people are made to pay between 6 and 7 cents a pound."

A special press dispatch from Sioux City states that indications go to show satisfactory progress of the negotiations for the purchase by the Milwaukee Railway company of the Pacific Short Line road between that place and O'Neill. The line is to be sold under foreclosure soon. President Miller, of the Milwaukee, is intending to extend the road through Northern Nebraska so as to be a carrier of cattle for P. D. Armour's packing house at Sioux City, and who is also a heavy stockholder in the Milwaukee. The project looks plausible.

State Treasurer Meserve has made a call for $50,000 worth of state warrants. He has also given notice that he has on hand $100,000 of the permanent school fund to invest in state securities in addition to the above. For the benefit of the schools of the state. How is this for an honest state treasurer?

Gallop
 Edith Warren from this vicinity, is up at Pine Ridge visiting her grandmother. Grant Kregers and wife lost a little boy by death on the 20, and they have the sympathy of the community in their hour of affliction. There will be an oyster supper at Coe's school house some time in the future. Watch this paper for further particulars. The supper will be given for the benefit of the minister, and a good attendance is hoped for. Andrew Henderson was in Gordon Saturday on business. Mrs. George Hill is in Gordon where she is caring for her baby at the hospital. Mr. Hill and A. C. Johnson are hatching it during her absence. Mr. Swan, of Gordon, has 1,800 head of sheep on the Murphy place near Willow Leeper's. Lynda Man, who has been working in Gordon, is home on a visit. Gerlie Cady is reported quite sick.

Eli Precinct.
 The menials are still on the warpath in this part of the moral vineyard. Mr. and Mrs. Len Winslow are the proud parents of a new boy. Henry Heckel was under the weather last week with the grip. B. O. Goodrich has moved back from Valentine. Berri can't stay away from Eli precinct. Wm. Spence was over south on a trade last week. The dance at Strube's was enjoyed by all present except Rubber Neck, who had a cramp in his stomach and was not able to take part. Gustave Gunderson and Mr. Sherman were through here last week looking for cattle. Geo. Heckel attended the dance at Mr. Cass's Friday night. A Mr. Reef from Iowa, was on the river last week. He came out to see his son, who was working for J. E. Selder. We understand the son will return with his father to Iowa. I. B. Nichols is in Cody working at his trade of plastering. Why don't Aunt Betsy, of Merriman, send in items every week, or is she waiting for someone to get married so as to give her pedigree?

"Squib Bob" sends this paper a news item to the effect that Money Butler thinks nothing runs on the range he can't rope and hog-tie, but that on the 18th he found his match and had to call on Mrs. Dr. Johnson to assist him; his wife presenting him with an 8-pound boy. Mother and child are doing well and Money—well he stands with his high-heeled boots on four feet eleven or eleven feet four inches, plagued if we haven't forgotten which.
