ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Stand up for Valentine.
 T. P. Spratt is in town today.
 T. J. Ashburn was seen on our streets yesterday.
 R. W. Dunn, of Omaha, was in Valentine last Saturday.
 C. H. Cornell is transacting business in Omaha this week.
 P. DeCory was in this city a few hours last Wednesday.
 Miss Olhe Dewey, of Woodlake, came up to this city yesterday.
 Grant Spain and wife were in this busy little city last Wednesday.
 J. O. Vincent's smiling face was seen on our streets this morning.
 Samuel E. and Dell Annis were registered at the Donohoe last Friday.
 The D. S. Ludwig estate have a new ad in this issue of THE DEMOCRAT.
 J. H. Quigley went up to Cody and out to his Boiling Springs ranch last evening.
 Miss Grace Searby, of Crookston, was visiting friends in town a few days this week.
 S. Moon left Tuesday morning to visit his sister who is quite ill in Marshalltown, Iowa.
 Dell Rowley came up from his ranch last Wednesday and spent the day with our people.
 J. G. Stetter was down from Gordon enjoying himself at his home here several days this week.
 Misses Ethel and Myrtle Yancy, of Cody, were the guests of Miss Helen Sparks over Sunday.
 Mary Poland returned home Sunday from Norden where she has been working for several weeks.
 A. E. Thacher spent a few hours in Cody Tuesday in the interest of his stock business, branding calves.
 R. S. Dennis, the painter, is at work in Ainsworth where he expects to remain the greater part of the summer.
 Grandfather Layport came out Sunday night for a short visit with his son Lee and accompany his wife back to Marshalltown, Iowa.
 John Belden, U. S. marshal, came in Wednesday morning and left the same morning for Rosebud agency where he goes in the interest of the government.
 A porch and stairway have this week been added to THE DEMOCRAT building. Remember our new location opposite George H. Hornby's hardware store.
 O. W. Morey, our popular jeweler, accompanied by his son Jay, are spending the week at Bordeaux with their phonograph and fine line of new records.
 Since moving to Valentine James Irwin has secured a position in A. Schatzthauer's livery barn on the east side and is highly commended as a veterinary surgeon.
 F. M. Sears and wife, of Lagondo, Missouri, arrived here last Wednesday morning and went out to Sparks to visit at the home of his brother who resides near there.
 Merton Holsclaw returned from Olympia, Washington, last Friday where he has been for the past five or six months and is more satisfied with Cherry county than ever.
 U. G. McBride greets the patrons of this great moral educator with a new ad announcing the fact that he is ready to do all kinds of carpenter work. We commend Mr. McBride as a good workman.
 A. J. Wilson was up from Woodlake last Friday. Accompanied by John Todd. Mr. Wilson was here again on business yesterday looking after the interests of the Long & Hanson Cattle Company.
 G. H. Hornby and wife and daughter Helen left last week for a month's vacation and outing in California. They went from here to San Francisco where Mr. Hornby acts as delegate to the national convention of the Epworth League being held there this week. They will take in many places of interest in California and other western states before returning.

Work on the government bridge between here and Fort Niobrara is being pushed to the front rapidly and it is expected that it will be completely repaired by the middle of next month.
 The Quigley & Brayton building is going up slowly. Skilled labor seems to be very scarce here this season and it is with difficulty that a sufficient number of men can be kept at work on the building.
 Harold Zelian and wife returned this morning from a visit of two weeks in Iowa. They will go over to the agency for a few days and then return for a couple of weeks visit with relatives and friends in Valentine.
 Work of repairing the reservoir that contained the city water supply and broke out some weeks ago has been commenced this week and we will soon be able to use the hydrant water for house use and be able to boast of the most pure water for city use in the west.
 A. M. Morrissey departed this morning for his old home at Livonia, New York, where he will remain until about September 1st, visiting with his relatives and old time friends. He informs us that he will spend a few days at the Pan American Exposition before returning.
 Miss Nellie Merrill and Sam Hull made this office a pleasant call last Friday. Mr. Hull has been employed at the Palace in Hot Springs and was here visiting at the home of his sister Mrs. Merrill. He departed last Saturday for Denver in the hope of regaining his health.
 Mrs. M. Dutton, of Bancroft, Nebraska, was here Wednesday on business before the U. S. land office. We are informed that she has a quarter section of Cherry county's choice land and no more need be said to convince Cherry county citizens that she is satisfied with her bargain.
 George W. Bent and Jessie M. Peck were married last Monday. Both reside north of Cody and are well and favorably known throughout the whole northwest portion of the county and their many friends unite in extending congratulations to this young couple as they begin life together.
 Mrs. D. L. Libby, of Fairbury, Nebraska, arrived here this morning to visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. V. J. Cook. Mrs. Libby has not yet fully decided upon the length of her visit but it is quite likely that our genial, wholesome people and exhilarating atmosphere will keep her with us for some time.
 I. C. Stotts of Cody, came down to Valentine last evening and this morning departed for Kansas City, Missouri, where he intends purchasing some of the cheap cattle throughout the drought stricken portions of that state. He expects to be gone about ten days or two weeks and will visit relatives while there.
 T. C. Hornby returned this morning from a visit of two weeks at Hot Springs, Sylvan Lake and other points of interest and pleasure in the Black Hills. Mrs. Hornby, Dr. A. N. Compton and Miss Wren Donohoe, who were also in the Hills stopped off at Chadron where they will visit with friends for a few days.
 Archie Pettycrew, who has been attending the Lincoln Business College at Lincoln for the past six months, returned here this morning and is again seen behind the counter in his father, W. A. Pettycrew's, general merchandise establishment. Archie informs us that he has not yet decided just what he will do.
 Frank A. Thackrey and wife and his sisters Misses Cora and Hattie came in from their homesteads yesterday where they have been enjoying the quietude of ranch life for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Thackrey will start for Hot Springs, South Dakota, tonight expecting to remain several days and will probably return to his duties at the Anadarko, I. T., the latter part of the month.
 David Hancock shipped 900 head of fine two year old steers into Cody last Sunday. He purchased them at Kansas City, Missouri, at prices ranging from $2.20 to 2.40 per hundred and were the result of the drought that prevails throughout parts of Iowa and Missouri. Mr. Hancock turned 500 head of these cattle over to A. Steele and the remainder, 400, to Nelson Rowley to take care of for him.
 Twenty-seven cars of cattle consisting of nearly 700 head were unloaded at the stock yards here last Saturday, consigned to R. W. Dunn. The majority of the stock were young steers and was said to have been purchased for $2.80 per hundred in Iowa and 100 head of cows and calves for $18.10 per cow with calf. A great deal of stock will probably be shipped into this country from the drought stricken portions, where it can be purchased very cheaply, and care should be taken to prevent this county and our sister counties from being overstocked.

Steward C. M. Hunter of the post made this office a pleasant call today and tried his hand at the case.
 Mr. Cassidy and mother arrived last night from Doon, Iowa, to visit his uncle David Cogswell and family for a few weeks.
 Stella S. Bullard called at this office today on business. She has been employed at the Indian boarding school on Rosebud reservation for the ensuing year.
 C. V. Thorn and wife came over from their school on the Rosebud reservation last evening. They are away on their summer vacation and we are informed will spend most of the time visiting relatives and friends in Valentine.
 Commissary Sergeant McCarty arrived at Fort Niobrara Tuesday to relieve Commissary Sergeant Adams who is assigned to duty at Holquin, Cuba. During his stay at the Post Sergeant Adams made many friends who regret his departure. We have had the pleasure of meeting Sergeant McCarty and we can predict a long list of friends for him for he is one who will make friends where ever he goes.
 The fixtures for the interior of the new Krug building have already been moved from Yearshaw & Hull's old establishment and installed in the new building. J. A. Hooton has been employed to go over these fixtures and give them a shellac finish. Mr. Hooton has demonstrated his ability as an artist in finishing and graining fine woods. As soon as the work is finished the firm of Yearshaw & Hull will open the doors to the patronizing public of one of the best saloons in the northwest.
 Chas. R. Flickenger, who is well known here and formerly a member of company C, 12th infantry, returned Wednesday morning from the Big Horn country in Wyoming where he has been employed on a ranch. In conversation with the writer he informs us that if he is able to find a residence he will make this his future home and gave broad hints to the effect that he did not intend to "batch." We will welcome him to the community and commend him to the hospitality of our citizens.
 Last Friday W. E. Waite sold his ranch near Chesterfield consisting of eleven quarter sections of deeded land one school section lease and twenty five head of horses to C. J. O'Connor, of Sioux City, Iowa, the consideration being about $30,000. Mr. Waite informs us that he expects to remain here about two months yet and then he, with his family, will move to their old home in Chicago. Although his friends in this city and county will regret to see him leave, their best wishes go with him. The DEMOCRAT wishes him success in any new field of labor.
 M. P. Jordan, the hustling hay merchant of Arabia, spent several days the latter part of last week and the fore part of this week under the care of Dr. J. C. Dwyer in this city. Last week while down the road in the vicinity of Newport the train came to a sudden stop throwing him against the door of the way car and bruising his head. Although it pained him slightly at the time he did not give it serious thought until he reached home when he was taken with blinding spells and considered it advisable to consult a physician and at once came to Valentine. Dr. Dwyer pronounced it a slight concussion of the brain and gives hopes for his permanent recovery in the course of a month or six weeks.
 Last Saturday afternoon the corner stone to Cherry county's new court house was laid with impressive ceremonies. At 2:30 o'clock the people were called together at Cornell hall by the music of the Ladies' Cornet Band which rendered several selections. C. H. Cornell then called the citizens to order, told briefly of the purpose of the gathering and introduced A. M. Morrissey who read a short official history of the county giving the names of all the county officers since the beginning and bringing them down to the present date. Hon. A. L. Towle was then introduced and in a short talk told of the advancing civilization of our county and the civil history of our county after which they adjourned to the court house where W. E. Huley deposited the box containing the history of the county that had previously been read by Mr. Morrissey and several other things that would be of interest and value to the people into whose hands it might fall. Altogether it was a very pretty and impressive ceremony and was well attended considering the extremely hot weather.
Horses Wanted.
 Broken saddle horses, mares or geldings from 5 to 8 years old and from 14 to 15 hands high. Must be blocky and sound, free from blemishes, except small wire cuts. Weight 750 to 1,000 pounds. All colors except white accepted. Will be at Smysler & Hammond's barn, Valentine, July 25 and 26. At Gordon July 29.
 OLIVER HENRY WALPOLE.

INDIAN WAR AND OMAHA DANCE

Last Monday several hundred Sioux Indians came down from the reservation north of town. There were more of them than had at any previous time been here and as the long train of wagons and riders appeared it was thought by several of our townspeople that they were here for mischief making. A large number of women living in town were very much alarmed. Two fainting from fright as the news spread and a demonstration was made by the redskins to take the town, nearly a hundred of them riding up Main street in a gallop. War paint and feathers bedecked them in a hideous manner and with the wild Indian war whoop swinging their guns, revolvers, hatchets and war clubs, being re-inforced by Indians riding in simultaneously from all the side streets and alleys until there was an anxious look on many a pale face.
 Indians swarmed our streets and it is thought that there were more Indians in town than white people. Finally a small band of Indians came riding in a more quiet manner carrying the U. S. flag but the hideous shrieks, yells, and war whoops continuing were never more fully portrayed in language than was heard upon this occasion by our citizens, striking terror to many a faint heart and recalling all the vague pictures of the historical Indian wars and massacres in the early days. It was indeed a grand spectacle of what has happened in days gone by and some of our people who remember circumstances attended by more serious consequences than this splendid demonstration could not help but revert their memories to the times when solemn reality compelled the pale faces to hide away, be carried along with the band of warriors or be scalped with the scalping knife.
 In the evening a dance was held on Main street and many of our citizens contributed money and provisions for their comfort which was divided carefully under the supervision of two noted chiefs, Two Strike and Turning Bear.
 During the night everything was peaceful and quiet around their camps and next morning about half past eight o'clock a war dance was commenced in which a sham battle was one of the features. Some of our oldest citizens say that it was the biggest Indian day that Valentine had ever known and never before had they seen such hideous war painted faces and quaint Indian garb. Some of our prominent men estimated that from 1200 to 1500 Indians were here and of all sizes from the brawny buck and squaw to the infant babes carried in a shawl or blanket on the back of a squaw. There were also many old gray haired Indians 70 or 80 years of age who took part in the dance. In the afternoon a large number went down to Fort Niobrara and there entertained the handful of U. S. soldiers which would only have been a small job if scalping had been their mission. Two heaves were donated to the Indians which made them a suitable breakfast but the many mouths to feed made shares in the beef small.
 Hundreds of Indians camped in the outskirts of town last night and the war whoop like distant coyote yelps made the night air hideous to one less familiar with Indian ways. Looking upon this demonstration in a light hearted manner it is a grand review and picturesque of the native Americans. A sight that none who witnessed will ever forget.

The ladies of St. John's Church will give an ice cream social on Thursday August fifteenth, in the Spark's building.
