An editor has been inspired, after looking over his list of delinquent subscribers, to compose the following: "How dear to my heart is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without neck tie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seem so new; the wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well; the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well."

Good For Morrissey.

A. M. Morrissey, who was elected county attorney, and a comparative stranger, will undoubtedly give satisfaction. There has been a number of cases reported to him by meddlesome people, and through revenge for some fancied wrong. He has wisely refused to prosecute under such circumstances, not desiring to bring costs upon the county where it was impossible to procure a conviction. We have heard him unjustly criticised by some chronic fault finders, and those that were antagonistic toward him, in particular, but his party. Such narrow mindedness is always allowed to go unnoticed, and we predict that he will attend to the duties devolving upon him by the position he occupies, and will not ask them for advice.—The Pullman Correspondent in the Whitman Sun.

Trouble at Johnston.

Ed Rector, constable of Johnston precinct, brought Bert Valentine to this place Tuesday and turned him over to Sheriff Murray. Mr. Valentine failed to secure bail up to this time. The Valentine boys and the Kilgore of Johnston had a little difference and proceeded to adjust it a la Corbit-Fitzsimmons style, with the result that the Kilgore had the Valentine boys arrested charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm. The other Valentine boy gave bonds for appearance at court.—Ainsworth Home Rule.

Lenten Luncheon.

Edna Fischer entertained Mesdames Smyser, Nicholson, Chapman, Good and J. H. Yeast at a Lenten luncheon yesterday afternoon. The guests were all young married women, and enjoyed themselves immensely. Miss Fischer proving an ideal hostess. The afternoon passed very pleasantly with music, conversation and "Rhyming Birds," followed by a dainty lunch at five o'clock.

Dropped Dead.

Mrs. Fannie Green, a colored woman who worked for Dr. Higley at the post, dropped dead while crossing the parade ground near the flagstaff last Friday. Coroner Lewis was called and held an inquest and the verdict was that she came to her death from cerebral apoplexy. A son of the dead woman came up from Leavenworth, and funeral services were held at the Fort Tuesday.

C. W. Bennett, an enterprising stockman from Simeon, was in town on Tuesday.

Several parties in the "south country" are reported to have lost quite a few calves lately from scouring. The calves are born with a disposition to this complaint and live but a few days. County Clerk Daniels lost eight head this week. Nels Rowley is reported to be a loser, and the 101 outfit have lost heavily.

Wants Electric Light Franchise.

We are informed that at the next meeting of the city council a franchise for an electric light company will be asked. We are glad to note this movement, but would caution the council to be wary in granting the favor asked. Especial pains should be taken to protect the village streets and alleys from being controlled by any one company to the exclusion of any other, and no franchise should be granted unless it expressly provides that the franchise shall become null and void if the privileges granted are not used within a year at least. People may smile at such precautions being taken, but a franchise of this character may become a very valuable thing in the course of 25 or 50 years.
