

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF CHERRY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

VOLUME XVII

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, MARCH 6, 1902.

NUMBER 7

TALK OF THE TOWN

E. L. Heath was in town Monday.

M. G. Hopkins is reported quite sick at Lincoln.

J. W. Whillins is very low with pneumonia.

Mrs. W. A. Pettycrew is on the sick list this week.

Miss Edna McDonald is visiting with Miss Davenport.

Mr. Austin, of Simeon, was in town the first of the week.

Miss Mary Higgins is visiting the Misses Keeley this week.

Ed Blakey, stock inspector, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. Lovejoy, from out south, transacted business in Valentine Monday.

John Thompson and wife were in our city Tuesday getting supplies.

Edward Ormesher was in town Tuesday from his ranch south of town.

It was a mistake. Jas. Mangan didn't buy the Watson building as we reported last week.

Miss Wren Donoher has gone out to visit with Mrs. Wm. Ferdon at the ranch near Brownlee.

Carl Wilber moved to the residence property, he recently purchased in the northwest part of town, Tuesday.

Jas. Wellford and family moved the first of the week into the Montgomery building across the street north of this office.

Fish Pettycrew, who resides out on the north table, called at this office while in town Tuesday and got a package of garden seeds.

Just received, a quantity of Prussian Stock and Poultry food at Anderson & Fischers. Notice their big ad for general Hardware and Stoves.

Phll Fleming brought a bunch of cattle in for A. Benson Monday, and Tuesday went out to John Adamson's to get several more head.

Miss Iva Efrner packed up her millinery goods and shipped to Springfield where she will open up a millinery store for the coming season.

The entertainment which was to have been held at the Harmony school house last Saturday evening was postponed until a week from next Saturday.

Women will deceive, decoy, entice and lead fellow beings to misery and despondency. They will guide with loving companionship and correct teaching into bliss.

Frank Mogle, a son of Judge Mogle, of Cody, and a ranchman of Bolling Springs precinct, was in our city Tuesday on business. He went back on 27 so his time here was limited and he did not get to call on us.

W. H. Weekes, of Omaha, and formerly of the Scribner News, is now employed in this office. Mr. Weekes is an old newspaper man with an abundance of experience in type setting and running a newspaper.

We have it. The Engravers Gothic and Engravers Roman type for job work. New type just in. We do first class job work and don't charge you anything extra for doing good work. You want letterheads and envelopes.

Henry Flinaux, one of the prosperous ranchmen of Simeon, called on us last Saturday while in town and set his subscription a year in advance to the DEMOCRAT. Notice Mr. Flinaux brand advertisement in this paper.

Misses Lillian and Mary Nelson of Cody, were pleasant Valentine visitors Saturday. Miss Lillian returned home in the afternoon but Miss Mary remained to attend our excellent school for the remainder of the term.

Jas. Vincent came up Monday from Woodlake to transact business in our city. We enjoyed a pleasant visit from him. We wish Messers Davis and Vincent a prosperous livery business at Woodlake and believe they are the kind of men to succeed.

Rasmus Hansen's wife and son, Frankie, arrived from Denmark last Saturday night. Mrs. Hansen is enjoying good health but the little boy is not well. He has had lung trouble for several weeks and at present is not as strong as we hope he will be soon, when the summer sun shines warm again. Mr. Hansen and family are staying with Rasmus Anderson our popular hardware merchant.

Jimmy Smith visited in town several days last week.

Jas. Marley's pleasant face was seen on our streets yesterday.

S. Q. Spain was in town after freight and supplies last Friday.

Mr. Wray and Mr. Cox, of Crookston, were in our city yesterday.

Obs Church has returned after a few weeks absence at Alliance, Nebr.

We saw John Britt and Wm. Bullis on our streets this week from Britt.

County commissioners and assessors meeting will take place Tuesday, March 18.

A. Newberry and wife, of Cody, were down to visit the ophthalmologist, Dr. Ferrigo.

Max E. Viertel, one of the Crookston merchants and hotel keeper Folks, were in our city yesterday on business.

The Valentine Dancing Club will give a dance on Monday evening March 17. Put on your shamrocks and come to this grand ball to enjoy a good time on St. Patrick's day.

Spring has come when you see straw hats and summer pants. Views of summer time will soon be a reality and our people can wander up the mountain side north of the Minnechadua and see sights that pen can never portray in its real beauty.

The practical gardeners of Nenzel have been supplied with a choice selection of garden seeds from this office. They have the reputation as excellent gardeners and besides know, how to raise corn in abundance. Good luck and best wishes from this office.

T. P. Hudson and G. W. McFarland were in town Monday and called on us to get some of the garden seeds. Mr. Hudson had a wheel for us on subscription. It swells our head to have the good people call on us but the wheels keep our hat from getting tight, so come on with the wheels.

Chas. B. Cook, the young man who has worked on the DEMOCRAT since Nov., 1900 and lost only two days during that time, has decided to go west and quit work last week. We can say for him without solicitation that he is a faithful and honest worker, quick and ready at all times to work and earn his wages. We cheerfully recommend him.

O. W. Morey will go down to Newport next Wednesday and Thursday, March 12 and 13, and will be at Start Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15 to do work in his line, fitting eyes with glasses, correcting eyesight and repair work. Mr. Morey is an expert in his line and is always on the alert to get new ideas and up-to-date methods of testing the eyes. He has built up a large business here in Valentine and is now enlarging his field of operation to make room for his boys, who are growing up.

Frank Fisher went down to Neligh yesterday morning to transact business and from there will go to Waterloo Ia., his former home. It will be a nice visit for Mr. Fisher and his old friends there who knew him years ago will be glad to see him no doubt as he will enjoy seeing them and note the changes that have taken place. Mr. Fisher will go to Dubuque Iowa and Geneva Lake Wis. to visit some cousins whom he hasn't seen in 30 years. He will take in the sights at Milwaukee, Chicago and other eastern cities and will be absent three weeks or a month.

Educational Department.

BY LETA STETTER.

"Sustained by sure belief That man still rises level with the height Of noblest opportunities or makes such If time supply not, we can wait."

The Seniors will finish the study of "Elaine" this week.

Miss Nelson, of Cody, was enrolled in the 10th grade, Monday.

Remember the Non Parents' program March 21st, at Cornell hall.

Miss Pettijohn was absent two days this week on account of illness.

There are several new enrollments, especially in Miss Mutchmore's room.

The arithmetic class has made careful and complete investigation of the subject and are thoroughly convinced that "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."
