HICKORY CHIPS

The more republican senators scrap over forced resignations...

"Give me any old office and I'll give you my support," is a song that is being daily sung to Mr. Roosevelt.

Whatever else may turn up, it is certain that Mr. Roosevelt will never be loved for his "nigger" dinner-guests.

General Chaffee cabled for recruits at once which is another sign that Phillip pine troubles have not reached their end.

The court of inquiry needn't hurry about its opinion in the Schley case; the people have some time ago decided that in Schley's favor.

The negro preachers are doing their best to keep the country from forgetting Roosevelt's dinner with Booker, Washington.

Senator Scott of West Virginia is not "great Scott," but he is great enough to make trouble when his official toes are tread upon.

If the thing keeps up it will be difficult to name a city of any consequence that has not invited Rear Admiral Schley to visit it.

Gen. T. L. Rosser of Virginia is one of the ex-fireeaters who is willing to hold a federal office in exchange for calling himself a republican.

No man has ever been great enough and no man will ever be great enough to wipe out nature's line between a superior and an inferior race.

It might be inferred from Secretary Long's talk and acts that Crownshield's "pnl" with the Navy Department was stronger than Roosevelt's.

The fog in London isn't a bit more troublesome than the fog which keeps the English befuddled in South Africa, and nothing like so expensive.

All sorts of rare things are being discovered in Indian Territory, but no republican there or elsewhere who isn't willing to hold office has been found.

The Standard Oil trust has gobbled up some of the best Texas oil fields. Some day this big trust and others may find themselves gobbled up by the people.

Chicago strikers in a piano factory are up against a court injunction. Why doesn't some judge issue an injunction against the bosses for a change?

"Don't reduce taxation on the treasury surplus; we have schemes for spending lots of money," is the sum and substance of the talk of republican congressmen.

Now that the magazines are telling about the "Rise of Horace Greeley," why doesn't somebody tell about the fall of the old man, and the men who threw him down?

There are only three republican members at the Georgia legislature and one of them has offered a resolution censuring Roosevelt for asking a negro to his dinner table.

Well, well! It is really shocking to hear that saint of civil service reform, Henry Cabot Lodge, accused of working his friend Roosevelt for an office for another of his friends.

When Crownshield takes command of the European squadron he should take Potts and MacLay along with him. They would make three of a kind—a very bad kind—hard to beat.

If the missionary bishop isn't careful about his predictions of the early overthrow of the Chinese government he will be suspected of having a personal interest in the predicted revolt.

Don't be too hard on Lemly; he was only the tool of his superiors in office. The blame for the persecution of Schlesy belongs much higher, and if Mr. Roosevelt is wise, will result in at least one cabinet vacancy.

President Schwab of the steel trust has been presented with a loving cup by the other trust officers. If congress does its duty by the people it will fill that cup with something that won't taste good to Schwab.

TELL-TALE TEETH

If you neglect your teeth you know it; and everybody else knows it, because the teeth are so prominently located that any lack of care is quickly visible.

Good tooth brushes cost but little here. We have some that we guarantee never to shed a bristle. We also have the latest and best tooth preparations; those that polish, whiten and preserve the teeth and cannot harm.

Can supply a tooth-saving outfit for very little money.

Britt Items

H. Sanner dehorned and branded a lot of cattle here yesterday.

Alf Hoffman got a bad cut on his hand while assisting Mr. Sanner.

Mr. Bullis the store keeper is selling goods cheap and does a fair business.

Corn huskers are in great hurry around here this fall. I will send more items next week.

Eric Anderson has not threshed his grain yet. He sold a load of fine potatoes at Britt for one dollar per bushel.

Mr. Frank Randall has bought the Cole's farm, half a mile west of Britt. He intends to move on his farm this fall.

Walter Jackson was here a few days ago on his way to W. A. Bousser's on the reservation for a few days recreation hunting.

C. H. Cornell is preparing to winter and feed a bunch of cattle here. He wants about eight or nine thousand bushels of corn to feed them with.

STATE LINER

The first snow of the season fell Monday morning.

Mr. Henry Becker is wintering cattle for Mr. Frank Brayton.

Lester Green and Dell Whipple are picking corn for M. P. Brosius.

M. P. Brosius has the Government contract for corn at Fort Niobrara.

Frank Riggle came over from the reservation last week to visit his family and returned Tuesday.

George Austin and wife returned from Wisconsin last Sunday where they have been the past year.

The dance at Dry Creek last Friday night was well attended, and a good time was reported by all.

There will be a spelling school and ciphering contest at District No. 2, November 9, at the pupils of Harmony Star school, and other district. Every one should attend and have a good time.

LIVERY AND FEED STABLE

A. Schatzthauer, Propr.

W. H. Hooper will winter thirty head of cattle for C. H. Cornell.

Jesse S. Brosius was over from St. Mary's Mission Friday and returned Saturday.

The corn stalk disease has again made its appearance. Ralph Crabb has lost five cattle and O. W. Hahn one. The farmers of this community should have the veterinary to come here and find out the cause of cattle dying here.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Rev. J. Mc. Lean returned from Omaha Tuesday night.

C. W. Cramer has bought the old delivery wagon and harness of Mr. S. Welch and is now running it.

W. A. Wilson of Georgia is on our streets, to day and still limps and wears a cane as a result of a broken leg.

Mrs. S. Moon and daughter Mrs. A. D. Brown made a trip up to the Hot Springs last week, returning the fore part of this week.

Charles E. Ricketts of Merriman called at the DEMOCRAT office yesterday while in town and put his subscription in advance.

Did you notice that there were 60 straight republican tickets voted in Valentine precinct and half that many democratic straight's?

Geo. Fitz and Blacksmith Carson of Crookston were very much dissatisfied with the way the election was conducted at Crookston so we hear.

Hon. Frank Rothleutner of Georgia was among those who came in to bring election news and hear how the republicans worked us in Valentine.

Chas. H. Cornell has been out hustling over the country surrounding town the past few weeks buying cattle and—well you know—getting his cattle ready for winter.

Geo. L. Coleman visited us while in town yesterday and found his subscription had not yet expired to the DEMOCRAT. We appreciate the cash in advance subscriber.

B. F. Felch, formerly of Simeon who left here about four years ago for Omaha and now of Chicago is back visiting old time friends and we hear is talking of relocating here.

Election day passed off quietly and the weather was perfect. There was a large vote early by the enthusiasts mostly and then the vote was scattering until the close of the polls.

Wm. Ferdon and wife returned to Valentine again after a few weeks visit. Mr. Ferdon expects to make Valentine his home and as soon as we can get our telephone line established can manage his affairs at his ranch and feel more comfortable.

Stedifor—Maxwell—On November 6th, 1901. At the residence of the bride's parent of Valentine, Nebraska were married at 8 O'clock by Rev. J. McLean. Miss Martha Jane Maxwell, daughter of Charles Maxwell to John Stedifor of Fort Niobrara.

We feel under obligations to J. C. Pettijohn for the fairness he showed us in several ways during the last campaign and at its close. Mr. Pettijohn captured the vote of some of our people so slick that more than half of them really think they had the glory of defeating somebody.

Latest election returns up to our going to press shows the republicans elected their state ticket by 5,000. Our county goes 200 for the republicans and they elect the whole ticket except Judge Towne who gets about 160 majority. The following gives the votes with precincts Buffalo Lake, Mole Lake, Steen and Pleasant Hill not yet in.

Table with 3 columns: Rep., Dem., Clerk, Treasurer, Judge, Superintendent, Surveyor, Sheriff.

Ed Satterlee, of Nenzel, came down with the poll books of his precinct which polled a vote of nineteen democrats to one republican. This is one precinct that the republicans cannot crow over and the reason is that they know how to vote up there. The DEMOCRAT extends greetings to these honored members who stand by their principles and vote right. Mr. Satterlee is the postmaster at Nenzel and runs a general merchandise store that is well patronized by as loyal a people as trades anywhere. Nenzel is a good trading point and just across the track from Mr. Satterlee's store, Jos. Nollette conducts a store who also shares the trade of a liberal and industrious people.

Geo. W. Beamer of the Box O ranch came down from Irwin after voting, Tuesday, and transacted business.

John Eaton is kept busy running his delivery and, "what's the matter with Simons and Miller?" They are busy too.

Mr. S. Welch comes out bright and new with a fine delivery wagon, there seems to be plenty of work for the delivery men as they are always on the go.

J. C. Pettijohn, Charley Reece, and Ed Clark got out on the street and made a desperate last effort to catch any lingering vote that might be on the fence or that may have been overlooked, Monday.

James S. White foreman for R. W. Dunn has started on the round up on the Reservation north of town and will work eastwards and down Sand Creek to the mouth, and up the Kev-paha river and wind up at the north end of Rock Creek about the 15th of November. Mr. White requests that any one who has cattle missing, be on hand at this round up.

Hall Taylor Dead

Last Monday while in town Hall Taylor drank pretty freely and went to the Collins restaurant at six o'clock to eat supper claiming to be hungry but while he was eating fell over dead. Some thought that he had choked on some meat that he was eating but there was no symptoms of choking. It was a gasping for breath and heart failure. It is claimed that he had been given some money to work with or buy whiskey to work with at the polls next day.

Taken Up

MISS HATTIE MAIER

The Old Story..

You know the old story about the camel—how three philosophers heard of this animal and determined to investigate. The Englishman hunted through the folios of the British Museum to find out what had been said concerning the beast; the German entered his study, locked himself up, lit his pipe, and began to evolve a conception of the animal from his inner consciousness; the Frenchman went down to Sahara to see.

You've heard of "THE NEBRASKA," you've read our advertisements, but many of you do not know us as you should. Why not come and see. If you cannot visit us in person, send for our Catalog.
