VOLUME XV

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, JULY 26, 1900.

NUMBER 27

We are Demonstrating the Leadership of this Store Every Day Now.

This is not news to our customers. They know that we lead in showing the best assortment of reasonable dry goods at popular prices. But there are a few people who do not know it, or at least they seem not to know it, for they continue to buy where assortments are smaller and prices higher. We venture to say that no store in this county offers better values. Every article has its merits and will bear the closest scrutiny.

Dr. Holsclaw now spends a part of his time at Merriman where he is interested in a drug store with H. Green. Last week their stock arrived and they were very busy taking care of it and putting it on the shelves. We wish the new firm success.

Wes Massingale has a badly smashed hand caused by a 4x4 timber falling upon it. He had a narrow escape from death, as the heavy timber fell from a height of 16 feet and if it struck him on the head would have crushed his skull like an egg shell.

For Cattle Stealing

E. D. Cohota, the Chinese ex-soldier who has made his home between this city and Fort Niobrara, near the bridge, was arrested and taken before Judge Towne last week on the charge of stealing cattle. Tucker, will defend the case and County Attorney Morrissey will conduct the prosecution.

Two more are in the Orphanage and two are in the family of Charles Sherman.

Trunks and Packages hauled to and From the Depot. Leave orders with W. A. Pettycrew

There has been an abundance of rain since the 4th of July and crops of all kinds are doing well. The range is good, the cattle are fat, the young stock is growing and the farmers stay at home as much as possible to keep the weeds down and allow the corn to grow. Quite different from last year when the pastures were dry enough to burn. The people who left Cherry county last year are now wishing they were back.
