TALK OF THE OWN

Court in session next week. W. A. Denny was in town yesterday.

J. H. Searby, of Crookston, was in town last Saturday.

Allen Benson, of Arabia, visited in town a few days last week.

N. S. Rowley, of Kennedy, was doing business in town the first of the week.

Miss Maud Folks, of Crookston, visited friends in town a few days last week.

Chas F. Cooper was in town this week for the first time in several months.

Geo. Jarchow, of Rushville, is enjoying himself with Valentine friends this week.

A number of our young people enjoyed themselves at a picnic Bristol's grove last Saturday.

A dance was enjoyed by the lovers of that pastime at the Valentine house last Monday evening.

Edward Walsh, state deputy for the W. O. W., is in town this week looking after the interests of that order.

The grounds around the court house have been nicely graded and sown to grass. It will make a fine lawn some day.

Miss Myrtle Query had the misfortune to break her arm in jumping out of a buggy while fishing at Dewey lake.

The license question has been settled in Cody. One license has been issued and another will be issued soon.

The Junior League paid $50 on their pastor's salary last Monday. The children often do more than grown people.

It is said that the Lord loves a cheerful giver. The editor has the same feeling toward the prompt-paying subscriber.

Andrew Benson, of Arabia, took some cattle up the Minnehaduzza last week for Mr. Kennealy, to graze during the summer.

The weather clerk will move from the Davenport building to the new Fraternal hall building and is advertising for bids for the moving.

Thomas Gates and daughter, of Lime Springs, Ia., arrived last night. Miss Gates has filed on a homestead in the west end of the county.

We acknowledge a pleasant visit from J. W. Pike, of Crookston, last week. He has been spending the winter over in Iowa and returned recently.

Max E. Viertel, one of the Crookston merchants, was transacting business in Valentine the first of the week and in the evening he beat some of the boys at ten pins.

L. W. Parker and John Adamson called at this office during the past week and paid their subscriptions in advance. They have both been successful in wintering their herds.

Class No. 31 of the Junior League had an ice cream party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. E. Breuklander, last evening. The little folks had a very pleasant time and enjoyed themselves hugely.

U. G. Dunn stepped from the east-bound passenger train Sunday with one leg, one arm and his head in a sling. He was working on the new Sparks building, which he has the contract for building, in Cody, last Friday, when he fell from the gable, where he was working, a distance of twenty feet, and his form was somewhat "pied."

Sheriff Layporte took a drive about thirty miles east of Valentine, Sunday morning and arrested Thomas J. Nelson and John and Harry Junod on the charge of stealing seven or eight miles of fence from D. A. Hancock. A search was made of the premises and at Nelson's about 400 pounds of the wire was found buried under sod and hay and at Junod's place their share of the stolen wire had been converted into two or three miles of good fence which had to come down without waiting for orders from Washington. About 1,000 pounds of wire was taken. The prisoners were brought to town and released on bail and will have a hearing about June 20th. There are said to be others in that neighborhood who will hear something drop in the near future.

One of the McKee brothers and Jno. A. Gee, of Kennedy, were in town Monday. McKee Bros have lost two good horses which are advertised on another page.

Rev. Benbrook, of Wymore, shot five times at a doctor of that town and didn't hit him once. If he can't preach any better than he can shoot he had better abandon the pulpit and seek another occupation.

District court convenes next Monday with forty-three cases on the docket—forty-one civil and two criminal. The criminal cases are against Herman Schwabrow, grand larceny, and Eli McGregor and U. Hunt, horse stealing.

The gas works in Davenport & Thacher's store played out on them Monday evening and they were compelled to rustle for lamps. We understand that the machine was crippled by the breaking of the diaphragm that works the gilderflue.

F. H. Baumgartel sold the balance of his stock of goods that were damaged by fire, Monday, and returned to his home at Crookston to enjoy a much-needed rest, after which he may return to Valentine and again enter the mercantile business.

Isaac Morgaridge, recently from St. Louis, Mo., returned this morning and called at democratic headquarters to register. There's a hearty welcome for all democrats at this office. We feel that they are next of kin and are all good people.

Mrs. Frank Fischer and her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Jackson, left yesterday morning for a visit with relatives in Wahoo. Mrs. F. expects to be absent about three weeks. Mr. Jackson will be a grass widder for a longer time, as his wife will visit at several points in Iowa before returning.

Eight lodges will occupy Fraternal hall from the start: the Masons, Eastern Star, A. O. U. W., Degree of Honor, Modern Woodmen, Royal Neighbors, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. It is only a question of time when all the lodges in town will call this beautiful new hall their home.

The people of Chadron have chipped in $500 to entertain the editors at the coming meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial Association. The enterprising people of that burg will find it a case of casting their bread upon the waters and the editors are likely to return after many days.

Information reached Ainsworth Saturday that old man Capwell had been found dead in bed at Whitney, this state, the morning previous. He moved here from Valentine a year or so ago, and was a well-known character. We understand he was buried at Whitney. He had an aged wife here but no other relatives so far are known. —Ainsworth Star-Journal.

The members of Mrs. S. Moon's post-graduate class and a few invited friends gave a reception at her home Tuesday evening for the members of the class who have been in town attending school and at the close will go to their several homes. The evening's entertainment consisted of a program, question box, games and refreshments. One of the pleasant features of the evening was a lemonade bowl presided over by Miss Winnie Keeley, who stood in a recess with a profusion of flowers in the background.

A leading business man who recently visited Omaha and stopped at the Millard hotel, remarked after his return home: "I am glad I put up at the Millard. Great improvements have been made in the hotel. The rooms have been newly furnished, some of them very expensively. I have never sat down to a better hotel table. It only cost me $2 per day on the American plan. I could have had a higher priced room, but the room assigned to me was good enough for anybody. The service throughout the hotel was first-class in every respect. The location of the hotel suits me exactly. It is just between the wholesale and retail districts, convenient to the banks, express and telegraph offices and all street car lines. I shall always stop at the Millard when I go to Omaha. Some stop at the Millard on the European plan at $1 and up per day. A cafe adjoins the dining room for these guests and the prices are reasonable. I went on to Lincoln on business and had an excellent dinner at the Lincoln. It is the only first-class hotel in Lincoln and is most conveniently located opposite the depot. The rates there are $2 and up per day."
