LEE AFTER RAIDERS

AMERICAN TROOPS WILL PUNISH CUBAN BANDITS.

Military Authorities Recognize the Necessity of Making Prompt Examples of Offenders—Half Million Dollar Fire at Cleveland, Ohio.

To Make Examples of Them.

HAVANA: The detachment of the Seventh Cavalry which was sent after the bandits by Maj. Gen. Lee into the districts they have been terrorizing returned from the hunt, with the exception of the detachment under Capt. Varnum. They report that they found no raiders, and no traces of any. Lieut. Caldwell with half a troop, searched the Toledo cane fields, into which a trail led, but nobody was found. The United States military authorities now recognize the necessity of action, and of making prompt examples of offenders of this nature. Their depredations have been carried on in close proximity to the American troops, and if the outlaws are not caught their immunity may encourage others. The Cuban army was full of hard characters; the Spanish former guerrillas also provide plenty of material from which bandits are made. Fortunately the problem of catching these fellows is much easier than the Spanish attempt to capture Cubans under the old regime, because the country people who suffer from brigandage are ready to act as informers and guides. The Cuban soldiers themselves, who are much excited over the killing of their people at Camite, seem willing to exert themselves sincerely.

MRS. EWING ACQUITTED.

She Was Charged with Murdering Her Sister-in-Law.

The two women took sides in a spat between their children, as they were about to retire for the night, and the trouble ended in the killing of Lizzie Ewing. The defense succeeded in convincing the jury that Ida Ewing acted in self defense, the claim being that Ida took a revolver from the dresser and shot Lizzie after the latter had attacked her with a pistol taken from under a pillow on the bed.

COMPARED WITH 1898.

General Level of Prices for March Was 8 Per Cent. Higher.

NEW YORK: Bradstreet's says: Real spring weather has improved the tone of trade, particularly retail, and correspondingly helped jobbing distribution, but at the same time brought last winter's injury to the winter's crops more in evidence. The regular monthly Government crop report proved rather more favorable than expected, forecasting, on the basis of last fall's largely increased acreage, a yield little below that of last season. The unanimity of latter damage reports would seem to point to full information regarding the crop not being obtainable at the date when the Government advices were gathered. Among the favorable features coming to light this week might be mentioned the receipt of continued good railway earnings, advices of widespread industrial activity accompanied by rather less than the usual friction, as reflected in strikes for higher wages, and a largely improved distribution of wool. The iron and steel industry remains firm, though the tone of the market generally is quieter. The lumber market is active, stocks are small and prices manifest aggressive strength. The strength of prices in March renders comparisons with earlier periods interesting. Compared with a year ago the general level of values is 8 per cent. higher, while there is an advance shown of nearly 40 per cent. from the low water period of October, 1896. Wheat shipments for the week aggregate 1,983,619 bushels, against 4,425,302 bushels in the corresponding week of 1898. Corn exports for the week aggregate 2,666,125 bushels, against 4,661,194 bushels in this week a year ago.

The Freshmen were immediately aroused and a search made for Keena, a member of the Detroit Naval Brigade, and Edwin Potter of Chicago, both of whom are Sophomores. They had their room barricaded and after the door was burst open they fought like demons with Indian clubs until they were finally overpowered. The Freshmen did a neat but hasty job and then beat a retreat. Both classes are aroused, and the authorities will be compelled to adopt severe measures to forestall a repetition of last year's "serap," which lasted for a week.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Two Young Married Women Shuffe Off the Mortal Coil Together at Omaha—Matrimonial Infelicity Impelled the Rash Act.

Double Omaha Suicide.

Having reached the conclusion that marriage is a failure, and that life has more of hardship than of pleasure, Daisy O'Neil and Kittie Overy of Omaha, each 25 years old, decided to put an end to their existence and swallowed sixty grains of morphine. The two women have been best friends since they were girls and attended the public schools together at Burlington, Iowa. They were married and went to Omaha to live in the same year, and having quarreled with their husbands recently they decided to die as they have always lived—together.

Mrs. Overy's husband is a fireman on the Burlington Railroad. The couple quarreled two weeks ago and separated. Since that time they have met occasionally and renewed the quarrel.

Fred O'Neil said the trouble between him and his wife occurred at the supper table and that his wife's despondency was due to that.

THINK SHE IS THE POISONER

Warrant Issued for Ollie Hanlocker, a Hastings Stenographer.

The sensational poisoning mystery at Hastings wherein Mrs. F. C. Morey and several other prominent women came near meeting death by eating candy containing arsenic, reached its culmination in the issue by the County Attorney of a warrant for the arrest of Miss Ollie Hanlocker, a stenographer in the law office of Mr. Morey, husband of the woman to whom the candy was sent. Miss Hanlocker was given a tip by her friends and has not been seen in the city for two days. Miss Hanlocker is a decided brunette of medium height, about 30 years old. The case against her was ferreted out by Mr. Tibbets, Mr. Morey's law partner.

Mrs. Morey is recovering, but Mrs. Gaslin is in a serious condition and will probably die. No positive trace has yet been found of Miss Viola Hanlocker. It is claimed by some of her friends that Miss Hanlocker departed for New York city, where she has three sisters, while on the other hand it is intimated that she has been taken to a private insane asylum. Her friends hold to the statement that if she perpetrated the crime she was insane.

FOISON FOR AN ACTRESS.

Deadly Drug Sent to Her in a Box of Candy at Omaha.

An Omaha special on April 16 stated that Cora Tanner, the actress, was on the verge of death as the result of a most determined attempt on the part of an unknown person to take her life. Two poisons were used. The entire detective force of the city was set to work on the case. An air of the most intense mystery surrounds the whole affair. While Miss Tanner was at the theater, a large box of bouquets and a handsome bouquet of American Beauties were left at her hotel by a messenger. There was no name on the card attached. Dr. Lee analyzed the candy and found prussic acid in large quantities. The poison used on the flowers could not be clearly analyzed, but all the physicians pronounce it a poison of some deadly description.

Reports from Ogallala, the county seat of Keith county, said the entire northern part of that county was swept by fires. The ranches of the Holcomb brothers, Jonathan Smith and the two Farnstroms, among the heaviest stock raisers in western Nebraska have been destroyed. At Loup City George W. Mismar, was burned to death.

The State Agricultural Board held a meeting at Lincoln, about thirty members being present. The question of holding a State Fair was discussed and it was decided that a successful fair could not be held at Lincoln this year on account of lack of time to secure and fit up the grounds. The matter of arrangements was left with the Board of Managers.

The system of free mail delivery with which Uncle Sam is now experimenting in different sections of the country has been on trial at Tecumseh for some time and while the farmers are highly pleased the merchants are becoming strongly opposed to it. CATHOLIC PRIEST GOES TO JAIL

Rev. Frederick Sperlein of Tecumseh Is Behind the Bars.

Rev. Frederick Sperlein is in jail at Tecumseh. He was ordered there by County Judge Brandon in default of a $500 bond for appearance in the District Court. He had been tried before the county court and found guilty on two counts—destruction of property and one of trespassing. He was fined $55 and costs. The offenses were for breaking into and occupying St. Andrew's Catholic Church while the property was in the hands of the Board of Trustees awaiting settlement of a suit for possession in the Supreme Court. The Board of Trustees brought the suit. Rev. Sperlein could have given bonds had he so desired, but he preferred to go to jail.

Two Jailbirds Escape.

Lord and George Crane, two jailbirds, escaped from the county jail at Hastings. They had eaten their supper and were allowed to roam around on the outside of their private cells. They made their escape by piling chairs upon a table and cutting a hole through the floor of the supervisor's room. As the flooring was of pine it was easy and quick work for them. Lord was in for horse stealing and Crane for house breaking.

BAD SAMOAN ADVICES

RECONNOITERING PARTY ARE CAUGHT IN AMBUSH

Heads of Three Officers, Left Dead on the Field, Are Severed by the Natives—Rose Advises Mataafa Not to Surrender—Other Items.

Officers' Heads Cut Off.

Deeply regret to announce the deaths of Lieut. Philip B. Kamsdale, Ensign John R. Monaghan, Coxswain James Butler, Ordinary Seaman Norman Edsal and five men wounded, belonging to the Philadelphia. The British loss in killed is two men and Lieut. Freeman.
