NOMINATE TWO JUDGES

Democrats and Populists Hold Their Conventions and Name Winners

Pursuant to call the democrats of the 15th judicial district met here last Saturday, Sept. 2, and at ten o'clock were called to order by Robert Good. The convention then elected Judge Crites temporary chairman and Robert Good secretary, after which the following committees were appointed:

Credentials—Murphy, Blewett and Harmon.
Permanent organization—Sullivan, Johnson and Patterson.

A short recess was then taken and the committee on credentials reported that all counties in the district were represented but Keya Paha and Rock, giving the convention 49 votes.
Next the temporary organization was made permanent and these gentlemen appointed to draw up resolutions: Smyser, Sullivan and Patterson

A resolution by Smyser was then offered and adopted, as follows:

"Resolved, that the secretary proceed to call the roll of the counties in this judicial district and that as each county is called the chairman of the delegation representing such county cast the vote for two candidates for district judge and that such balloting proceed until two persons have each received a majority of the votes cast, and thereupon a committee of three be appointed by the chair to wait upon the populist convention and request concurrence of that body in such nominations."

The convention then proceeded to ballot, with the following result: Westover 45, Crites 32, Harrington 12, Tingle 9. Under the resolution adopted the following committee was appointed, and an adjournment taken to 1 o'clock: Towne of Cherry, Wardlaw of Dawes, Murphy of Brown.

On reassembling the convention received word that the populist convention was ready for business and would like to hear from the democrats, and after a motion to increase the number to four had been lost, the committee last named proceeded to perform its duty, and returned shortly with the report that the populists had refused to accept the fiat of the democrats, but had appointed a conference committee and had nominated Westover by acclamation. After considerable sparring on motion of Smyser a committee on conference to arrange for nominations was named by the chair, as follows: Smyser of Box Butte, Wardlaw of Dawes and Fallon of Holt. On motion of Good, after a little discussion, the rules were suspended and W. H. Westover nominated by acclamation, and this was followed by a recess.

After the recess the conference committee reported that it had failed to agree with the populists in any particular, whereupon the committee was instructed to report that the democrats would agree to nominate any man who could receive a majority of the votes of each convention.
This was agreed to and balloting proceeded with, resulting as below:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Crites.....	37	34	34	12	7	49	18
Harrington.....	12	15	15	20	17 1/2	20
Patterson.....				49	11	7 1/2	49
Harmon.....				6	7	49
Smyser.....						6
Tingle.....									11

Meanwhile the populist vote kept being reported Harrington 40, scattering 6, excepting on the second ballot, when Harrington had 46. After the ninth ballot, Fallon of Holt moved to go into joint convention, which motion was carried by a vote 28 to 21.
This practically settled the matter and the democrats proceeded to the hall of the populists, where Judge Crites was made chairman of the joint convention. The first ballot resulted: Harrington 55, Crites 29, Tingle 11. The democrats of Holt and Sioux voted for Harrington, and those of Boyd for Tingle, as did the pops from that county.

The democrats then returned to their hall and nominated J. J. Harrington by acclamation.

Wm. Fallon of O'Neill was made chairman of the judicial committee, and M. M. Sullivan secretary. Chairmen of the counties were made members of the judicial committee, and the resolutions below were read and the convention adjourned.

"We, the democrats of the 15th judicial district of Nebraska, in convention assembled do hereby reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of the democratic party as announced in the Chicago platform in 1896.

"Resolved further that we heartily endorse the sentiments and declarations of the democratic party of this state as set forth in the platform adopted by the state convention in Omaha, August last."

The populist convention was called to order in Cornell Hall, Saturday by Secretary Butler, and Judge Ricker of Dawes was elected chairman and Butler of Holt secretary. Committees on credentials, resolutions and permanent organization were appointed by the chair, and the convention adjourned until afternoon.

Upon reassembling the committee on credentials reported delegates
