STATE OF NEBRASKA Girl Baby Abducted in New York

Discovered Near Sloatsburg. Marion Clarke, the 21-month-old child kidnaped from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke of New York city, on May 21, was discovered two miles south of Sloatsburg, N. Y., June 2. She was found at the farm house of Chas. Youmans, and was in the custody of Mrs. Jennie Wilson, who took the baby to that place during the early part of last week. The Clarke baby attracted the country people by her appearance, and the curiosity aroused made her captors grow uneasy and they kept her closely confined at the Youmans' home. Two Entire Blocks of Business Houses Destroyed.

The whole east side of the main business stroved the whole east side of two blocks. The town is without adequate fire protection, and though the citizens did everything possible with the limited means at their command to stop the progress of the flames, it was of little avail until they practically burned themselves out. In the saving of groperty from the buildings they were a little more successful, though much that was taken out of the buildings is in a damaged condition. The places burned are: F. Hickleman, meat market; A. J. Washburn, saddlery; Johnston & Co., implements; State Bank; Stoll & Rumbaugh, hardware; W. E. Palmer, general merchandise, and J. W. Adams' big store. The loss will be near or quite $80,000. The fire will be a serious blow to the town, as well as to the immediate losers, as the merchants burned out are among the most progressive in the city.
