government House roll No. 478, by Wilcox, miscelaneous claims bill. House roll No. 484 by Lane-by request of the governor-To provide for the payment of the incidental expenses incurred during the 27th session of the legislature of the state of Nebraska. An additional appropriation of $18,000 for this purpose.

Governor Deitrich vetoed the supreme court commission appropriation bill, but subsequently changed his mind and signed without the vetoing provision. He also changed his mind in regard to some of the appropriations for help in the office of the clerk of the supreme court and the library and court reporter's office. In the general expense bill a number of tems were vetoed, including the following: For the purpose of purchasing forty acres of land to be used for garden and farm purposes in connection with the hospital for the insane at Norfolk, Nebraska, $4,000; stand-pipe soldiers and sallors home at Milford, Nebraska, $3,500; engine house, new engine and dynamo at the soldiers and sailors' home at Grand Island, Nebraska, $6,000; for construction of tunnel for heating purposes at normal school, Peru, Nebraska, $1,800; expense for commencement and summer institute at Peru, Nebraska, $1,200; freight and ex-Peru, normal school, $160; under caption "miscellaneous" to pay bounty on scalps of wild animals for 1901 and 1902,

The governor withheld his approval of house roll 117, being a joint resolution proposing to amend section 1 of article 15 of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, relative to the manner of submiting and adopting amendments to the constitution of the state of Nebraska. A number of items in house roll No. 178, miscellaneous claims bill, were vetoed, the reason being that they did not represent lawful claims against the state of Nebraska. Among the items cut out was the claim of Miss Taylor, which was compromised after a bitter fight in both branches at $1,600. Miss Taylor originally asked for $7.400.

The veto of the $90,000 item in connection with the state university was given as the governor says in his veto message because he believed the revenue of the institution under the one-mill levy would not be sufficient to meet the entire appropriation made. Among the bills vetoed by the governor are two that have attracted little attention. One is house roll No. 129 by Anderson, designating the institute for the blind as the Nebraska school for the blind and the institute for deaf and dumb as the Nebraska school for the deaf. The reason for this veto was that the change would make much confusion House roll No. 23, by Hathorn of Red Willow was vetoed. It was for the relief of Russel F. Loomis of Red Willow county, and authorizing the governor to deed certain land which Mr. Loomis had taken as a homestead, and which afterward proved to be school land. The governor neld that it was bad policy to approve claims of this character. The veto of house roll No. 117, by Fowler, was given because the thought it inadvisable to spend money to submit one amendment, when re regarded it imperative to submit other amendments soon. His idea of calling an extra session was given expression through the veto of this measure. It was a bill to provide that in the vote on constitutional amendments a majority of the electors voting on the amendments shall be sufficient to pass the amendments. The constitutinon now requires a majority of all votes cast at the election.

Governor Dietrich said in regard to his action on bills that he paid no attention to the introducer and in fact did not know who the introducers of the great majority of bills signed were. One or two members came to see him about their measures but this was not the rule. The enrolled measures bore no name and gave no intimation to him whose bills they were. He said his vetoes of appropriations were made necessary by the fact that the resources of the state were too small to meet what the legislature had planned to make them pay.

Nearly one-half the people in the United States are suffering from some form or phase of catarrhal ailment. These ailments take different forms at different seasons of the year. In the springtime catarrh assumes a systemic form, producing nervousness, lassitude and general languor.

Systemic catarrh deranges the digestion and through deranged digestion it impoverishes or contaminates the blood. Thus we have blood diseases and nervous derangements through systemic catarrh. Peruna is a specific for these cases. No other remedy yet devised by the medical profession is able to successfully meet so many phases of spring ailments as Peruna.

Men and women everywhere are praising Peruna as follows:

Just at present considerable interest is being aroused in the fact that a few new districts (of limited acreage) are being opened out by the Canadian government in Saskatchewan and Assiniboia (western Canada), and any information concerning this country is eagerly sought. Mr. W. R. Corser, of AN INDEPENDENCE ASSURED delegate there during last summer, and writing of his impressions he says:

"I found surprising yields of grain of all descriptions. One farmer I visited threshed of 175 acres: "600 bushels of wheat from fifteen acres, 40 bushels to acre. "600 bushels of barley from ten acres, 60 bushels to acre.

"15,000 bushels of oats from 150 acres, 100 bushels to acre. "The samples were all No. 1,

"I also saw a considerable number of stock. Swine do well and there is no disease amongst them. They are a good source of income to the farmer. The cattle on the range beat anything I ever saw. Fat and ready for beef, fully matured and ripened on the nutritious grasses of the prairie. I am firmly convinced that this country offers better facilities for a poor man than any I have ever seen."
