Aguinaldo continues to express himself as pleased with and impressed by the courteous treatment accorded him by General MacArthur. "I am a prisoner," said he today, "but I am treated like a guest."

The matter of bridge tolls on government freight going to the coast, which has been in controversy for a year between the Union Pacific and the government, has been adjusted in favor of the latter.

President McKinley's administration was denounced and Aguinaldo's name loudly applauded by the large audience that listened to the speakers at the anti-imperialistic meeting in Faneuil hall, Boston.

As a result of the capture of Aguinaldo and the belief among officials that a speedy and complete collapse of the insurrection in the Philippines will follow, the full strength of the army authorized by the recent army reorganization act may not be en-" listed.

FAR-REACHING RESULTS FEARED

Looks Like Breach of Diplomatic Relations Between the Nations-Washington Authorities Admit Squiers Cabled a Conundrum, But Give No Details.

WASHINGTON, April 8 .- The administration is perplexed over a cable dispatch received yesterday from Mr. Squires, now in Pekin, in charge of the American legation in Pekin. This dispatch, according to a publication today, said that the "Russian minister refuses to receive official communications from Chinese commissioners," which carried the inference that the diplomatic relations between the two countries interested would be broken off.

The officials are very reticent about the matter and decline to affirm or deny whether it is correctly stated. They will go only so far as to admit the recelpt of a dispatch, whose purport was not clearly understood, for which reason it was not given to the press for publication. Another cablegram which reached here today from Mr. Rockhill, the special commissioner of the United States, engaged in conducting the peace negotiations, made no reference to the alleged refusal of the Russians to receive official communications from the Chinese commissioners. As Mr. Rockhill is in a position to know promptly what develops between the ministers and the peace commissioners it is believed he would be prompt to report a step of such far-reaching importance as the published dispatch from Mr. Squiers would indicate.

At the Russian embassy no information on the subject was obtainable tonight. It was said there that no communications had come from the foreign office at St. ePtersburg since the Russian note of several days since, which declared that government's intention regarding Manchuria, a copy of which was handed to Secretary Hay. The impression of the officials at the embassy was that no special significance attached to the Squiers dispatch. According to them, it simply meant that the Russians had discontinued further negotiations at this time on the Manchurian question alone, which, for the time, is held in abeyance. This was in accord with the spirit of the official publications of the government on this matter, which asserted that, remaining faithful to its original and oft-repeated political program regarding Manchuria, "it will quietly await the further course of events." Absolutely no concern was felt at the embassy on the subject, the officials apparently being perfectly satisfied that the communications referred to relate entirely to the Manchurian question.

He thus appears to be endeavyring to meet the demand that fresh troops be sent to the front to replace the stale men.

The Pretoria correspondent of the Morning Post, who warns his countrymen against hoping for an early termination of hostilities or believing the stories that the Boers are tired of war, says:

"It becomes daily more evident that the Boers intend to fight to a finish. Many are surrendering, but they are men of no standing. The real fighting men are still on commando and, although recently successful British actions tend to bring the close nearer, it must be admitted that the Boers must be completely crushed before a general surrender is probable."
