DON'T DON'T DON'T

neglect your eyes. Attend to them. If they hurt you come and have them tested.

You may need glasses the worst way, and with a few moments time and small expense for glasses save your eyes. Do not wear cheap spectacles as they are not correct. A good pair at the right price is the cheapest. Latest test. Lots of goods to select from.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Alex Charboneau was over from the reservation Tuesday.

The Presbyterians gave a box social last night in the Sparks building.

Worth Holsclaw, of the reservation was seen on our streets yesterday.

Wal Hamar, from down the river, was in town the fore part of the week.

Miss Kate Donohar went to her homestead near Gordon Monday morning.

Pick Grooms, of Niobrara Falls, while in town yesterday made this office a short call.

W. H. Wilkison, of Cody, was enjoying himself in town a few days of the week.

W. A. Kimbell, the barber, has moved his barber pole from the corner to opposite his shop door.

John Neiss, a ranchman from the reservation, was transacting business in our city the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kine of the south part of the country are visiting with Mrs. V. A. Northrop, Mrs. Kime's sister.

Ralph Crabb and Howard Jaycox were in town after a couple loads of coal for the Harmony school last Monday.

J. E. Hendricks, proprietor of the Dew Drop at Cody, made us a pleasant call while in town last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. E. McDonald has had her house which was in the west part of town moved on to her property in the east part of town.

The county commissioners have been very busy the past week in the county treasurer's office checking out Treasurer Thackrey.

There was a social gathering of the W. C. T. U. at the home of G. P.
Crabb in which the misses invited their gentlemen friends.

Miss Helen McDonald, who graduated from the Valentine high school a year ago, has gone to the St. Franciscan academy at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

C. M. Kime, a ranchman from near Newton, while in town the fore part of the week called at the DEMOCRAT office and left us a dollar for a year's subscription to the paper.

Mahara Minstrels played to a crowded house here last Monday night.
The play was better than usually comes to a town of this size, and especially the singing was appreciated by everyone.

Andrew M. Morrissey and his brother Will went down to Omaha last Thursday and attended the State Bar Association, Andrew returned Sunday night but Will remained for a few days visit.

Last Tuesday morning Miss Sarah Simpson and Miss Edith Pettycrew departed from here for Lincoln to attend business college. Both of these young ladies are graduates of the Valentine High School and always ranked high in their classes.

Jay Morey while playing with some boys on the floor of the old steam laundry building fell into the cellar and it was reported that he had broken three ribs, but upon further investigation we find that this was a mistake as no serious injuries resulted from the fall.

Revival meetings have begun at the M. E. Church and will continue indefinitely. Rev. Clark of Chadron is here assisting the resident pastor Rev. Cumbow since Monday. Rev.
Cumbow preached a very good sermon Sunday night from the text "Come let us reason together."

Horace D. Huntington having accepted employment in the new Bank organization at Gordon, refused the position offered him by Mr. Shattuck, who has now given the place to Miss Hattie Thackrey, who will probably do more work than any new hand and everything will go as smoothly as if no change were made in the office.

Albert K. Wood one of the merchants on the Rosebud Agency was in town Tuesday, driving down in time for dinner. He returned yesterday.
Mr. Wood purchased a stove, while he was here last month, to put in his rig for the purpose of keeping warm on long drives in cold weather and says he does not suffer from the cold at all.

Mrs. E. McDonald of Crookston spent a few hours in our city last Thursday.

Chas. Maxwell is running the dray for P. F. Simons, who has gone down to Norden to see his brother who is very sick.

Abram Nichols, the Arabian merchant, and Michael Joseph, who formerly run a store in our town were in our city Saturday on business.

The Episcopal church is soon to have electric lights. The wood-work inside the church has been recently varnished and stained so it will have a very neat appearance.

We are indebted to M. Jelly and wife for a pleasant visit last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jelly are now the possessors of a talking machine which their sons who are working at Ft. Niobrara got for them as a Christmas present.

The social department of the Epworth League will give a Sock Social at Hornby's hall Sat. evening Jan.
18, beginning at eight o'clock. Every one who would enjoy thus spending a pleasant evening and helping the League financially is invited. Refreshments will be served and a good time is in store for all.

Miss Maggie Zimmerman of Utica, Seward Co., Nebr. and August Epke of Valentine, were married at the home of the bride's parents. Mr.
Epke is a bright energetic young man and will make a nice home for the bride. The VALENTINE DEMOCRAT extends greeting to this couple and wishes them a happy and prosperous life.

We have made arrangements with the publisher of SUNNY SOUTH a paper published at Atlanta, Georgia to furnish us ten copies or subscriptions.
These will be sent free of charge to our correspondents for the VALEN-TINE DEMOCRAT. We need three more correspondents to complete our list. One from the south-west, one from Cody and one from the southeast part of the country.

Martin Carr who lives out near Sim-con and Daniel Hubbard of this city made this office a pleasant call last week. Mr. Carr came to this country about fourteen years ago and Mr.
Hubbard was one of his first acquaintances. When they met in this office they did not at first recognize each other. After talking over old times they found that they had not met since Mr. Carr first came here. Mr.
Carr is doing well in the stock business.

Educational Department,
BY LETA STETTER.

"Without a tear, without a tear,
The great grand old steps calmly out of sight, Down into the dim and unknown night."

Floyd Pettycrew is absent this week.

Friday is the last day of the first semester.

Misses Nellie Holsclaw and Alta Starr were absent Tuesday.

The organ is once more in its accustomed place in the H. S. room.

Miss Bessie Schifferens of Sparks was enrolled this week in the 9th grade.

The Juniors are remarkably original especially in the construction of circles.

Ceaser got the Bellovaci into a pickle and then promised to preserve them.

The seniors and Miss Hess enjoyed themselves skating last Friday evening.

Leonard Sparks now employs a part of his afternoons hunting bear and other big game.

The seniors find religion in Source Extracts, sermons in Mood. Effects and trouble in everything.

Like Tennyson, the Seniors find a special charm in the words "Far, far away" - where geometry is concerned.

Miss Sarah Simpson of '00 and Miss Edith Pettycrew of '98 departed Tuesday morning for Lincoln there to further pursue their education.

Jay Morey was absent several days last week on account of a slight accident he sustained in falling from the garret to the basement of the old building north of the depot.
