

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF CHERRY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

VOLUME XVI

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, JULY 4, 1901.

For Shoes

SPRING footwear in the same styles shown by leading city stores, but at smaller prices is our boast, and we make the assertion good. Our experience in this line and "know how" in picking out good quality, stylish footwear to retail at close prices, is a direct benefit to people who buy shoes here, for they get superior value for their money. Why not see if we cannot please you better than anyone else? Our shoe man knows how to FIT shoes. That's as important as quality and style, for it means comfort, too.

Hosiery

will wear out, no matter how good, but some wears out a lot sooner than our kind. We buy from manufacturers who know how to put long wear into their hosiery without sacrificing appearance. In children's school hose we have an especially desirable line at 25 cents that saves darning. Try the "BLACK CAT" hose.

Dr. W. Q. G. Tucker and family of Rosebud agency, is in the city at the home of his parents. His father, being ill, although improving is still very weak.

Obe Church, our new barber greets the patrons of this paper with a new ad. this week. Obe is a good barber and a good fellow and is deserving of a liberal patronage.

Louis P. Klopping, of Woodlake, was in this city last Sunday. He and his brother are the owners of a fine ranch near there that they recently purchased of Jacob Emmick.

Miss L. M. Herrick, visiting deaconess of the Omaha Hospital and Deaconess' Home, arrived here Saturday night and spent several days here doing work in the interest of the Home.

J. W. Groves was up from Woodlake last Monday and made this office a pleasant call. He informs us that the hay was never better than this year and that stock of all kinds is doing well.

Mrs. Charlie Green, of Keshena, Wisconsin, arrived here last Sunday on a visit. Her husband is employed by the government as engineer in Keshena. She intends to spend several weeks here.

James Gillaspie, of Kennedy, came up to Valentine last Sunday and is spending the week here enjoying himself. In conversation with the editor he informed us that he intended to go to Bassett and celebrate the Fourth.

The U. S. Land Office was moved last Saturday from their old quarters over T. C. Hornby's to the rooms that have been recently fitted especially for it over the Red Front's dry goods department. Here the officials have added improved office fixtures and seem comfortable and contented.

W. F. Morgareidge and wife have been engaged to teach the Merriman school for the coming year. Merriman can congratulate themselves on getting two of Cherry county's best teachers, Mr. Morgareidge having done very successful work in the schools of this county while Mrs. Morgareidge was employed for a number of years in the Gordon school and resigned with a very enviable reputation as an instructor.

Misses Muchmore, Eason, Cook and Moses who have just completed a very successful term of school under the principalship of Prof. Watson in the Valentine school, departed last Sunday morning for Lincoln from where they will go to their homes for a summer vacation visit. They will also keep in touch with up-to-date school methods and be prepared to again enter the school room this fall.

Isaac O. Jones, of Sparks, was in this city Tuesday.

W. H. Ross, of Rosebud, was in this city a few days this week.

J. B. Hull, of the firm of Yearshaw & Hull informs us that they will move into their new quarters this week.

Mrs. Caveny, of Fremont, daughter-in-law of Mrs. J. M. Collins, is in this city visiting at the home of the latter.

A. J. Wilson, of Woodlake, manager for the Long & Hanson Cattle Co., transacted business in this city last Saturday.

Earl Comstock came down from Chadron last Sunday morning and spent several days in this city looking after business matters.

Miss E. I. Mills added to the value and appearance of her property in the east part of town by placing a new board fence on the north.

F. Lowman, who has been here the past five or six months employed at the Rosebud agency, departed Tuesday for his home in Pennsylvania.

Clyde Foster is back again in his old position as night operator in the depot here, having taken the place of Fred Vincent, who is away on a vacation visiting in Iowa.

Henry Voss, architect for the Krug Brewing Co., came up from Omaha the fore part of this week and accepted the Krug building, that has just been erected here, from the contractors.

William Ennis, foreman on the Chadron Chadronian, came down to this city last Sunday. He was accompanied by his wife and they will visit relatives and friends here during the week.

Harold Zellan and wife, of the Indian boarding school, came down last Saturday and visited among friends here until Tuesday, when they departed for Ohio on a visit to relatives and old friends.

G. H. Q. Smith circulated a petition last week to be presented to the county commissioners asking that the road up the Schlagle be put in a better condition. The recent rain having washed it out considerably.

G. W. Beamer stopped off here last Sunday and Monday on his way home from Omaha. He has a fine ranch in the west end of the county and was in Omaha completing arrangements for the sale of the same.

Mrs. G. Carlson and daughters, Alma and Hazel and sons Lloyd and Edgar departed last Tuesday morning for her old home in Bradford, Pennsylvania, expecting to remain until August visiting relatives and friends.

M. J. Jordan, of Arabia, came up to this city last Saturday and Sunday morning departed for Hot Springs, South Dakota on business. He will also visit Keystone and take in the carnival at Deadwood before returning.

O. W. Hahn and family came in from their home on the north table to hear the orations of the class of 1901, Friday evening. It has since been learned that Mr. Hahn lost several head of cattle last Sunday morning by the train running into a bunch of his a few miles west of this city.

Mrs. D. Stinard departed last Tuesday morning for her old home at Mt. Vernon, New York. She has not visited the old place for seventeen years and there is no doubt but that she will enjoy her visit to scenes that bring back memories of her childhood. She expects to remain six or eight weeks and will take in the Buffalo exposition before returning.

Last Friday evening the class of 1901 gave their orations in the M. E. church. There were eight members of the class, all of whom acquitted themselves with credit to their instructors and the town. The class was composed of Bertrand F. Jeffers, Edward C. Davenport, Edna M. Maloney, Mary E. Cumbow, Martha J. Maxwell, John L. Sawyer, Emma M. Carlson and Glen V. Hee ig. The special training of Mrs. Watson was marked in each oration and Valentine may well be proud of the class her school has given us this year.
