be in Valentine from the first to the twelfth of every month, without fail.

Geo. Ross will sell his livery stable outfit, horses, harness, oughies, frame barn, etc., at public auction on Saturday, May 6.

Wm. Ferdon and wife are in town from their ranch, the Box T, near Brownlee. Mr. Ferdon says the sand hills beat the world for stock, and if doesn't succeed it is his own and not the country's fault.

The boss of this ranch is on a deal for a broncho and if it goes through he intends going out on a roundup for strays who haven't had their subscription receipts branded for some time past. Financially the boss is almost a busted community, and he has got to raise the wind somehow or other.

Dr. C. R. Jackson has sold his dental practice to Drs. Wells, and is now in Omaha looking for a location. Dr.
Jackson's going was a surprise to our people, as he had built up a good business in his profession and had made many friends who will hope to hear of his success in other fields.

L. Fisher, wife and daughter, of Interior, S. D., were in town Monday, called by a telegram saying that a son of Mr. Fisher who was taking treatment at the hospital was not expected to live. On their arrival here they found the young man much improved in health and he accompanied them as far as Claymore's on their way home.

GREATEST CLOTHING SALE in the history of Cherry County. Watch for T. C. Hornby's ad next week.
This is no closing out of odds and ends and ends, but a sale of bright, new new goods bought at a great sacrifice for cash from one of the best factories in the country. He has bought a carload but at the prices he will make it will not last long.

The hop given by the ladies of Valentine last Friday evening was a distinct success, about thirty couples being present. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Chadron orchestra, and refreshments were furnished by the ladies themselves.
Among those present from abroad were Mesdames Robinson and Bates and Pearl Ray of Chadron, Mattie Carlisle of Rosebud and Leona Baum-gartel of Crookston.

This month has been a record breaker at the land office in the way of homestead entries, sixty-five having been made up to date. This is more than have been made any month in about twelve years, or since the Chadron office was organized and is a whole volume of testimony to the value of north Nebraska lands. One noteworthy feature of this phenomenal month is the fact that fully two-thirds of the entries have been for Cherry county land.

A. D. Lewis formerly of this county, now engaged in general mercantile business at Brownlee, Cherry county, was doing business and renewing old acquaintances in Keya Paha county several days this week.

J. F. Swain has purchased a farm on the Niobrara river near Fort Niobrara and will move to the same in the near future. He exhibited at this office a sample of rye grown on the place last year that measured eight feet.—Springview Herald.

At its meeting Monday night the school board decided to add one year to the school course, making it twelve years, and also decided to employ an assistant principal next year. This is rendered necessary by the large number of pupils in the high school, and the revenue derived under the new high school law is expected to almost, if not entirely, pay the new teacher. It is estimated that the high school will have 50 to 55 pupils next term, and the revenue from non-residents will amount to about $40 per month.

All the flags in town were lowered to half mast Monday on receipt of the news that Col. Stotsenberg of the First Nebraska had been killed. It was a tribute to the gallant colonel from those who knew him, he having been 1st lieutenant and quartermaster of the Sixth Cavalry when that regiment was stationed at Fort Niobrara in '94. Many expressions of sincere regret were heard on the streets when his death was announced, and this event has done more to open the eyes of our people to the Philippine situation than any other.

property.

Geo. Schwalm will occupy the Bristol property, on Macomb street, as a residence.

Clarke & Tucker will move their law office into the rooms over the post office next week.

James Mone and A. Heath shipped a car of wheat to the local mill from Cody yesterday and sold at 47 cents.

J. O. Vincent and Miss Stoner have put up a 100-barrel water tank on the line between their premises on Hall street.

The contest case of Percy L. Blakely vs Henry Ormisher was the leading matter of interest at the land office this week, and about a score of witnesses were present to give testimony. A. M. Morrissey acted as stenographer.

The Western Nebraska Stock Growers Association will meet in Alliance on May 9th, and a call for a meeting of stockmen at Chadron on the 12th has been issued. Valentine will hold her races in June, and stockmen can meet here then.

Imson's Comedians entertained our people three nights this week, giving a very neat, clean show. They had bad luck after the performance Tuesday night, two of the players jumping their contracts after stealing a part of the company's paraphernalia.
