Ed Satterlee, merchant at Nenzel, was in Valentine Monday on a business mission, and took his first lesson in the manipulation of the "silent messenger of thought," at this office. On his next visit he wishes to be let into the mysteries of "type lice" and such curious animals as infest and have their being only in the print shop.

Frank Brayton Sundayed at Ainsworth, incidentally observing that none of the newspaper men from Valentine became too infatuated with the fair damsels of our neighboring town. Frank is in a position to realize our weakness and deserves a great deal of credit from the young ladies of Valentine for his vigilance in their behalf.

At the solicitation of a number of prominent stockmen who make Van Tassel their shipping point, the railroad officials are considering the advisability of removing the side track and stock yards at VanTassel across the state line into Nebraska. The establishment of yards there will be a great advantage to many shippers. Rates will be cheaper considerably and shippers will be relieved of the necessity of feeding and watering at Longpine.—Harrison Press.

The Spaulding and Bergrud ranches located in south Rock county have recently been sold to the AD Cattle Co. for a consideration of about $45,000. This company is buying land and improving the ranches by putting up substantial buildings. Their range includes parts of Cherry, Garfield, Brown and Rock counties. They will soon have four or five thousand cattle located in this section, giving employment to a large force of men. E. G. Brechbill is the enterprising foreman of the AD.—Longpine Journal.

DID YOU

Ever compare the expense of a city store with the expense of a country store? Look at their high rents, water taxes, heavy insurance, and a dozen other items that a country store don't have. Then does it look reasonable that they can sell you goods cheaper than we can. If you are ready for your spring purchase come in and see our stock and get our prices. Will you be one to keep your money at home?
