TALK OF THE TOWN

I. C. Stotts was down from July Saturday.

Quite a number of stockmen are in town this week.

Leroy Leach and mother were up from Woodlake, yesterday.

Mrs. Chas. Sparks and son Laverne returned to Valentine Sunday night.

Mrs. Jessie Kelly of Onell is visiting at Mrs. J. C. Reece this week.

Pat Piper, S. L. Ellis and W. D. Morgareidge were up last Saturday from Simeon.

Recent heavy rains followed by the successive frosts gives our people a chilly sensation.

Dr. Compton reports a son born to W. E. Haley and wife Saturday morning September 14.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. O. W. Morey Monday 23. After the meeting a good social time will be enjoyed.

Memorial service to day at Cornell's Hall for our president in which political belief or former differences is no part.

W. E. Haley and George Tracewell went up to Herman Schaeffer's place Monday night to be on hand for the sale Tuesday.

Miss Clara Watson is working in the Valentine State Bank. Miss Elsie Sherman has taken the place of assistant postmistress.

An eight pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Weisfogel of Riege, Tuesday night. Dr. Compton was the attending physician.

Ralph E. Johnson, Deputy State Consul of the M. W. A., will deliver a lecture at the Hall, Sept. 21 at 8 o'clock p. m. All are invited.

Frank Fischer went to Omaha on business, Sunday and as a delegate to the State Democratic Convention at Lincoln Tuesday September 17.

Samuel I. Thackery father of J. E. Thackery will start for Manhattan Kansas, Friday morning, probably to remain for two or three months.

Mrs. John H. Bachelor and children started back to Ohio Tuesday morning to visit among relatives. John will go in a month or six weeks and accompany them home.

W. W. Anderson returned Sunday night from Washington, D. C. Mr. Anderson also visited the exposition at Buffalo and was there the day before McKinley was assassinated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parry came down Sunday and went down to the river to Mrs. Parry's mothers where Mrs. Parry will visit for a couple of weeks. Mr. Parry returned Sunday night to Gordon.

Mrs. R. Anderson returned Sunday morning from Gordon where she had been for the past two weeks visiting Mrs. Ed Parry. Our hardware man has a pleasant look on his face since her return.

C. J. O'Conner and son went out to the ranch Saturday, recently purchased of W. E. Waite. C. J., Jr. remained at the ranch. Mr. O'Conner expects to put some cattle on his ranch soon.

Mr. Schaeffer came down to Valentine Wednesday after his sale and expressed himself as well pleased with the result of his sale. Mr. Schaeffer with his family will move to Marion Junction, South Dakota, in a couple of weeks.

Despite the efforts to prolong President McKinley's life the shot was fatal say the doctors from the start and that he appeared to be doing well until gangrene set in. He died Saturday morning at 2:15, September 14. Our nation for the third time is bowed down with sorrow.

H. A. Dawson, of Pine Ridge, shipped 30 cars of fine well fattened cattle from this place Monday night and Tuesday, 20 cars of which are steers and go to Chicago, 10 cars of cows go to Omaha. They are a nice lot of cattle and ought to bring good prices. Hank Simmons was here to assist with the loading.

At the M. E. conference held last week at Ainsworth a few of appointments made with a note of some changes is all our space permits us to give this week. Valentine, Crookston, Brownlee and Gordon same as last year. Long Pine, J. L. Baker; Ainsworth, O. L. Ramsey; Springview A. T. Carpenter; Norden, Jas. S. Campbell; Chadron, D. J. Clark; Hemingford, C. E. Connell; Hay Springs, C. H. Burleigh; Rushville, W. R. Warren; Lavaea, B. Hunt; Merriman, R. H. Gammon.

Wm. Maier went to Omaha last week on business.

County Attorney Morrissey has been sick the past week.

Judge Walcott occupies rooms over the Red Front now for his office.

It is now President Roosevelt. Some say he is a lucky man. There are some who profit by the death of their friends.

Mildred, the youngest daughter of Postmaster E. L. Maloney and wife has been quite sick during the past week but is improving.

New shades adorn the front of O. W. Morey's jewelry store and mirrors have been put in the windows making a fine display of his goods.

Vice president Roosevelt now become president and the senate is left without a president and it will be necessary for that body to choose one of its number to act as president of the senate.

All new subscribers who will come in and pay $1.00 cash for a year's subscription to the DEMOCRAT we will send them the paper three months free. Send the DEMOCRAT to your friends.

A number of our people went to Ainsworth Sunday morning to hear the conference sermon preached by the bishop in charge of the conference. They returned well paid for their trip.

Mrs. Kirsten Peterson and daughter Hannah express their sincere thanks and gratitude to those who kindly assisted them in their bereavement the death and burial of the daughter and sister.

Gov. Savage commuted the sentence of David George last Sunday. Mr. George returned to Valentine Sunday night and was greeted by numerous friends who rejoice with him upon his release.

Andrew Schatzthauer wishes to call your attention to his livery business in Valentine. He invites you to call at his stable on Hall St. for any thing in his line where you will receive prompt and courteous treatment and reasonable rates.

E. L. Hutchison visited the Democrat office last Saturday while in town giving us words of encouragement. Mr. Hutchison will make a rip down near Kearney to see a couple of brothers, a sister and mother who are there from Colorado.

Col. E. J. Davenport goes this morning with his son, Clyde, to the state university at Lincoln where Clyde will take a four years course of instruction in civil engineering and military tactics. Clyde is a graduate of our high school and is fitted for training in a special course.

Last Friday morning president McKinley began growing worse and hopes for his recovery were given up. Friday night his family bade him fare well and during the night he lapsed into unconsciousness and died. Thus passes away the third president of the U. S. from an assassins bullet and the fifth president to die in office.

Judge Walcott and family returned Sunday night from Omaha where they had been attending the Knights of Aksarben parade and jubilee for several days. The judge also had business in Lincoln before returning. We understand some handsome furniture will adorn the new mansion of the judge which has just been completed making one of the finest and most up to date buildings in Valentine.

Miss Inez Pettycrow departed last Saturday morning for Newport, where she goes to teach the four lower grades of their school. Miss Pettycrow has been engaged for two weeks past in the Valentine state Bank. We think our teachers could be employed at home rather than send them away and in turn employ teachers from abroad. Our school board should look well to these matters next year. We think our people are qualified and should be given preference.

Maggie Shaughnessy was quite sick last week but is improving now as Mr. S. informed us yesterday. Mrs. Ed Satterlee was down visiting her parents and sisters and her brother Will Shaughnessy also visited home folks before the departure of Miss Mary to Deadwood where she has her same position for another term teaching in the graded schools. Will is working at his trade painting and is doing well and returned with his sister Mary to Deadwood.
