Niobrara Falls.

(Received too late for publication last week.) John Adamson had a nice mare killed last week.

First of April has come and passed and who's the biggest fool at last?

R. Grooms and H. Robin have been hauling hay for John Adamson this week.

Raymond Gillmore went to Chesterfield today to work on the old Waite ranch.

Jay Cunningham sold some cattle to parties in Chesterfield and delivered the same last week.

Grandpa Heath sold a horse to Jay Cunningham last week. He will soon be ready to start for South Dakota.

Another meeting was held in district No. 100 yesterday. Votes were cast for a school house site which resulted in a tie, and was adjourned to April 21.

SNOW DROP.

Chas. Oaks and wife are living on Chet Goodrich's place.

J. Nichols and son, Charles, and Jule Jensen went fishing Sunday.

Henry Heckel informs us that he is losing a few calves with the scours.

Chas. Jensen, Miss Peterson and Miss Holtz were on the river visiting Sunday.

Chas. Larson and wife, of Merriman, were down viewing their new ranch last week.

Ben Roberts and wife were down from their ranch and spent a couple of days on the river.

School closed in district 55 last Friday with a dinner at noon and an entertainment in the afternoon. This is a small school but there was nothing small about the entertainment.

J. Bunn and family departed from Arabia several days ago. The R. R. changed him from this section to Cody giving Mr. Veach his place here.

A. Benson is at present lamenting the loss of several head of cattle. They strayed away about three weeks ago, and cannot find any trace of them.

E. S. Lovellette departed for Washington last week where he expects to invest in real estate, and be joined by his family who are now staying on Mr. Davis' place.

No matter which way we look we see unmistakable evidence of approaching spring. Green tinted turf and the budding trees tell us that soon ice cream and soda water will be in demand.

We'll be all prepared for the coming change. Winter has reigned long enough, and the sunshine and flowers are welcome.

Robt. Bruce gave a hard times ball in Wood Lake last Friday. Allen Benson was down from Arabia and says, "How shamefully they will treat such an occasion. Instead of dressing in rags to represent hard times they displayed as much finery—and agony too—as their means would permit. If the young people would but appreciate such opportunities they would enjoy better times."

The Misses Whetstone drove to Arabia Friday evening, intending to ride down to Wood Lake on the train, but alas! The train was too quick. I regret to say it but the ladies looked rather provoked when they realized their situation, and I believe they were inclined to blame the innocent ones for their disappointment.

A. O. Coleman is assessing Sharps Ranch precinct.

J. Coleman is visiting with his son, A. O. Coleman of McCann.

We notice a lot of people getting ready for spring sowing and planting.

D. Hendershot went to Valentine this week where he will work at his old trade, carpentering.

R. Barnes is building a home for his family in Kilgore where they expect to make their home in the future.

Don't crack or peel off and is mixed in cold water. 12 CHRISTENSEN'S

Satsuma Enamel, Will paint up your old furniture and bric-a-brac in brilliant and lasting colors. 12 CHRISTENSEN'S.

The school at Sparks was opened March 31, in charge of Mr. Hollingworth. Mr. Hollingworth gave a nice entertainment at the Highland school house March 28, on which day that school was closed.

YOUNGSTER.

Kennedy. Dave Fiery was seen at Kennedy Monday.

The ducks and geese are quite plenty in these parts just now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Marion went to Valentine the first of the week.

Sylas Jones, of Oasis, was in these parts a couple of days last week.

Mell Hale was doing considerable trading at Kennedy last Saturday.

M. Dunham brought in a large load of goods for the Kennedy store last Saturday.

G. W. Burge is seen around these parts quite often these days looking after battle.

R. M. Faddis returned to Valentine last Monday after spending a few days at the ranch.

There is going to be a dance at Mr. Marion's the 18th and everybody is figuring on a big time.

The Kennedy assessor is around looking up his neighbors again and everybody is very poor at this time of year.

BROKEN ARM.

The butcher of Merriman was on the river last week.

We understand that Chas. Goodrich has the small-pox.

Chas. Oaks and wife are living on Chet Goodrich's place.

J. Nichols and son, Charles, and Jule Jensen went fishing Sunday.
