

This paper will be mailed regularly to its subscribers until a definite order to discontinue is received and all arrears are paid in full.

TERMS

Subscription—$1.00 per year in advance; $1.50 when not paid in advance.

Display advertising—1 inch, 15c per issue; $10 per column by the month.

Local Notices—5c per line each issue.

Brands, 1 1/4 inches—$4.00 per year in advance; additional space $3.00 per inch per year; engraved blocks extra, $1.50 each.

Parties living outside Cherry county not personally known are requested to pay in advance.

10 per cent additional to above rates if over 8 months in arrears.

Notices of loss of stock free to brand advertisers.

Thursday March 14, 1901

REDDY-MADE SHOES

Do They Fit You? A loud "I won't," means "I will if I have to."

The hardest job in the world is to do nothing.

The best way to get out of politics is to turn prohibition.

A good humored lawyer often makes a cross examination.

The prime essential to happiness is well directed industry.

The most painstaking man doesn't always suffer the most pain.

The young man who is afraid of work is in a dangerous position.

When the physician is on the scent of a disease, he uses his diag-nose.

A woman laughs in her sleeve when a man begins talking through his hat.

Never judge a man by the umbrella he carries until you find out who owns it.

The man who has money to throw at the birds is always afraid of spraining his wrist.

Most people are sensitive about a good many more things than they are sensible about.

Some people seem to think that they have an inherent inability to make mistakes.

It is always well to obtain what one desires, but it is better to desire only what one can obtain.

We would ask as a favor from our subscribers to say, "renewal," when renewing for this paper.

Wisely spoke the sage who said: "Example is far more than precept. It is instruction in action."

Some people are so much like circus bills that it don't require much money to cause them to be stuck up.

Some wear spectacles because they are blind; others to keep from becoming blind, and others just for a "blind."

"All things come to him who waits" except political pie, and a fellow has to go after that, and usually "tip" the waiter.

A certain girl of this town claims that her fellow is a mind reader because he can always tell when she has eaten onions.

"How much is Jane's new husband worth?" "Oh, I suppose she could realize $5,000 for him if he should get killed by the cars."

If the U. S. Government only kept on acquiring new islands, the present may become the the "island period" in American history.

We noticed a young man the other day with two heads on his shoulders but we didn't consider it any curiosity for one belonged to his girl.

A hunter in the woods was mistaken for a squirrel, and shot. This varies the monotony somewhat. The victims are usually mistaken for deer.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Next Month

You will want to clean house and perhaps do some papering. We want you to come in and look at our selection of Wall Paper. Our stock is all new.

The Wall Paper Trust has gone to pieces and prices have dropped so we are able to show better goods for less money than we have been able to show for several years.

QUIGLEY & CHAPMAN DRUGGISTS VALENTINE, NEBR.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

G. H. Q. Smith: House and carriage painter. 8-14

Dr. Holsclaw is down from Merriman today.

C. A. Lovejoy was transacting business in town last Saturday.

Albert Haley and J. Grooms were in town Tuesday from down the river.

D. Stinard went to Council Bluffs, Sunday morning and returned home with his daughter Ida, last night.

Jos. Bristol, John Shelbourn, John Foster and E. Bowden were Valentine visitors from down towards Sparks, this week.

Commissioners meet again March 20. Will Bro. Barker please hang around for a watch dog to see if they waste any time?

E. J. Davenport returned the first of the week from his trip with Gov. Dietrich as escort attending the inauguration of Pres. McKinley.

There will be a dance given by Co. H, of 10th Infantry, at post hall. Ft. Niobrara, on Friday evening, March 22. Preparations are made for a good time and supper served by expert cooks.

Did you hear him talk about feathers? Wasn't he a corker? The little boy who came along last week with an armload of peacock tail feathers selling them at 25c a bunch. Oh, yes; he worked you, too, did he?

Miss Iva L. Efner returned last night from Omaha where she has been for a couple of weeks trimming and selecting her spring stock of millinery which will be in style as Miss Efner is a careful observer.

Capt. Howell received a U. S. War Department check, Monday morning, for the sum of $130.90, this being part of a month's pay earned by him while commanding a company of Union soldiers in 1863. The Captain years ago gave up all hope of receiving this pay hence its receipt now was a pleasant surprise to him.

Frank R. Beahan and family departed last Friday for his new quarters at Neah Bay, Wash., made vacant by a change of the weather bureau man, D. C. Grunow, from there to here. Mr. Grunow was formerly from Portland, Ore., and is a nice appearing man and the only kick we have coming is the recent high winds.

Richard Osborn came up to town last week with a warm spot in his heart for newspaper men and left us richer to the extent of several dollars. We have a kind remembrance of him and will say that it gives us much pleasure to greet such people. We want to see some more such men and will meet you half way if you will just give us a financial smile.

W. A. Pettycrew furnished the ladies of the M. E. church for their social, given at the home of G. B. Hornby March 13, with Heckins' Celebrated Cincinnati High Grade Mocha and Java coffee which was highly praised for its delicious flavor and rich quality. We take pleasure in recommending it. Ladies Aid Society, M. E. Church.

One of the most pleasant social gatherings under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hornby March 13. By the hospitality of the host and hostess everybody was made to have a good time, the merry crowd numbering 75. Different departments of the church work were spoken of by those representing these departments. Excellent music was furnished by Mrs. C. V. Northrop and Misses Elliott, Cook, Moses and others. A unique feature of the evening was a corner decorated with blooming plants in the center of which was a free will offering box, which was liberally patronized.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Some women can't pass a millinery store without looking in; some men can't pass a saloon without going in.

Scissors and Paste

Rushville Standard—Mrs. M. Churchill went to Valentine last week to enjoy a visit with her daughter Mrs. Perry Walker, and family.

Chadron Journal—Mrs. Chas. Sparks, of Valentine arrived in the city Thursday morning to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Springview Herald—James Skirving of Wood Lake and J. H. Fritz New York Life Insurance agent, were in the city a couple of days this week. Mr. Skirving has about 150 head of steers in this vicinity placed with different parties, that he is looking after.

Hyannis Tribune—The ranchmen southwest of town are constructing a vat, in which to dip their cattle this spring.

The fire that started 20 miles north of Whitman, Sunday night burnt over a big scope of country, to the east, doing about $80,000 worth of damage.

Ainsworth Star Journal—Ed. Blakey, of Valentine, spent several days of this week in Ainsworth.

Nine new members were taken in to the Brown County Stock Association at their meeting last Friday.

F. W. Handy and wife, of Wood Lake, tarried in Ainsworth a few days this week and are contemplating on going to work for Squier Jones in the near future.

Gordon Journal—Bob Koontz and family of Merriman have moved to Council Bluffs on account of Mr. Koontz's poor health.

All the scarlet fever patients are reported as recovering, and no new cases are reported this week.

Fred Duerfelt will resign his job as foreman of the Spring Lake ranch and move to Gordon next month and probably build a new residence in the north part of the town.

Ainsworth Herald—Geo. Hershey moved into his new residence which he recently purchased, Tuesday.

John Hugenberg sold his barber shop last Thursday to Ben Abell, of Merriman who now has charge.

Born: In Ainsworth Monday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Martin, twin boys. One living only a few hours.

Dave Hanna purchased the Mrs. A. Smith property in the west part of town Monday, and we understand that the building will be moved to some other lot and a fine new residence will be built thereon. Mr. Hanna is one of the most prosperous ranchmen in the west and he and his estimable family will be a welcome addition to Ainsworth and in advance we bid them welcome.

Cody Cow Boy—Cloyd Quigley accompanied his father to Cody last week.

R. C. McBroon and Boone Stotts have returned from Merriman.

W. H. Essex has closed out his bunch of bulls, down to three grade Herfords.

L. Edward Stuart was erecting a new wind mill at the Wm. Hook residence, south of the track, yesterday.

Mrs. A. M. Birchard, residing about nine miles northeast of Cody, has almost recovered from the small pox and her daughter is also on the road to health again.

The cold hand of death claimed the youngest member of J. W. Tillerson's family, a 11 months' old baby, on last Saturday morning.

J. T. White had his cattle—350 head brought to town this morning and will ship them back to his home ranch, at Belle Fourche, S. D.

J. H. Quigley, of the Boiling Springs ranch, brought two carloads of 3-year-old heifers to Cody last Saturday and had them taken out to his ranch.

Mrs. S. A. Bryant of Allen S. D., was in Cody last Friday and Saturday for the purpose of negotiating with Mrs. Eggleston for her millinery and notion store.

The Rosebud beef herd, to the number of between 900 and 1,000, has been moved from the burnt district on the reservation, to the Wait ranch, about 35 miles southeast of Cody.

Mr. Collins, of Omaha, representing the Creamery Package Manufacturing Co., of that city, was in Cody, on Tuesday of this week, and contracted with the parties here and sold to them the machinery for a skimming station which will be put in Cody and this station will be ready for operation by the first of May.

It is not always the rich man who pays his subscription most promptly.

Wanted! Reliable man for manager of branch office. We wish to open in this vicinity. If your record is O. K. here is an opportunity. Kindly give good reference when writing.

F. B. A. T. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE CINCINNATI OHIO

Illustrated catalogue 4c. stamps.

When a man says life is not worth living he has reference to his own life.

Taken Up. Taken up at my place 25 miles southeast of Cody; one light red heifer calf with whitefeats about six months old, unbranded.

Like A Great Railway. With its bran ches running in every direction, are the arteries and veins that convey the blood to every part of the system. A cold, sudden changes and exposure, may cause poisonous acids to clog the circulation and then comes rheumatism. Beware! If you value your life remove the obstruction with Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy. Send $5 to Drummond Medicine Co., New York, and they will send you two large bottles by express, enough for a month's treatment,—with full directions. Agents wanted.

COMMUNICATIONS

Kennedy. Cattle in this part of Cherry county are looking well.

D. Steadman and family have gone to Brownlee to live.

Mrs. McAlevy, who has been quite sick for a month, is now around.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McAlevy is visiting her parents from Caro.

J. M. Bates conducted services at the Episcopal church, Sunday morning and evening.

McKee Bros., who have been visiting in Buffalo county returned to Cherry county, the 8th.

Three little girls arrived in this vicinity lately; one at Frank Kimes', one at D. Sears' and one at M. Hale's.

U. S.

Penbrook. Texas Charley was over from Arabia Sunday.

Wm Hughes returned from Wayne last week.

Miss Alma Hull visited Miss Cora Grady, Sunday.

F. Grooms was up to Valentine the fore part of the week.

John Whillans, of Valentine was down to Sparks Friday.

Wm Grady went up to town Monday and returned Tuesday.

After being housed up for a month this fine weather has brought out the Porcupine.

A successful term of school was closed, Monday, in the Grady district by Mrs. Hittle.

Willie Hughes son of William Hughes who has been on the sick list for the past three weeks, we are glad to say is rapidly improving at the present writing.

Porcupine.

Niobrara Falls. Several cases of the grip are reported.

John Adamson put down a well recently.

Lon Mosher has been wrestling with the grip.

John Grooms Jr. and family are visiting at the Falls this week.

W. F. A. Melendorf rode out to view his dogies a few days ago.

George and Nathaniel Redfern visited their sister, Mrs. Lucy Parker last week.

March winds (we have plenty of them) and April showers bring May flowers.

Several parties have been fishing on the Schlagele recently and most of them report good luck.

Several homesteads have been filed recently. John Bowers has located two miles north of the Falls.

Scissors and Paste

Rushville Standard—Mrs. M. Churchill went to Valentine last week to enjoy a visit with her daughter Mrs. Perry Walker, and family.

Chadron Journal—Mrs. Chas. Sparks, of Valentine arrived in the city Thursday morning to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Springview Herald—James Skirving of Wood Lake and J. H. Fritz New York Life Insurance agent, were in the city a couple of days this week. Mr. Skirving has about 150 head of steers in this vicinity placed with different parties, that he is looking after.

Hyannis Tribune—The ranchmen southwest of town are constructing a vat, in which to dip their cattle this spring.

The fire that started 20 miles north of Whitman, Sunday night burnt over a big scope of country, to the east, doing about $80,000 worth of damage.

Ainsworth Star Journal—Ed. Blakey, of Valentine, spent several days of this week in Ainsworth.

Nine new members were taken in to the Brown County Stock Association at their meeting last Friday.

F. W. Handy and wife, of Wood Lake, tarried in Ainsworth a few days this week and are contemplating on going to work for Squier Jones in the near future.

Gordon Journal—Bob Koontz and family of Merriman have moved to Council Bluffs on account of Mr. Koontz's poor health.

All the scarlet fever patients are reported as recovering, and no new cases are reported this week.

Fred Duerfelt will resign his job as foreman of the Spring Lake ranch and move to Gordon next month and probably build a new residence in the north part of the town.

Ainsworth Herald—Geo. Hershey moved into his new residence which he recently purchased, Tuesday.

John Hugenberg sold his barber shop last Thursday to Ben Abell, of Merriman who now has charge.

Born: In Ainsworth Monday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Martin, twin boys. One living only a few hours.

Dave Hanna purchased the Mrs. A. Smith property in the west part of town Monday, and we understand that the building will be moved to some other lot and a fine new residence will be built thereon. Mr. Hanna is one of the most prosperous ranchmen in the west and he and his estimable family will be a welcome addition to Ainsworth and in advance we bid them welcome.

Cody Cow Boy—Cloyd Quigley accompanied his father to Cody last week.

R. C. McBroon and Boone Stotts have returned from Merriman.

W. H. Essex has closed out his bunch of bulls, down to three grade Herfords.

L. Edward Stuart was erecting a new wind mill at the Wm. Hook residence, south of the track, yesterday.

Mrs. A. M. Birchard, residing about nine miles northeast of Cody, has almost recovered from the small pox and her daughter is also on the road to health again.

The cold hand of death claimed the youngest member of J. W. Tillerson's family, a 11 months' old baby, on last Saturday morning.

J. T. White had his cattle—350 head brought to town this morning and will ship them back to his home ranch, at Belle Fourche, S. D.

J. H. Quigley, of the Boiling Springs ranch, brought two carloads of 3-year-old heifers to Cody last Saturday and had them taken out to his ranch.

Mrs. S. A. Bryant of Allen S. D., was in Cody last Friday and Saturday for the purpose of negotiating with Mrs. Eggleston for her millinery and notion store.

The Rosebud beef herd, to the number of between 900 and 1,000, has been moved from the burnt district on the reservation, to the Wait ranch, about 35 miles southeast of Cody.

Mr. Collins, of Omaha, representing the Creamery Package Manufacturing Co., of that city, was in Cody, on Tuesday of this week, and contracted with the parties here and sold to them the machinery for a skimming station which will be put in Cody and this station will be ready for operation by the first of May.

It is not always the rich man who pays his subscription most promptly.

Wanted! Reliable man for manager of branch office. We wish to open in this vicinity. If your record is O. K. here is an opportunity. Kindly give good reference when writing.

F. B. A. T. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE CINCINNATI OHIO