Why People Buy Here.

Not because they like us any better, think we are handsomer or more entertaining than other merchants, but because we give better value than other local concerns. We do not claim that the merchant who asks high prices makes more money than we do. We make a fair profit, but sell cheap, because this business is organized on lines that enable us to obtain exceptional advantages in buying. We pass the good values thus obtained along to our customers, and they share in the benefits that our long experience and ample capital give us. You will find it to your interest to buy your

OBITUARY.

David C. Ross was born March 8th, 1834, and died at Elick Huffman's place north of Georgia, Nebr., June 23d, 1900. Bro. Ross was an old veteran and was honorably discharged from the service of his country.

This old soldier was touched by the grace of God last winter during the revival held at Georgia. The 4th of March, 1900, he gave his hand to the pastor and joined the church on probation. On the 20th day of the following May he was baptized.

His illness lasted 14 days. He suffered intensely, but bore it patiently and died in the faith.

The funeral services were held at the North Star school house by the writer, who spoke from John 11:25 to a large congregation of relatives and neighbors.

Bro. Ross was laid away in the Crookston cemetery to await the trumpet call from Eternal Glory.

RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolutions respectfully submits the following for your consideration:

Be it Resolved, That we extend to the good people of Valentine our heartfelt thanks for the efforts they have made to make this convention a pleasant and profitable time, and for the hospitality and courtesy shown in the homes.

Be it further Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the cordial reception given us by the Leaguers and the citizens of Valentine who so kindly met us at the train; and especially to the Ladies' Band who so ably provided music for the occasion.

Resolved, That we extend to Rev. A. F. Cumbow our sincere thanks for his untiring efforts to make the convention a success.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to Mr. Barker, editor of the Republican, for the valuable assistance he gave in the way of printing and furnishing material for convention use; also to Mr. Rice, editor of the DEMOCRAT, for his liberal offers regarding the publication of the various papers read in the convention, and for the free distribution of his paper to the attending delegates and visitors.

Whereas, Our loving Heavenly Father has seen fit in His infinite wisdom to permit the hand of affliction to fall heavily upon our brother and fellow-leaguer, Rev. C. F. Smith, in that He has seen fit to remove from the home, the League, the Church, and the community, the beloved wife, a loving mother, a fellow Leaguer,

Be it Resolved, That as a District Convention, in mass we extend to Brother Smith our heartfelt sympathy in his deep affliction, and that as a body we invoke Heaven's blessing and richest grace to fall upon him and his dear children.

Resolved, That our secretary be instructed to send a copy of the resolutions to Brother Smith.

Be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our minute.

Resolved, That we duly appreciate the courtesies of F. M. Walcott, C. S. Reece, and others who contributed to our delightful trip to Ft. Niobrara, and the Convention fully appreciates the kindness of Lieut. Hartman, the Commanding Officer at Ft. Niobrara, in furnishing transportation, and for the royal welcome accorded us at the Fort. The generous treatment we received at the hands of all connected with the Post will long be remembered by the League.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hornby and the Valentine League for a most enjoyable time spent on the evening previous to our departure to our homes.

Resolved, That we express our sincere thanks to the Valentine League for their liberality in bearing the entire expense of this Convention.

Resolved, That we extend to Prof. J. M. Pile, of the Nebraska Normal College, at Wayne, our appreciation of his very interesting and instructive lecture.

BY COMMITTEE.

Unnecessary Loss of Time.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Ia., in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics.

He says—"I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by Quigley & Chapman.

Don't let your insurance expire. Call on I. M. Rice to write it up in the best state company and at lowest price.
