Ed. Blakey and Bob Gillaspie went to Hot Springs, Saturday night.

Handsomely decorated China ware given away, at W. A. Pettycrew's.

A fine lot of fence posts for sale.—Max E. Viertel, Crookston, Nebraska.

The Junior League served ice cream and lemonade in a tent on Main street Saturday.

A number of half breeds and Indians are here from Pine Ridge to see Drs. Dwyer.

The Hon. Jas. Morris, well known here, is a candidate for treasurer of Brown county.

The first trainload of cattle this season left the west part of the county Monday night.

Amos Strong will sell his cattle and go into the sheep business up the Minnehadzuza.

Jim Hudson, one of the strongest popocrats in Sparks precinct, was in town Saturday.

Don't fail to see those hand painted dishes. Absolutely given away, at W. A. Pettycrew's. 22

Everybody's clock is fast when it gets sprinkling time, and generally stops before 8 o'clock.

The editor and daughter Nellie made a visit to friends in Ainsworth and Longpine, Sunday.

D. A. Campbell and wife came up from Lincoln Sunday night to visit their ranch a few days.

John Neiss took his new hounds to his ranch, the rear end of last week. They cost him about $180.

Fred Folks has resigned his position with Davenport & Thacher, and is clerking in his father's store.

Dr. Nicholson went home to Ainsworth Sunday to prepare for the return of his family from Lincoln.

E. J. Davenport went to Omaha Sunday to have a confab with Senator Thurston and other notables.

G. H. Q. SMITH—House and carriage painter. Shop corner of Hall and Catherine streets, Valentine, Nebr.

This is no baking powder scheme, but genuine hand painted China ware given away, at W. A. Pettycrew's.

FOR SALE—Team of work mares, weight about 1200 each, also horse, weight 1400. Enquire at this office.

Jim Childers and Jack Barnes visited the hub, Friday. It is hard to find any fatter or jollier pair than Jack and Jim.

C. F. Martin has closed the steam laundry, owing to ill health, but it is expected to be opened again in a few days by eastern parties.

We were in error last week when we stated that M. S. Welch would run a livery stable. His barn will be devoted strictly to feed business.

NOTICE.—Parsons, the photographer, will close his gallery in Valentine, October 1, 1899. All those wishing work done should call before September 12th.

We want contracts for building ditches and guarantee satisfaction. Top of ditch 34 feet; bottom 14 inches; depth from 16 to 24 inches. Call on or address Lane & Smith, Cody, Nebr. 19

Go to T. C. Hornby's for Clothing. He has the largest stock and lowest prices. 27

A good second hand Kimball organ for sale at a reasonable price. Inquire at this office. 27-8

C. P. Jordan was in town the first of the week on his way home to Rosebud from Hot Springs.

T. D. Perrine is in town this week looking after business for a South Omaha commission firm.

Dean Efner assisted us in getting out this week's paper. Dean is about as good a typo as can be found along this road.

Not less than twenty people have told us they heard we had sold out to George Reinert. Wonder who started that story.

J. G. Stetter has been in Rocky Ford, Colorado, this week, called there on account of the death of his father-in-law.

A. H. Metzger was in from the ranch Saturday as a witness in the Bailey case. He reports everything fine southwest, and says the hay crop is very good.

Mrs. Sam Hudson has been dangerously ill at the home of John Shore this week, with cancer of the stomach but at present writing is thought to be improving in health.

E. E. Edwards, Peter Peterson, Robert McCarty and Wm. Enlow came down from Gordon Monday on business before the land office. McCarty is contesting Foley's tree claim.

Burt Hammond spent Saturday night and Sunday in Ainsworth. Burt said he went down to see "the boys," but he winked when he said it. (We don't blame Burt, 'cause she's a fine girl.)

The hay crop seems to be heavier in the west portion of the county than anywhere else. While the crop is generally good in all parts of the county, it will not be so large as last year.

Major Wood of Norden who has been so very sick at Dr. Dwyer's Hospital has returned home very much improved in health. Although his life had been despaired of, Dr. Dwyer says he has made remarkable recovery.

J. C. Welles and wife, one of the principal stockholders of Atkinson & Northern Railway and the new town of Boyd Co., passed through Norden this week enroute for Valentine, to make their permanent residence.—Norden Borealis.

T. J. Foley and W. B. Thomas of Omaha were in town yesterday visiting friends. The former runs a bar in Omaha which is known to everybody in the northwest as "Foley's Place," and the latter an old time friend of Bro. Barker.

Squire Jones was kicked by a horse Monday and it was thought for a while seriously hurt, but finally it was found that two ribs had been broken and his teeth badly jammed, but no serious results are feared.—Ainsworth Home Rule.

Grant Spain's little boy accidentally drank some carbolic acid at his home near Kennedy last Friday, and was immediately brought to town, where under the treatment of Dr. Compton he speedily recovered from the effects of the burning poison.

About twenty ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a horseback ride Monday evening, starting from The Donohoe, going up Spring canyon and through Fort Niobrara. The ride was followed by a Vienna lunch at the home of Mrs. Chas. Sparks, at about 10:30 p.m.

Uncle Jake Wolfe, state land commissioner, was here yesterday disposing of school lands. He auctioned off about half of the 33,000 acres offered. He says he disposed of every acre offered in Keya Paha and that the sale in Brown has been the poorest of any he has attended so far.—Ainsworth Journal.

Jack Heelan captured Wm. Witt, the young man who is accused of stealing a horse and saddle near Arabia a few weeks ago, near Niobrara, and brought him to Valentine last Thursday. He waived examination at the preliminary hearing and in default of $500 bonds is now boarding at the Hotel de Strong.

HOTEL FOR SALE—Best location in Nebraska for business. Lunch counter in connection. Hotel close to depot and can be run as a first class house with profit if desired. The Valentine ball team went to Cody Saturday to teach the cowboys of that place how to play the national game. The game was a hot one and when completed the score stood 31 to 11 in favor of Valentine, although our boys say they made at least 50 runs. They registered a horrible kick on the umpire, and say they received dirty treatment all around. Cody ought to come here and play a return game.
