Educational Department.
BY LETA STETTER.

"True dignity abides with him alone
Who in the silent hour of inward thoughts
Can still revere and still respect himself
In lowliness of heart."

The seniors were skating again Monday after school.

Mrs. O'Kane visited in Miss Eason's room one day last week.

Examination passed off quietly
throughout the school.

Miss Conger was detained from school a few days last week.

Mrs. Taylor presented the school with a number of magazines.

Nouns in the "singular case" and "neuter verbs" are the latest from the seniors.

We may never come into our ambition, yet it will not hurt us to covet something high.

The 11th grade took up, advanced arithmetic, Monday under Miss Hess Miss Cumbow will join the class in this branch.

The H. S. is indebted to Mr. Harry Fucker for three books for the library and also to Mr. Walter Flowers for two to be numbered among our library books.

Miss Hess was vaguely startled when she read of the docile cows winding homeward and the milkmaid standing with a big milk pail and stool ready to greet them.

Miss Hess:—(in history) Miss Pettyjohn, what was the trouble between Johnson and Congress?

Miss Pettyjohn (after reflection) why they couldn't agree.

THE SUNNY SOUTH
Fifty Cents a Year—Less Than a Penny a Number.
THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY
Published at Atlanta, Ga.—Circulation Over 50,000.

The SUNNY SOUTH is the Great Literary Weekly of the South. It is devoted to Literature, Romance, Fact and Fiction, and gives the best of all that is current in its field. Among its contributors the most noted southern writers appear—J. Chandler Harris, Harry Stillwell Edwards and others of growing fame. Serial stories from Anthony Hope, Maurice Thompson, Sidney R. Crockett, Mrs. G. Corbett and Arthur W. Marchmont have appeared, and others are in waiting from the pen of authors of national note. A short story contest brought out nearly five hundred splendid short stories, all worthy a place in THE SUNNY SOUTH'S readable columns. Other contests are contemplated that will successfully exploit the ripening field of talent that only needs such fostering to illustrate the wealth that is shy to assert itself.

The SUNNY SOUTH teams with the life of the great south. The genial sunshine warms everything into activity and the season is never cold enough to check the hand of industry. The paper comes fragrant with the breath of the magnolia and pine, and gives out the very air of the orange, the palm and bay. The beauty and pathos, the romance and mystery of the land where the corn stores up the golden sunshine and the cotton whitens in the moonlight, will be given in the well-filled columns of this fascinating weekly.

The subscription price is Only Fifty Cents a year, alike to all persons, agents, newspapers, postmasters and every one else. Clubs of five, accompanied by the full $2.50, entitle the club raiser to the paper one year gratis.

Send on a Postal Card the names of six of your neighbors who would appreciate the opportunity to read a copy of The Sunny South, and one sample will be mailed free. You can get your club of five out of these very people.

The SUNNY SOUTH enters over 50,000 American homes now; and during 1902 is sure to be welcomed in fully as many more homes, as the great weekly feast of good things. The Sunny South Literary Weekly, whose columns for 1902 will be the most readable of all the papers that come to you.
