TALK OF THE TOWN

The M. W. A. of Crookston will give a dance in their Hall tomorrow, Friday evening.

Floyd Pettycrow attends school and works at the Democrat office evenings and Saturdays.

A Mr. Harris and Mr. Shupe, from Iowa were here last week looking for a Ranch location.

N. C. Riggs was a pleasant caller yesterday at this office while in town on business. Mr. Riggs sold his ranch near Wood Lake to a Mr. Haymaker a few weeks ago.

Last Friday night there was a grand opening of W. Honey's Hall at Wood lake. There was a large crowd there we learn and those we saw say they had a good time.

Thomas Gates of Lime Springs, Iowa, was in town Saturday after making a trip up to the West end of the county where he is having cattle kept by J. A. Ganow.

Mr. and Mrs. Beveridge will be here next Sunday, and conduct a singing and speaking service both morning and evening in the Methodist Church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Services at St. John's Episcopal church Sunday, October 13. Holy communion at 7:30 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 12 a. m. Evening prayer and sermon at 9:30 p. m.

Barney Denayer, who had his leg broken last winter was in town Saturday walking with a cane now. He is getting along nicely for an old man and he thinks he will soon be able to dispose of his cane as he did with his crutches one at a time.

John Foster has been ailing for the past three weeks. He brought a load of corn up to the mill and taking down remained in town several days but returned home only to find that he must again place himself under the doctor's care and has been in town stopping with his brother during the past week.

Mrs. J. C. Northrop and Mrs. M. R. Harden returned this week from Omaha where they have been attending the state W. C. T. U. convention as delegates from the county and local unions.

J. F. Young the candidate for county treasurer came down Tuesday and met numerous friends and made many new friends. Mr. Young should receive the support of all men who want a man who will serve them best and collect the taxes with the least possible cost to them. He gets our vote.

The ball given Friday evening October 4 at W. Honey's new town hall was a complete success, more than 400 being in attendance from Ainsworth, Longpine and Valentine and throughout the county of Cherry. Those who did not care to trip the light fantastic toe enjoyed themselves at the New Union church now in course of completion, where an excellent supper was spread by the ladies of the church. The proceeds of the supper amounted to $240 needed for the completion of the church. The many attendants at the hall pronounced it one of the finest buildings in Cherry county and a great convenience for entertainments and social gatherings in Woodlake, as it fills a long felt want. Excellent music was furnished for the evening by the Arabia Cornet band and Messrs Shaul Bros. of Woodlake.

A Big Lot For The Money.
A newspaper every Thursday and every Friday of each week from now until January 1, 1903, together with the Western Poultry News a whole year, and all for a dollar, is what is offered by The Semi-Weekly State Journal, published at Lincoln. It's the biggest bunch of good reading matter ever offered by this great state paper, and the prediction is made that it will result in introducing The State Journal to thousands of new homes. The Journal is a newspaper giving its readers all the telegraphic news of the world, interesting special correspondence from Washington about Nebraska's senators and congress men, and all the items of interest from the state capital, making it particularly a paper for Nebraskans. If you can find a dollar about the house, this is the place to spend it. Its markets twice a week are worth what it asked for all of it. You get the news fresh from the wires when you get The Semi-Weekly Journal.      38-11

Educational Department.

BY LETA STETTER.

Cloyd Quigley of the 19th grade was absent all of last week.

There have been several new enrollments during the past week.

Anyone wanting something "good" to read ask for "Moods", by Miss Alcott.

The H. S. is in receipt of a copy of "Scarlet and Cream" a little paper issued from the university.

The seniors can always draw an appreciative audience when they play "Drop the Handkerchief".

Mesdames Meltendorf and Adamson were pleasant callers in Miss Robinson's room Monday afternoon.

The H. S. have subscribed for the "Atlantic Monthly", "Review of Reviews" and "The Bookman".

Through the kindness of Miss Cumbow the H. S. now marches out at intermissions to "the strains of martial music".

Miss Cumbow had charge of Miss Robinson's room last Monday morning, the latter being a visitor in Miss Moses' room.

The H. S. is indebted to Mrs. Davenport for the 12 numbers of "McClure's Magazine" for 1900. They are accessible to all H. S. students.

Ask for "A Kentucky Cardinal" by James Lane Allen, when you go to the library some Friday morning undecided as to just what you want.

The 11th grade are now pursuing "Macbeth" thro the intricacies of the third act and the 10th grade are following the footsteps of "Evangeline" thro many disconsolate wanderings.

What has become of Cloyd Quigley's desk? And that reminds us, what has become of Mr. Quigley himself? It begins to assume the aspect of a mutual abdication, and at the present writing Cloyd's books are stacked disconsolately on the front seat, awaiting a turn of events.

Miss Moore of Red Oak, Iowa, who is to teach in the McNair district, spent last Friday inspecting the work in the 9th grade, of the Valentine high school. She hopes to prepare a class to enter the 10th grade in Valentine next September. We are told that one citizen of the district pays ten dollars per month in addition to his school tax, that the district may be able to hire a teacher who can teach successfully the 9th grade work. Miss Moore was accompanied by Miss Brown, county supt. of schools.

Kennedy

Mr. and Mrs. Rowley went to Valentine last Monday on business.

Uncle Alex Ayers went to Valentine last Monday.

Mrs. Hodge of Shelton, Nebraska, is visiting with Mrs. Faddis.

The dance at Kennedy was a grand success last Monday night.

Geo. Rogers is again carrying the mail from Simeon to Chesterfield.

Albert and Ed Ganow of Sparks are tending the roundup on Snake river.

John Bachelor passed through Kennedy on his way to Valentine Monday.

Mrs. Faddis of Valentine is visiting with her mother at Kennedy, this week.

Mr. Brown from Goose creek took in the sights at Kennedy one day last week.

Billy Ware passed through Kennedy on his way to tend the roundup last Sunday.

The Spain and Marks contest is taking nearly everybody to Valentine this week from around Kennedy.

Rev. Whitehouse and wife were at Kennedy last Sunday and held two services in the sod. school house which were well attended despite the rain.

BROKEN ARM

A jolly hunting party started out Monday morning for the Lares taking a load of provisions and ammunition, two spring wagons of men guns and dogs galore. The party consisted of Wm. Francke and architect Meisner and a host of other gentlemen from Omaha. W. H. McCloud took the load of supplies out for them. There'll be happy times for them and the dogs, but Oh the ducks and the grouse.
