TALK OF THE TOWN

C. H. WELLFORD, City Editor.

John B. Lord spent Monday here on business.

George Hammond was up from Arabia, Monday.

W. A. Bonsor was over from his ranch last Monday.

Elmer Cole returned Saturday from a trip to the Black Hills.

Earl Hook, of Cody, was in the city the latter part of last week.

J. R. Fee was down from Crookston last Tuesday on business.

J. C. Rounds spent Saturday and Sunday in Valentine on business.

County Treasurer Thackrey made a visit to his ranch near Arabia last Monday.

Mrs. Capwell, of Ainsworth, was in the city on business the fore part of the week.

I. M. Jones and son Claud have rented the Bonsor property and will move on Monday.

C. S. Reece, our deputy county clerk, spent Monday and Tuesday on his ranch haying.

Ed Hackler, who has been working for Curtis & Mullen, returned to his home here Tuesday.

A. E. Thacher spent Sunday and Monday in Woodlake visiting with J. E. Cochran and family.

J. H. Quigley spent Sunday looking after his interests on his Boiling Springs ranch south of Cody.

The dance in Cornell hall last Friday night was well attended and a good time was had by everyone.

W. F. Morgareidge and wife are spending the week at the home of Mr. Morgareidge's father near Simeon.

James D. McLain came over from his ranch on the reservation and remained here Tuesday and Wednesday.

E. J. Davenport departed last Monday morning for Hot Springs where he will spend a few days at the St. loam.

A. B. Stees, of Kennedy, returned from a trip to the east last Wednesday morning and departed for his ranch.

Mrs. P. A. Walker returned last week from a trip to her home near Rushville. She reports having had a very pleasant visit at her old home.

John Tinnin, who purchased the Alex Dobson ranch on Bear creek in the west end of the county some time ago, was in Valentine Saturday on business.

Carl Freeman who is assisting his uncle at Woodlake through the haying season came up last Monday after necessary repairs for some of the machinery.

Miss Maud L. VanWagener after visiting her sister in Omaha during vacation returned to her duties at the Government boarding school as kindergarten teacher.

Last week L. M. Jones completed a water tank for Frank Seager, of the north table. Mr. Seager has a good substantial tank and one of the largest Mr. Jones has yet turned out.

Edward Parry, of Gordon, spent last Sunday here visiting his sister, Mrs. Harold Zellian. Ed has not visited Valentine for some time and his friends here were all glad to see him.

J. G. Stetter spent several days here this week at his home. Johnnie informs us that he has decided not to go into the saloon business in the Hills having just returned from there.

C. H. Cornell made a business trip to Alliance last Saturday and Sunday returning Monday morning. While away he purchased the Bothwell herd of cattle for L. N. Layport consisting of 136 head.

The social department of the Epworth League will give a lawn social at the residence of Geo. H. Hornby Wednesday night, August 7th. Ice cream and cake will be served. Everyone cordially invited.

J. W. Smyser departed last Saturday buying horses for O. H. Wallop. He stopped at Cody for a few days and from there he goes to Edgemont, South Dakota, expecting to be away ten days or two weeks.

Howard Layport went to Pullman last Monday to get a bunch of one hundred and thirty-six cattle that L. N. Layport recently purchased there and bring them up to the ranch of John Kime. This is the J. J. Bothwell herd that was sold in Alliance last Saturday under a mortgage and it is understood that Mr. Layport got them at a bargain.

Local Weather Record

U. S. Department of Agriculture
Weather Bureau

Valentine, Nebraska, week ending Tuesday,
July, 30 1901

Mean temperature, 77 degrees which is 4 degrees above the average.

Mean temperature for corresponding week last year, 72 degrees.

Highest temperature, 98 degrees on the 28th.

Lowest temperature, 58 degrees on the 30th.

Highest and lowest temperature for corresponding week last year, 95 degrees and 53 degrees respectively.

Total rainfall, .92 inches, which is .43 inches above the average.

Maximum velocity of wind, 46 miles on the 25

Percentage of sunshine, 82.

Copious rains have fallen where they were most needed during the past week and the farmers are glad- dened thereby. Incidentally, also, the doubly execrated weather man is once more in favor. August, however, is yet to come, and — but we decline to make any rank promises.

D. C. GRUNOW,
Observer, Weather Bureau.

Miss Anna Brown was in this city the fore part of the week.

A. M. Charbonneau was over from his ranch on business yesterday.

George A. Chapman, junior partner of the drug firm of Quigley & Chapman, left last Sunday morning for Omaha. He goes there on business relative to the interest of his firm and expects to return the latter part of the week.

Charles Sparks, cashier in the Cherry County Bank, departed last Friday for Neligh to be with his son, Laverne, who was reported quite ill. Mr. Sparks returned Monday morning and informs us that Laverne is on a fair way to recovery.

Harold Zellian and wife returned Wednesday to the Government school where Mrs. Zellian is seamstress instructor and Mr. Zellian is assistant engineer. They have a large circle of friends in and around Valentine who wish them success.

J. A. Sparks returned last Sunday from a ten days business trip to his old home and other points in Kansas. He reports the corn crop burned up there and the whole state badly in need of rain and is glad to get back to Cherry county again.

Rev. C. E. Connell, of Merriman, occupied the pulpit in the M. E. church here last Sunday delivering two able sermons. Rev. Connell spent several days here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Morgareidge and was accompanied by his two children.

John Bowers, of Arabia, sold his place near there last Thursday to Edward Philips and purchased the T. J. Ashburn place on the south side of the river near the Berry bridge. Mr. Bowers is at present a resident of Valentine but will soon move to the place he recently purchased and make his home there.

E. C. Swigert, of Gordon, spent part of Friday and Saturday in this city buying what Indian goods he could pick up of our merchants. Ellich's many friends here are always glad to meet him and as an old friend of the writer we know him to be a hustler of no mean ability and success is coming his way.

W. H. Ross, disciplinarian at the Indian boarding school north of here, returned from a visit to his old home in Michigan and the Buffalo Exposition last Monday morning. He has been away from here twenty-four days for his summer vacation and reports having had a very pleasant time. Mr. Ross left here the same morning to resume his duties at the boarding school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clarkson accompanied by their little grand-daughter Mary House, left here last Monday morning for Tilford, South Dakota, where they will visit for two or three weeks with the family of J. V. Clarkson, who resided here about five years ago. This is their first visit to the Hills and as Mr. Clarkson has not seen his brother since he left here it will undoubtedly be a very pleasant one for both of them.

F. M. Sageser and wife spent Monday here visiting friends before going on east. Frank informs us that he intends going into business for himself at Newport having purchased a livery barn there. He started from Gordon last week with four horses and a buggy intending to drive thru but at Merriman sold two of his horses to Mr. Wallop for $30 each and at Cody sold his buggy and team to W. M. Anderson for $235.00 so he will complete his journey by the cars.
