It would do your soul good to see the editor milk a cow.

Frank Rothleitner was down from Kilgore Saturday on business.

F. Mogle, of Cody, was in Valentine Friday and made this office a call.

C. Cole, of Cody, was in town this week receiving medical treatment.

D. Stinard is closing out all his heavy goods—suits, overcoats, etc.

W. E. Waite and son Arthur were in town from Chesterfield this week.

Bert White, of Merriman, was in town Tuesday on land-office business.

Quite a number of parties were kept in town yesterday by the storm.

Wanted—1,000 bushels of shelled corn and 500 bushels of oats at W. A. Pettycrow's.

The reported deal of D. S. Ludwig for the Ferguson property has been declared off.

James D. Corder, of Pine Ridge, has been appointed a carpenter at the Rosebud Indian School.

C. W. Bennett, a prosperous ranchman near Simeon, was in town on Monday transacting business.

Chas. Girtside, Chet Goodrich and Mrs. Sisler, all of Cody, were in town Friday on land-office business.

Fred Strong, of Brownlee, was in town one day the latter part of last week on a hurried business trip.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

P. Balgord and son, of Rosebud, were in town the first of the week, visiting and transacting business.

A farm to rent to a farmer for one or three years, cash or grain rent. Call at this office for particulars.

The Rosebud mail did not run yesterday on account of the storm, which was the severest of the season.

The county clerk is busily engaged in making out the assessors' books for this year and has nearly completed the job.

Carlson & Anderson sell a very neat tank heater that all stockmen should inspect before buying anything in that line.

Miss E. M. Davisson returned home to Longpine Saturday after a three weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Robt. Good.

Frank Thorn is working in the county treasurer's office this week, assisting in preparing notices to delinquent taxpayers.

Geo. H. Webb, of Rosebud, who has been visiting his father, who was very ill in Wisconsin, was in town yesterday on his way home.

Dr. J. C. Dwyer made a trip to Woodlake Sunday to see Jack Kief, who has been quite ill. The doctor reports that he is convalescent.

D. H. Cronin, the editor of the O'Neill Frontier, has been appointed postmaster of his town. Congratulations are extended from this office.

Wm. Ferdon tells us that the losses of the Comstock outfit approximated only sixteen head instead of thirty as we reported last week.

Little Margaret Evans, daughter of Dr. Evans who has been seriously ill with the typhoid fever, is, we are glad to state, rapidly recovering.—Norden Borealis.

New Goodrich Sewing Machines at T. C. Hornby's.

C. H. Thompson is erecting a barn on his lots in the southeast part of town.

Carpenters are at work on the hose house, which is being built on lots north of the Emery property.

N. Elliott was in from McCann on Monday, having business before W. E. Haley in connection with real estate in that neighborhood.

Insure your farm property and stock against fire, lightning, and tornadoes at one per cent in the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company, of Nebraska, I. M. Rice, agent.

Wm. Ballard was in from his ranch Monday and reported stock withstanding the late cold weather in his neighborhood fairly well, there being scarcely any losses whatever.

Valentine citizens think they are having a hard time with their village water supply, but they have been having an easy time of it compared to Longpine and other places.

Dr. Peters paid a very high compliment to our western cattle when he said that a 6-months old calf here was so well developed it was readily mistaken for one 9-months old.

W. H. Carter, who visited friends and relatives in Springview for several weeks past, returned last Friday, and now visits at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Shore, in this city.

All accounts due me have been placed in the hands of the Cherry County Bank and Sheriff Strong, for collection. Please settle.

JOHN HOFFMAN.

John Lord was in town Monday and says the NEWS-DEMOCRAT was misinformed regarding his losses of cattle during the recent cold snap. He says that he didn't lose a head during the "below zero" weather.

Judge Walcott, although having a large law practice, is always prepared to attend to more and takes the proper course to obtain it by inserting a professional card in the columns of the NEWS-DEMOCRAT.

D. S. Ludwig received a car of lime, a car of windmills and pumps, and a car of wide tire wagons last week. Dan sold four wagons during the week, and thought business in that line was pretty dull. He sells wagons cheaper than anybody in town.

W. H. Sellers, of Gallop, was in town Tuesday to complete the deal for the Ed Dibble farm, near Gallop, which he purchased. He made this office a pleasant visit and informed us that the NEWS-DEMOCRAT was a household necessity with them.

Hon. Otto Mutz, ex-state senator, of Keya Paha county, was called to Ototo county, this state, to attend the last sad rites of his mother, Tuesday morning. Only one month ago he was summoned thus to attend the funeral of his father.—Bassett Eagle.

"Bowman's Big City Show" which appeared at the opera house Tuesday evening was rank. It wouldn't pass muster in a cross-road Indian village. The magic lantern was the best part of the show, which didn't produce one-third of their advertised attractions.

H. Brockman and Wm. Brown, of Brocksburg, stopped over in the city Tuesday night. Brockman informed a Herald reporter that they had the cattle thieves pretty well located and that there would be a wholesale pulling match in the near future.—Springview Herald.

J. W. Ostrander, of Rushville, who owns a ranch on the headwaters of Gordon creek, in the west part of the county, was in town Saturday paying his taxes, and transacting other business. He expressed considerable surprise over the growth of our town during the last three years.

Prosecuting Attorney Morrissey was at Brownlee Monday to try the case of State vs Belding for stealing a calf. The case developed into a personal affair before it was through and Judge Growden, who tried the case, dismissed the defendant. Tom McClain was the prosecuting witness.

E. Shackleton, who lives about seven miles this side of Norden, was in town Tuesday with a load of wheat which he sold to the Minnechadua Mill. He was one of a party from the same locality, consisting of George and Roy Hancock, Johnnie Brock, Rudolph Langor, Gene Hutchinson, and Bob Roberts. The entire party brought in wheat, averaging fifty bushels to the load.

The Georgia Minstrels played to the largest house of any like organization for five years. The program was pleasing in every respect. The special features were Elenora Dardis, Soprano, Chas. H. Marrs, Tenor, Eddie F. Elliott, Mimic, and the Eclipse Quartette in plantation melodies. The band and orchestra is under the direction of Mr. J. H. Ross.—Telegram, Columbus, Neb.

At Cornell Hall, Friday evening, February 24.
