Another Yank at the Lyon's Tail.

The sap-headed editor made a fool of himself as usual and did just about what we expected of him. What else could emanate from such a source? It is needless for us to pay any attention to the false accusations made by this vile, filthy tongued, four mouthed impostor.

Now, old sap-head, you have done your worst and your whole concoction is as we predicted and stated two weeks ago, in copying some other plan with the exception that you have added words and phrases unbecoming to a gentleman and show plainly that there is no originality in you except of the filthy, degenerate kind and fully proves what we stated in the DEMOCRAT Feb., 27, to be true.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Mrs. M. R. Harden is on the sick list this week. Mary Jordan visited friends in Valentine Monday. Miss Ora Britton went to her claim to be first of the week.

Services at St. John's Episcopal Church next Sunday as follows: Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 a. m. Evening Prayer and Sermon at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Our New Store

This week we move into our New Store, Three Doors North of our present location

While moving a Drug Store is no easy matter, still we look forward to the change with pleasure, as in the new store we will have a nicer location, a larger store room, new fixtures and more adequate facilities for properly taking care of our large and growing business.

Quigley & Chapman, Druggists, Valentine, Nebraska.

W. E. Waite writes us from New York City that he is still an invalid, though improving some, and asks us to send them the DEMOCRAT.

Dr. Dwyer performed an operation on G. Stevenson, a brother-in-law to I. C. Stotts, for appendicitis last Monday. The Doctor says this was a difficult operation but the patient is getting along nicely.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson reported by us last week as very sick, died Thursday March 6. A number of friends gathered at the home on Cherry St Saturday to pay the last tribute of respect.

W. E. Ward has been able to get around for some time and last week was on our streets shaking hands with his friends who hope that he will completely recover from the injuries received at Rosebud some months back from his wagon tipping over and falling on to him.

A meeting is called at 8:30 p. m. March 17th in the Cherry Co. Court House, upstairs, to nominate two candidates to serve three years and one candidate to serve one year for Village Trustees.

We presume that our correspondents have applied enough practical logic on our jealous friend of the Republican that will last him for some time. We will therefore confine ourselves only to the sayings of the wise man, Mr. Barker, "who lives in a glass house, let him not throw stones."

Engineer Stanton was severely injured by the side rod to his engine drivers breaking and striking up through the cab last Saturday on No. 3 on the other side of Buffalo Gap. The fireman seeing the terrible calamity pulled Stanton over to the left side of the cab and jumped off.

Twenty-four of the lady friends of Mrs. J. W. Burleigh, who has sold out and will leave Valentine in the near future, surprised her Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Carlson and spent a most enjoyable evening with her. Refreshments were served and the guests left for their homes wishing her success wherever she may conclude to locate.

COME AND BE CONVINCED

We received two letters this week for publication, which we give below: Valentine Nebr., March 12, 1902. Editor DEMOCRAT:

Did it ever come to the mind of Mr. W. S. Barker, unaided by a High School Graduate, that his continued efforts, to wilfully and maliciously misrepresent and make odious the name of Rev. Father Lechleitner, may land him in an expensive law suit, possibly causing him thereby total loss of house and home, including printing press?

Mr. W. S. Barker! Draw from this story your own moral lesson and behave yourself! It is needless to add that Mr. Barker was not born and raised in Belfast, Ireland, nor Rev. Father Lechleitner in Cork, Ireland, although the nature of the controversy might indicate such a climate.

Respectfully yours, SOME CITIZENS.

Cody, Nebraska, March, 1902.

Who in the world is pretender, Mr. Barker of the Republican? Are the Cherry County records, especially the actions of the honorable board of County Commissioners, their contracts and disbursements of funds for the building of the new court house, through the courtesy of the republican Co. Clerk or his assistant not open to inspection of this modern reformer and pretender?

Where in the world was this same pretender, when years ago the so called "Valentine Ring" was in supreme power and looted the county treasury to such an extent that county warrants could not be cashed for years to come, when Cherry County was on the verge of bankruptcy? No doubt an exact compilation of amounts received during those years by this pretender for services rendered to the county would form a grand and highly interesting chapter of amazement and instruction to the taxpayers and voters of Cherry Co. It is still fresh in the memory of the people how this pretender was successfully met by our neighbor, Mr. P. Sullivan, then one of the county commissioners. It is very strange since this modern reformer and pretender could no longer interfere with the county funds the financial standing of the county improved so much, warrants becoming cashed that Cherry Co. enjoys the best financial record of any county in the state of Nebraska. It is still fresh in the memory of the people what kind of a title this pretender and modern reformer conferred in print on the venerable head of Mr. Sullivan, the title of "Rull Dog of Sullivan Co." But let us not forget here, how this very pretender was titled in turn by a Methodist Reverend who was his rival in the printing business. It is not exactly in the line of good society to call a human being a "Skunk" never-the-less this terrible animal in its peculiar qualification is most conspicuous for its horrible, nauseating stench.
