MISS EMMOND. Of course she was the object of many experiments, all of which failed, and the offer of a well known dispensary to send a free trial of their remedy was peculiarly alluring to her. She sent for the free trial, followed all directions faithfully, and soon she was rewarded by a growth of hair which for thickness, quality and luxuriance was as remarkable as the result was gratifying. Miss Emmond lives in Salem, Mass., at 276 Washington St., and naturally feels very much obliged to recover from total baldness.

Holding All the Jobs.
A canvasser for a religious publication entered the yard of a residence in the southern portion of the city a few days ago. A small wagon in the yard and several war whoops from the rear of the house announced that the family was not out of the city for the summer. A pull at the front door bell brought no response, so he went around to the side porch, where he found a small boy with his face smeared with jam making a pyramid with lumps of loaf sugar.

"Any one at home?" asked the canvasser.
"Me."
"No one else?"
"No. Pap went to the store an' left me wif marmar. Marmar went up ze street an' left me wif nurse. Nurse's aunt died an' she left me wif ze cook. Cook just runned up ze alley to see her frenz an' I use got everything to see after, an' it's all right."
The canvasser felt that the sunshine of his paper was not needed in that family and he went his way.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

HEAD SEVERED FROM BODY.

An Unknown Man Found Dead at Plattsmouth.
A switchman found the body of an unknown man on the track a short distance north of the B. & M. depot at Plattsmouth the other morning. Near by was found the head, which had been severed at the neck. There was a deep wound in the forehead about two inches long and one on the back of his head, either of which would have caused death. His hair was cut short; he is about 25 years of age and wore a blue-black coat and vest, a pair of blue overalls, well worn, a good suit of underwear, a pair of heavy socks and shoes and a black stiff hat, comparatively new. There were no papers to identify the unfortunate victim, but $25.85 was found on his person. Doubtless he was attempting to board or alight from a train and, falling, met his death. [LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 18,992]
"DEAR FRIEND—I feel it my duty to express my gratitude and thanks to you for what your medicine has done for me. I was very miserable and losing flesh very fast, had bladder trouble, fluttering pains about the heart and would get so dizzy and suffered with painful menstruation. I was reading in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I wrote to you and after taking two bottles I felt like a new person. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I cannot praise it enough."—MRS. J. O. BARNARD, MILLTOWN, WASHINGTON CO., ME.

An Iowa Woman's Convincing Statement.
"I tried three doctors, and the last one said nothing but an operation would help me. My trouble was profuse flowing; sometimes I would think I would flow to death. I was so weak that the least work would tire me. Reading of so many being cured by your medicine, I made up my mind to write to you for advice, and I am so glad that I did. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and followed your directions, and am now well and strong. I shall recommend your medicine to all, for it saved my life."—Miss A. P., Box 21 Abbott, Iowa.
