TALK OF THE TOWN

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY SHOT TWICE

AT BUFFALO EXPOSITION One Shot in Breast and One Through Stomach. Last Friday About 4 P. M.

While President McKinley was receiving and shaking hands with admirers at the Temple of Music, Buffalo Exposition grounds, a medium sized man pushed his way through the crowd and with his right hand apparently bandaged as though hurt put out his left hand to shake with the president, at the same time firing a revolver which was concealed in his bandaged hand under a handkerchief. He shot twice before he was overpowered by the guard and was making an attempt to shoot again but was borne to the ground and held until disarmed and a patrol wagon came which took him to the police station and lodged in jail where he gave the name of Fred Nieman, of Cleveland, Ohio, and later signed a confession of the crime he had attempted as Leon Czolgosz of Cleveland, Ohio. One shot struck the breast bone and made only a slight wound; the other passed through the stomach. The president did not think he was seriously hurt and sat down on a chair while his would be assassin was being taken away. The president was taken to the Exposition hospital where an operation was performed taking out the bullet from the right breast and opening the body at the entrance of the other bullet. The entrance to the stomach was only a small hole but at the back where the bullet passed out a ragged opening one inch in diameter; these were stitched together and the opening in the body closed. McKinley is doing fairly well and will recover say his physicians.

Judge Tucker Dead.

J. Wesley Tucker died at his home on Cherry street Tuesday at 6:20 P. M. after an illness of several months from Brights disease. Thus an eventful life is brought to a close. Mr. Tucker was born Dec. 1, 1833, and early developed the talent of a speaker. He has campaigned and preached almost from his youth. Mr. Tucker was born on a farm near Leavenworth Indiana; was married to Amanda F. Wilson in 1858 and at the beginning of the civil war enlisted as 1st Lieutenant in the 24th Ind. infantry, resigned and was commissioned captain in the 80th Ind. Infantry, promoted to Major and later to Lieut. Colonel.

At the close of the war Mr. Tucker began the study of law and served as District Prosecuting attorney for several years. In 1877 the Judge with his family came to Blair, Nebraska where he served as judge and in '83 came to Valentine as receiver of the U. S. land office. He served two terms as County Attorney of Cherry County and was appointed receiving and shipping clerk of the U. S. Indian depot of Valentine which office he held eight years.

Judge Tucker was charitable and oftentimes befriended the wayworn and hungry traveler and was ready at all times to respond when an orator was wanted. Many times has he moved his audience to tears by the eloquence and pathos that few men possess.

He leaves an aged wife and five children, four sons and a daughter. The Judge was a member of the Masonic lodge and the G. A. R. The DEMOCRAT extends sympathies to the bereaved family.

Resolutions of Condolence, Valentine Lodge M. W. A. No. 1751.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the universe to take from us our beloved friend and neighbor Woodman, C. J. Farnham.

RESOLVED, That we tender our sympathies to the bereaved family and wife. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge. A copy furnished each newspaper for publication and a copy sent the bereaved family.

Sometimes a clique of the would be wise and witty becomes conceited from each jollyng the other on being a great joshier. They often select some one of their fellows who is peculiarly odd as a hero to furnish new topics for conversation.

Chas. A. Faulhaber and his brother John came up from Brownlee last week to prove up on John's homestead. Mr. Faulhaber has been in this part of the country for a number of years and is doing well. He has several nice quarters of hay land and about 300 head of fine cattle. Notice his advertisement in another column of his registered herdfords.

John Smyser returned Monday morning from his trip through western towns, after an absence of about three weeks. While he was gone his father, G. W. Smyser, of Independence, Iowa, came here to see him and was quite sick the first two weeks he was here but is much improved the last week and returned to his home Tuesday.

Julius Peterson of Gregory, Egbert Bonnen, Wm. Enlow and Sidney Irwin were down last Saturday in consultation with Chas. M. Hool, attorney for T. J. Foley in a case trumped up by A. H. Davis of North Platte for the Mrs Holmes who died at the Enlow ranch several years ago, claiming to have an interest in the Enlow estate.

Henry Sanner of Britt paid us a visit last Thursday and added another dollar to our bank account. We think Mr. Sanner is a fine man and we put him with a lot of other friends on our memory list of those who do the most good they can for a friend. A dollar today is worth double that given in two or three years.

Miss Nettie Brosius has accepted a position from the government as laundress in the Indian school at Hayward, Wisconsin, and departed from here last Sunday morning to report for duty. Miss Brosius hopes to be transferred to the Rosebud agency some time so as to be nearer home.

E. J. Spencer was down from Cody last week and made our office a visit. Mr. Spencer was formerly section foreman at Thacher. From there he went to Sidney about a year ago and a couple of months ago came back and is engaged as foreman at Cody.

We desire to thank those who so kindly assisted in the last sad rites of our daughter Katie and take this means of expressing our appreciation of their sympathy and help.

MR. AND MRS. MIKE KENNEDY.

Andrew Morelsey returned Sunday night from his former home in New York state. A brother, Will Morrissey, came with him and will visit here and with his brothers at Chadron for several months.

A severe wind storm struck J. D. Spall's place near Simeon last Friday night, resembling a cyclone in force, taking the windmill off the tower and scattered rails, blowing down considerable fence etc.

Miss Lulu Spain, near Kennedy, was thrown from a horse week ago Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Dwyer was called to set it and we hear she is doing well.

A special dispensation granted the K. of P. lodge here is made notable by the adoption of 12 or 15 new members who are joining the order since last Tuesday evening.

C. H. Faulhaber and brother called at our office last week while in town and besides getting acquainted left us several dollars on subscription and brand.

E. R. Vandegrift was up from his ranch near Brownlee last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs Frank Brayton is visiting her parents since last Friday at Alsworth.

A. S. Glover was here last week visiting old time acquaintances.

Dick Estey was taken into the M. W. A. last Wednesday night.

Wm. Erickson of Kennedy was in the latter part of last week.
