A marriage license was issued Saturday, by Judge Towne, to Sam C. Gordon and Grace Swain, both of Pembroke.

WANTED TO TRADE—A seven year old mare and colt and two yearling colts, all well bred, for a two-year old bull.—HANS ULRICH.

A large bell has been placed in the belfry of the M. E. church and now sounds the tocsin of Him who leads to this place of worship.

Watermelons are now on the local market and the doctors are making calculations on doing a land office business for awhile at least.

Wm. Francke and Roy Ludwig made a fishing trip to the Boardman last week, but had poor luck if their faces were any indication of success.

The fats and leans played a matched game of ball on the grounds south of the track yesterday, which resulted in a score of 15 to 1 in favor of the leans.

The dance at Cornell's Hall Friday night was enthusiastically attended and quite a sum of money raised for the sufferers from the fire flood and others.

Mrs. Lewis, of Gordon, is in the city to open a restaurant. She is a sister of the Bachelor boys and is quite favorably impressed with our enterprising town.

Mr. Free, who has been visiting south and east the past month, returned home this week and will resume his old position in the Minnechadua mill.

Sheriff Strong purchased four blooded bulls this week from an eastern breeder of thoroughbreds, and feels justly proud of his bargain. Amos knows a good thing when he sees it.

We want contracts for building ditches and guarantee satisfaction. Top of ditch 3 1/2 feet; bottom 14 inches; depth from 16 to 24 inches. Call on or address Lane & Smith, Cody, Nebraska. 19

Miss Emily McClean lectured at the M. E. church last Friday night to a fair sized audience, and those who had the pleasure of hearing her, pronounce her an elocutionist of no small repute.

Exposition opens Saturday, July 1st, '99. Grand parade; good music; Dan Godfrey's Military Band and scores of others; good orators; excellent exhibits; hundreds of new features; big fireworks in evening; biggest and best exposition ever given in the west.

Ernest Sears met with a fatal accident Tuesday, a horse kicking him in the abdomen. He suffered terrible agony and before medical assistance arrived was a corpse. This is sad, indeed, and our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

Closing Out Sale.

We will commence at once to close out our entire stock at cost, and continue until all is sold.

Stinard & Weeks.

The Indians were numerous in town this week to receive new wagons and other allotments to which they were entitled.

New recruits are arriving almost daily at Fort Niobrara and the post now has in the neighborhood of 200 soldiers, which will be increased steadily.

C. W. Bennett came in from Simeon again Tuesday to receive medical treatment. He has been indisposed for some time, but claims to be on the mend. His wife accompanied him.

J. P. Gardner, of Cody, was in town Friday, and called to inform us that he recovered several head of horses through the NEWS-DEMOCRAT, which he pronounced the best stock medium in the west.

The Masons sold their stock ranch in southwestern Cherry county to the Stansbie boys and will locate in Brown county. This gives the Stansbies as fine a ranch, with their own, as can be found in the country.

If the school board intends to represent the people of Valentine they will now re-engage Miss Shaughnessy as one of our teachers. Why was she deposed anyway, is a question the people are asking themselves?

The Greater America Exposition opens Saturday, July 1st, '99. The Greater America will be a hummer—you will say so when you see it. Special rates on all railroads; grand parade; magnificent fireworks.

Mr. Wilheit and wife took the train for Gordon and other points west Sunday night. Mr. Wilheit is looking for a good business opening and expressed himself very favorably in regard to Valentine and may return.

The people of Crookston request us to announce that they have decided to not celebrate the 4th at that place this year, but that the M. W. of A. lodge will give a dance at their hall July 14, to which all are invited.

D. Stinard vs. C. V. Thorn, account, was the title of a suit before Judge Towne last Thursday, and after hearing the evidence on both sides his honor rendered judgment in favor of plaintiff for the amount asked.

First colonial exposition of Greater America opens at Omaha Saturday, July 1, 1899. Splendid music; good speakers; grand civic and military parade; magnificent fire works in evening. Don't miss opening day.

Attorney Morrissey was up the road several days the past week, being called as counsel in an important legal contest. Mr. Morrissey is fast being looked upon as the leading attorney of Northwestern Nebraska.

The Harnan Bros., Gillespie precinct, have disposed of their ranch and removed to Rock county where they will continue in the stock business on an extensive scale. We are sorry to lose these people from our midst.

Johnny Stetter returned Sunday from his trip to Omaha unlike his friends expected to see him. Instead of having his face all beat up and disfigured as per fake account in Omaha Bee, he was looking bright and minus a single scratch. He just laughed at the report as a huge joke.

W. E. Haley is one of the busiest men in town these days answering inquiries regarding Cherry county real estate. Watch for an influx of emigration in the near future. Our low taxes and financial standing as a county is an item always foremost with those having capital to invest.

'A pound of gold may be made into a wire that would extend around the globe. So one good deed may be felt through all time and cast its influence into eternity. Though done in the first flush of youth, it may gild the last of a long life and form the brightest and most glorious spot in it.'

Rev. D. W. C. Huntington, D.D., chancellor of the Nebraska Wesleyan University, will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. The doctor is a fine speaker and it will be a treat to hear him. Everyone should avail themselves of this opportunity. All are cordially invited.

Dr. Lewis was called to Fort Niobrara Monday to hold an inquest on the body of Thomas J. Wiggins. He appointed as jurors Chas. A. Green, Jas. Irwin, E. L. Maloney, Jas. Mangum, J. P. Roth and John H. Maxwell, who signed up the following verdict: "At an inquest holden at Fort Niobrara, in Cherry county, on the 26th day of June, 1899, before me, Alfred Lewis, coroner of said county, upon the body of Thomas J. Wiggins, lying dead by the jurors whose names are hereto subscribed. The said jurors upon their oath do say that the said Thos. J. Wiggins came by his death on June 26, 1899, from cerebral apoplexy."

DID YOU

Ever compare the expense of a city store with the expense of a country store? Look at their high rents, water taxes, heavy insurance, and a dozen other items that a country store don't have. Then does it look reasonable that they can sell you goods cheaper than we can. If you are ready for your spring purchase come in and see our stock and get our prices. Will you be one to keep your money at home?

This office extends thanks to Mr. First for a box of his large and delicious strawberries. In size the berries were twice as large as a man's thumb, very sweet, and dispels all doubt of the productiveness of our soil for small fruit, especially straw berries.

J. H. Quigley goes to Lincoln this week as a member of the state brand commission, and for the transaction of other important business. Mr. Quigley is an able representative of the reform forces and always a willing subscriber for the success of our principles. We are glad Cherry county was recognized by appointment on the commission for she is the banner stock county of the state.

The Epworth League will celebrate the glorious Fourth by giving a picnic on the Minnechadua to which all are invited. Transportation will be furnished as many as possible, free of charge. Bring a well filled basket and enjoy the cool shade along the placid Minnechadua. The following program will be given, commencing at 10 a. m.:
