We are sorry the institute must be passed this week, but our special reporter failed to furnish copy this morning.

Mrs. Phelan of Iowa, is visiting here with her brother, J. C. Pettijohn and family. From here she will go to Longpine.

Ki Brown has changed the name of the old Valentine to Union Hotel, and is doing a nice business opposite the court house.

It is currently reported that since the girls of Valentine tore up his shirt for souvenirs, Woodruff Hall wears a coat of mail when he comes to town.

Rasmus Anderson shipped 28 feeders to Sioux City Sunday morning which averaged 900 pounds and brought \$4.38 $\frac{1}{2}$ . Arthur Brown took the load down.

A free and easy expectation is produced by a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, in all cases of sore throat, hoarseness or difficult breathing. 25 and 50c. J. H. Quigley 8

The John Neiss cattle, sold a short time ago to parties from Valley, were shipped from here this morning. It was a very good lot of stuff, the cows showing up especially well.

The contract for carrying the mail between Gordon and Lavaca was let a short time since, and Swigert & Hummel, liverymen, were the successful bidders. They entered upon their work this week and henceforth the mail will go on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.—Gordon Journal.

Among the best songs that have appeared this season for use by the profession on the stage the coming season is the song entitled "Just the Picture of the Girl I Used to Know," with words and music by Hattie Nevada—the queen of song writers. It has a very catchy air and the words tell the story of broken vows brought to memory by the accidental sight of an old photograph in an album. It is published by the Kansas City Talking Machine Co., of Kansas City, Mo.

Stuartites at the Longpine Chautauqua last Tuesday were pleased to meet their old friend, C. M. Sageser, who was taking a short holiday from his tonorial labors at Valentine. He looked plump and prosperous, and was by all odds the handsomest man on the grounds (excepting Ed Walker and ourself).—Stuart Ledger.

Clarence Sageser, of Valentine, was a visitor at the teachers' institute yesterday.—Bassett Eagle.

The two items above are significant, and if any of our school ma'ms have "serious intentions" toward Clarence they should not hesitate to announce themselves at once.
