

Muscular Soreness.

As the result of over-exertion and exposure to heat and cold, or from whatever cause, may be treated successfully by the timely application of St. Jacobs Oil. A thorough rubbing is necessary. The Oil should be applied vigorously, for at least twenty minutes, two or three times daily, when all pain, soreness, stiffness will be removed. It will also strengthen and harden the muscles. Football players, gymnasts, and all athletes will find St. Jacobs Oil superior to any other remedy for outward application, for the reason that its action is more rapid and its effect permanent. Thousands of people all over the world use and recommend St. Jacobs Oil for muscular soreness. A twenty-five-cent bottle is quite sufficient to prove its efficacy. In cases where muscular soreness is complicated with any disease which requires an alternative, Vogel's Curative Compound should be taken. Prepared by the St. Jacobs Oil Co., Baltimore, Md., who will send a sample free.

Not a Common Farmer.

"What, my daughter marry you, a common clod of a farmer? Young man, you must be crazy," remarked the choleric old gentleman. We looked to see the young man in the overalls whether up and disappear, but instead he smiled faintly, even haughtily, and, jingling a bunch of loose change in his pocket pensively remarked: "Mr. Vanderfeller, I planted twenty acres to potatoes last spring, and the crop was a success."

"What!" cried the old man, surprise and remorse in his tones, "twenty acres of potatoes? And I called you a farmer? You're an agriculturist, sir, and I'm proud to have you for a son-in-law."—Syracuse Herald.

Why Sailors' Trousers are Wide.

A writer in the New York Sun offers this sartorial information: A sailor's trousers are cut wide at the bottom so that in holystoning and washing the deck, also in wading ashore from a small boat, he can pull them up to the knee. The full part fitting the thigh and a small cloth strap buttons to the waist band, holding them up. They fasten behind, or up.

An association of all the Protestant educational institutions in the province of Chili has been agreed upon. It comprises the Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and London missions, and will be known under the name of the Peking University. The Methodists expect to secure a charter under this name but a change has been made so as to permit the union of all the Protestant educational institutions.

For Her Sisters' Sake.

Sten'nal, Ind., March 10.—Mrs. Sarah A. Shrode of this place says: "I suffered much as many other women do with Kidney and Bladder Troubles. I tried many medicines, but got no relief till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. "Nine boxes of this remedy cured me completely and I feel it my duty to my fellow women to make this statement. I can heartily recommend them to any woman suffering with Kidney and Bladder Ailments." The words of Mrs. Shrode will be good news to many of her suffering sisters. Dodd's Kidney Pills have proven themselves to be sick women's best friend, for they are as effectual in all cases of Female Weakness as in Bladder and Kidney Disease.

Lake of Perfume.

On the Mangishlak peninsula, in the Caspian sea, there are five small lakes. One of them is covered with salt crystals strong enough to allow a man and beast to cross the lake on foot; another is as round as any circle and a lovely rose color. Its banks of salt crystal form a setting, white as the driven snow, to the water, which not only shows all the colors from violet to rosy red, but from which rises a perfume as of violets. Both the perfume and the color are the result of the presence of seaweed, the violet and the pink.

Costly Government Clocks.

Scattered throughout the various Washington departments are hundreds of clocks and chronometers, which cost the government annually thousands of dollars. The chronometers are the most expensive clocks in existence, and they are to be found on board every warship of the United States. These timepieces cost $400 each. The ones most consulted are those in the marble room of the senate and in the speaker's lobby of the house. Hundreds of people daily correct their watches by them.

Stephen Phillips has written a poetic drama on the ancient story of Ulysses. It is in blank verse and three acts, and will have the simple title "Ulysses." Beerholm Tree has arranged to produce the play at his London Theater.

Austin Dobson is preparing a new and enlarged edition of his "Collected Poems." It will include some of the verse in his privately printed volume "Carmina Vocata." Other recent poetry by Mr. Dobson will also appear in a separate volume soon to be published.

George Douglas, the author of "The House with the Green Shutters," a book which has been signally successful, is a young Scotchman who early in the '50s, with a total capital of £17 and no living relatives worthy of mention, tramped down from Oxford to London and set up as a man of letters.

The Academy, a London literary publication which speaks with some authority, has drawn up a list of the twelve books which it regards as "the best novels of the year." They are as follows: "Kim," by Rudyard Kipling; "Sister Teresa," by George Moore; "Our Friend the Charlatan," by George Gissing; "The Serious Wooing," by John Oliver Hobbes; "The White Cottage," by Zack; "Tristram of Brent," by Anthony Hope; "The History of Sir Richard Calmady," by Lucas Malet; "The Column," by Charles Marriott; "The Lost Land," by Julia M. Crotte; "Casting of Nets," by Richard Bagot; "The Lord of the Sea," by M. P. Shiel; "The House with the Green Shutters," by George Douglas.

LUXURY IN THE HOUSE.

Former Member Is Amazed at Rich Equipment and Decorations. "Shade of Bill Holman! It's enough to make the old man turn over in his grave! And if Dockery of Mizoura was here he'd shore fall in a fit on the floor."

He stood in the hall of the House of Representatives contemplating the rich mahogany desks, the handsome furnishings, the gilt and decorative, with a choleric and deprecatory eye. He was attired in black broadcloth, the vest cut low, showing a wide expanse of unstarred shirt front, crossed by a black string tie. His thin-soled boots of soft leather were carefully polished, and he held a black slouch hat in his hand. "I was in Congress in the days of 'retrenchment and reform,'" he said, "and we had no such do's as these. Them chairs, with a little reclining, was good for ten years longer, and there wasn't nary an initial carved in the desks. In my day the red plush sofas in the lobby was a dream of oriental splendor, and I see they must have fine leather sofas now."

"And as for these new committee rooms, the appropriations in particular, they air a scene of imperialistic sumpshness that the Caesars never imagined I walked through this morning, my feet smacking to the ankles in velvet carpets, and every move reflected in the polish of the mahogany tables, desks and chairs. These here plain Congressmen, corn-fed products of the West, must feel mighty odd of place amid such surroundings of luxuriousness and regal splendor. They tell me there is $3,000 worth of gold in the ceilings of the Speaker's room, by way of decoration, and that a third of a million dollars has been put in tiling and mahogany, leather, gilt and paintin'."

"Well, I reckon after all there ain't nothin' too good for the great American people, and these air the representatives of the people, and the people they pays the freight," wherest he shook his head, says the Washington Star, and walked away.

Almost Universally Used.

The tomato has a curious history. After the revolution of San Domingo, many French families came from there to Philadelphia, where they introduced their favorite pome d' amour. Although introduced as early as 1593 from South America into England, it was looked upon with suspicion, and its specific name, "Lycopersicon," derived from lykos, "wolf," and persikon, "peachy," referring to the beautiful but deceptive appearance of its fruit, intimates pretty clearly the kind of estimation in which it was held. It is now, however, all but universally used.

A Big Heart.

At Malling, Kent, England, a man named Andrew King dropped dead recently while laughing at a friend's joke. An autopsy showed that his heart was five times the size of the normal human heart and twice the size of that of an ox.

It is said of lots of people that they have hard times keeping body and soul together, who long ago decided to let the soul go.

SISTERS OF CHARITY

RELY ON PE-RU-NA TO FIGHT CATARRH WHEREVER LOCATED IN THE SYSTEM.

THE SISTERS GOOD WORK.

In every country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known. Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of the charges committed to their care, but they also minister to their bodily needs.

With so many children to take care of and to protect from climate and disease, these wise and prudent sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard.

"We have lately given Peruna a trial, for though the medicine was not new to us, we had not tried it sufficiently to testify to its worth as we are now ready to do."

"We find Peruna an excellent tonic, and a valuable remedy for catarrhal affections of the throat. We have recommended it to our friends and have good reports from them as to its merits." Yours respectfully, URSULINE SISTERS.

Four Interesting Letters From Catholic Institutions.

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters all over the United States. A recommendation recently received from a Catholic institution in the Southwest reads as follows:

A Prominent Mother Superior Says:
"I can testify from experience to the efficiency of Peruna as one of the very best medicines, and it gives me pleasure to add my praise to that of thousands who have used it. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, all remedies proving valueless for relief. Last spring I went to Colorado, hoping to be benefited by a change of climate and while there a friend advised me to try Peruna. After using two bottles I found myself very much improved. The remains of my old disease being now so slight, I consider myself cured, yet for a while I intend to continue the use of Peruna. I am now treating another patient with your medicine. She has been sick with malaria and troubled with leucorrhoea. I have not a doubt that a cure will be speedily effected."

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

"We beg to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for influenza, cold, cough and catarrhal diseases of the head and stomach."

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States.

The names and addresses to these letters have been withheld from respect to the Sisters, but will be furnished upon request.

One-half of the diseases which afflict mankind are due to some catarrhal derangement of the mucous membrane lining some organ or passage of the body.

Peruna is such a remedy. The Sisters of Charity know this. When catarrhal diseases make their appearance they are not disconcerted, but know exactly what remedy to use. These wise and prudent Sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard. They realize that when a disease is of catarrhal nature, Peruna is the remedy. Dyspepsia and female weakness are considered by many to be entirely different diseases—that dyspepsia is catarrh of the stomach and female weakness is due to catarrh of the pelvic organs. The Sisters are fully aware, consequently Peruna is their remedy in both these very common and annoying diseases.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Witty Case-Jeky and Else.

An attorney named Else, rather diminutive in stature and not particularly respectable in his character, once met Joseph Jeky, the noted English wit and Solicitor-General. "Sir," said he, "I hear you have called me a pettifogging scoundrel! Have you done so, sir?" "Sir," said Jeky, with a look of contempt, "I never said you were a pettifogger or scoundrel, but I said you were 'little Else.'"—The Argonaut.
