TALK OF THE TOWN

Extravaganza Comedy Co. Saturday night.
John Keeley has been quite sick with pneumonia.
Max E. Viertel was in Valentine on business this week.
J. H. Searby was doing business in our city last Saturday.
W. N. Bliss was down from Crook-ston the first of the week.
J. R. Ayers and wife attended the Farmers' Institute last week.
Mr. Hood formerly of Rushville is now operator for F. E. and M. V. at this place.
James Irwin has accepted a position doing the heavy work at the Donoher hotel.
Mrs. L. C. Ramoerg was visiting Mrs Geo. Tracwell this week They called at the DEMOCRAT office Tuesday.
The foot ball game last Saturday was a rare treat to our citizens who turned out in large numbers to witness the game.
The "Bell Kearney Y" will meet with Miss Elsie Sherman Monday evening Dec. 2nd at 7 o'clock. Please notice the hour.
H. R. Edgar and wife were up the past week from Brownlee. Mr. Edgar returned about three weeks ago from the Black Hills.
Dave Archer and Miss Nellie Graddy were married a couple of weeks ago but it was not reported in time for us to get into the paper last week Cigars Dave.
L. H. Overman who advertises a sale in this issue of the paper was in town last week and informs us that he will move to Crookston to run the livery stable having bought A. J. Folks stable and hotel.
Mike Clyne had an attack of heart failure last Sunday evening which laid him out for awhile. Mr. Clyne was able to be up again at his duties as night clerk at the Donoher Tuesday though pretty weak.
O. W. Morey made another trip down the road to fit eye-glasses for his patrons. Several parties from a distance called to see him during his absence. Mr. Morey has a complete set of testing apparatus for the eye and can fit glasses with skill and accuracy saving much strain upon the eye.
Work was begun moving the county offices and their books to the new court house Monday morning where everything will be as neat as a pin.
It did not take very long to move and now they are installed where there is plenty of room, light and heat and Cherry county the largest in the state can boast of as neat a court house as graces any.
J. E. Cochran of Wood Lake and R. W. Dunn of Omaha were visitors the fore part of the week. Mr. Cochran went to Omaha Wednesday and Mr. Dunn went to Cody.
Mr. Dunn says he had fair success in rounding up his cattle being only about 200 head short which he considers pretty well at this time and expects to get some more of them yet.
Dr. Palmeter the V. S. and dentist spent the past week in Valentine and was visited by several persons who had horses needing attendance. The doctor is a bright looking young man and inspired our people with confidence in his ability to handle and doctor stock. Dr. Kennedy his assistant was here with him and they removed a large wart from a mules leg for one of our stockmen.
Jno. W. Whillans was in town Monday getting lumber to furnish his building over to Sparks where he and C. F. Callen are putting in store.
Sparks ought to be a good business point and these men are well known and will help to build up a good business. Each new business house draws trade that much farther and will make better business for all. Adding a business house to a town does not divide the trade but rather increases it for those already there.
Ed Richards of Kennedy, Geo. Dew of Wood Lake August Epke of Crook-ston, Wm. L. Cole of Kansas City Mo., C. F. Kirkman of Compton, J. E. Varney of Cascade, F. W. Jersig of Valentine are a few of the new subscribers to the VALENTINE DEMOCRAT during the past week. We think there were a half dozen more but we don't recall their names just now. If the paper fails to reach every one who has subscribed please notify us.
It is not intentional to miss any one J. F. Nye is in town this week.
Elden Sparks was in town over Sunday with his family.
J. A. Sparks is now manager of the D. S. Ludwig estate.
Nels Rowley and wife were in town over Sunday last week.
Pete De Cory is dehorning cattle this week after some previous delay.
Jessie S. Brosius was down from St.
Marys Monday after a load of supplies.
Are you going to take in the moving picture show Saturday night Nov. 30?
J. D. Kime and son-in-law of Newton were doing business in town last Saturday.
Harry Presho, who works for Pete De Cory, spent a few days in town last week.
Marine and Nellie Ohler, teacher and matron of St. Marys, went to Lincoln Monday morning.
Andrew Mazgo is going east and will return in a week or ten days to resume his work at S. H. Kimmel's.
Wm. Morrissey came down from Chadron last week and is book-keeper for the Ludwig Lumber Company.
D. M. Sears was up attending the school land auction and got a nice lot of school land to help out his ranch.
I. W. Ostrander of Rushville was among the number here attending the school land auction last Thursday.
There was a dance at Rosebud, Friday evening. All report having a good time. There will be another on Thanksgiving.
Dan Webster was a pleasant caller at this office last week while in town from his ranch between the Niobrara and Snake south of Merriman.
Lewis Ganow proved up on a fine quarter of land on the Snake last Saturday. Mr. Ganow has been out on the roundup for a month past gathering in his horses for the winter.
P. S. Rouché was in town last Saturday from his ranch near Brownlee.
His sons are here attending school and appear to be nice gentlemanly boys, well behaved and intelligent.
Dr. A. J. Plumer and wife were in our city last Thursday and Friday from their home in Mother Lake predict. Mr. Plumer was transacting business in the county treasurer's office and we suppose was too busy to call on us.
Chas. Beece appointed John Keeley deputy county clerk. Jack, as he is familiarily known is well liked around town and will make a popular deputy.
He has been quite sick the past couple of weeks.
We like the boy who when he knows of something that is going on and is worth telling about comes in with a good account of it. He is a bright boy and by practice in reporting these happenings will notice a great deal more. After a while this boy will be looked for when people want to know something and he can get a good position because he is alive and will know something that other people will be willing to pay for and they'll pay too.
Dave Archer and Miss Nellie Grad-
dy were married a couple of weeks ago but we didn't get any report of it until it was too late for a chivari party and the dance given on the 16th was said to be the largest gathering in the settlement for years and they had a good time so they say. Why don't these young people get out invitations and give the printer something to do and then we would be able to tell about who was there. When anything happens in your neighborhood you should rub up against the newspaper man and if he doesn't ask you what has happened out in your neck of the woods, you just up and tell him.
We are going to offer a prize to the boy or girl over 12 years of age who will bring in the largest number of real news items neatly written and readable from now until January 1, 1902.
The prize will be a years subscription to the VALENTINE DEMOCRAT for the best and most complete news gatherer.
Second prize, six months subscription and the winners of prizes will be invited to contribute articles of their own writing as a regular correspondent during the year., with paper and pencils furnished for taking items. Anyone wishing to take advantage of this offer will call at this office and register with us and get further particulars.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

All parties who are indebted to us whose accounts have been running for two years and more will please call and settle. We Mean the parties who can pay but wont. There are some who would pay but can't.
Now to the former class we want to say that if accounts are not settled by January 1, 1902 we will publish a list of their names and amount due in each of the County Papers for a period of 60 days and sell same accounts for what they will bring.
