NEBRASKA

Hetty Green's husband had to die to get his picture in the papers.

The proper designation seems to have settled down to "Marconigram."

The more a man gets the less he is able to understand the discontent of the poor.

Bultan of Turkey for a fool will drop him hastily.

ought not to kick.

not for the people? Every minute a man spends regret-

Sables will be the fashionable English fur next season. Sorry now we bought that $800 chinchilla.

doubles the waste.

The man who can remember the first mames of all the girls he has ever loved must have a cold, calculating nature.

Paper socks are coming. When a hole is worn in a paper sock the wearer will not be satisfied with merely darning it.

Will the paragraphers please hide their shame-faced visages? The new President of the Mothers' Congress has children of her own.

It is always said that he had the cour- He goes into the market and buys the age of his convictions.

A medical journal is trying to find out if the stomach ever becomes tired. The late Henry Hohenzollern might have valuable testimony on this point.

John Wanamaker spends $1,000 a day advertising his Philadelphia store. The business resulting from this advertising yields him a profit greater than the cost of his advertising. The moral is plain.

A man in lowa who has invented a cream separator is to be paid $80,000 in royalties. The old saying of "there is nothing new under the sun" may be all right enough, but good ideas are still bringing fortunes to those who turn them out.

The young man who set fire to the Astor House and other buildings affected a rough rider's uniform. He said he fired the buildings in order that he might discover and extinguish the biazes and become a hero. Is it not about time to reduce the premiums on heroism?

The Gentlemen's Home Journal advises its readers to side step all fruit salads. They are diabolical affairs designed to impair digestion and make innumerable unhappy homes. Fruit is all right in its natura, shape, but when it is worked up into salad it is a trouble producer of great magnitude.

The intolerant state of mind is injurious both to the State and to the individual. It goes with conceit and deadly pride. The strange thing is that men are apt to plume themselves upon their intolerance. It is evident that a man's conduct and a nation's conduct should be the result of thought and judgment; but intolerance stops thought and destroys judgment.

Evidently the new Postmaster General is not superstitions; he has decided to issue a thirteen-cent stamp. The denomination is new to the postal service, and is designed especially for registered foreign mail. At present it is necessary to use two stamps, one of eight cents for registration, and another of five cents for postage. The new stamp will do he work of both. The design shows President Harrison sected at his desk, and therefore is a departure from the usual viguetted head. It would be interesting to know how many people will continue to prefer the old two-stamp plan rather than risk starting a letter with a hoodoo number on the corner.

The most dramatic incident in recent International politics is the conclusion and publication of a treaty of offensive and defensive alliance between Great Britain and Japan. It removes ginning of a conversation awkward. Miss Florence Warden and John Great Pritain from the position of especially on ceremonious occasion | Strange Winter. "splendid isolation" which she has so and with strangers. Sometimes, how long occupied, and makes her the ally, not of any European power, but of an Asiatic government which only recently has been accorded a place among troduced to a lady at a dinner party civilized nations. The treaty serves said formal notive upon the rest of the world that the two powers concerned have no designs upon the independ- you, you know. Every one tells me ence or the territory of China or Korea, and that they will oppose aggression by other powers. In particular, the treaty is a warning to Russia to tkeep its promises as to Manchuria and to stop crowding Korea. Behind the faltering and vacillating Chinese court and the feeble Emperor of Korea it places, for the defence of their independence and territorial integrity, the resources of two powers whose combined fleets and armies are more than to yourself, "The people won't notice a match for any force which is likely it." But they will notice it; they al. other side swear to one lie after anto be arrayed against them in the far ways do.

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT East. Such an alliance, itself pledged SURE TRICK TO CATCH BASS to pacific ends, is the best guarantee of peace, because it so enhances the perils of war as to compel any power to think twice before going counter to it. The United States has peculiar reason to think well of the new alliance, which is formed to carry out the very policy to which this country is committed. When Secretary Hay defined that policy, in his letter to the powers in July, 1900, he enumerated identically the same ends which are mentioned in the preamble to the new treaty: the securing of peace; the preservation of the independence and the territorial integrity of China; and the maintenance of the principle of the Anybody who tries to pick up the "open door"-equal and impartial trade for all nations with all parts of the Chinese Empire. The new treaty extends the three principles to Korea When a wealthy bachelor lays his and pledges both powers to maintain heart at a girl's feet she certainly them. It is unsafe to make predictions regarding the course of affairs in a country of so many explosive possi-The king looks down on the people, bilities as China; but the new alliance but what would the king be if it were | will certainly tend to restrict the area of any internal disturbances which may arise, and to minimize the chances of aggression from without, Ming what he neglected to do as a boy

Judge Sim-on E. Bildwin, who is very eminent and a Yale professor, has deep before you begin to reel in, and discovered that American workmen eat reel slow." too much, especially of meat, dress too well and have too many elegancies in their homes. It came about in a lecture to workingmen, and the talk was full of the relative values of various foods and tissue building and brain strength, and facts and figures that would make you feel that if the butch er stopped more than once a day it would be well to prepare for early dissolution. It is too soon to worry about | pad. the amount of meat the toiler eats. It is his business anyway. It is time to other place of the kind. Whether the be glad that nowhere on the face of theory is worthy or worthless, his pathe earth does the man who works trons get the bass. Upon this fact he earn so much to eat; nowhere is he in a position to taste so much of luxury his secret jealousy from other guides A man may be simply mulish during as in this land. Existence with him is and always requests his employer to his lifetime, but in the obituary notice not a matter of soup and black bread. keep mum. not shortened his days or impaired his not strike at anything anywhere. usefulness. He is, as a rule, healthy, well. As for the clothing, there is a shortly. bit of vanity in the breast of every human being. The well-fed individual there gobbling fool minnows and crop wants to look well. If he is prospering pies until they are tired of them, and he wants to look the part. The good want frog. Take off that minnow, put coat and the stylish hat are a part of on a frog, be sure he's alive, and lef ambition. The better man or woman him sink deep." is dressed the better they desire to be dressed, and it is all for the good of the people who are entitled to 'more and still more and better clothing and more comforts. Home furnishing! There pride and love shine, for the couple who decorate their nest and invite sunshine, who put lace curtains on the windows and soft cushions on the rockers, are putting their money to good use, and again demonstrating the superiority of the average American homes over the homes of all other Nations. So never mind the professor, Let's have plenty to eat, and eat it wisely. Let's work for more good clothing and more pretty home furnishings and a tidy bank account, for this is America, a land that is still free. where no comfort and no privilege worth the having is denied to him who will work and win it.

Pugs in Boots.

Over in Paris fashion has decreed that when the pet doggies go out for an airing during damp weather they must wear rubber boots. Of course. the boots are made for dog use and with the proper number of legs must buy his boots four at a time, you know. They have 'em high for greyhounds and low for dachshuads, and thin soled or thick soled, according to the owner's taste. And they say it's really a touching sight to see the dogs prancing around the fuddles in their shining boots, and their little rainy-day blankets, but, alas, the humanity of the thing has to count Rico. The majority have accorded against one very unpleasant drawback. Dogs love to gnaw rubber, and the consequence is they chew up their boots just as quick as they get a chance. No sooner is his owner's gaze turned away than even the best-bred dog in Paris will sit down in the very first puddle and worry his boots. It's a great pity, of course, but after all dogs will be dogs.-Cleveland Plain

Putting His Foot in It.

Many diffident persons find the be ever, the beginning not half so awk ward as what comes afterward. A bashful young man on being in-

Miss Travers, and I'm rather afraid of you're very clever."

The young lady was naturally amused by this display of simplicity. "How absurd!" she exclaimed. "I'm not a bit clever." The young man heaved a sigh of relief, and answered: "Well, do you kn v, I thought you weren't!"-New Youer.

When you do a foolish thing you say

Minnesota Guide's Theory that Seems to Work Well in Practice. William Humes, a Minnesota "guide" -which is to say a Minnesota boat man, who pulls a skiff for fishermen at $2.50 a day-advances the theory that not only are deep water minnows, undersized croppies, and such fry curious, but the big bass which feed on them know that they are curious, and take advantage of their failing. Cruising minnows, or croppies, seeing any solitary object that is not a fish in the water, are irresistibly moved to go toward it and find out about it; the the saleslady. bass congregate near such an object, and snap up the investigators as they pose, I think," replied the young lady. With this idea in his head, Humes rows his employer past many lily beds and other likely places, and will keep on rowing in the teeth of remonstrances until he can find a single lily pad growing from twenty to thirty feet out from its fellows. He approaches this pad cautiously, moving the boat at the rate of a foot a second, and when he is ten yards from it he stops and whispers:

"Cast from here and land within three feet of that pad; let your bait sink

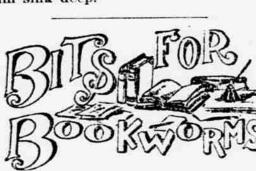

Obeying instructions to the syllable, the angler will in eight cases out of ten get a savage strike before he has taken in two yards of line, and will have a fight lasting from five to fifteen minutes. Cast after cast will have the same result until sometimes a half a dozen black bass have been taken, and in no case will the bait have struck more than six feet from the solitary

Then Humes rows on in search of anhas erected his reputation; he guards

Humes says that bass may be taken things that his stomach craves, and he near the roots of a single pad when has the money to pay for them. He has they will not attack a lure in any other learned to diversify his food. His ta- part of a lake; that they may be taken ble is covered with things that only there with certainty until such time as come to the comparatively well to do they are seized with one of their uniin the old world, and these things have versal fits of contrariness, and will

In casting toward a solitary pad he strong, full of hope and courage, and insists always that the angler shall you can lirectly trace some of his suc- use a weedless hook, upon which a cess in life to the comforts that reach | small frog, green preferred, has been his stomach. Men who eat well work impaled. His reason for this is stated

"The bass have been hanging around

Reports of the year's output of books how that an average of three books of fiction a day have been published. The sales of "David Harum" were greater than any book last year. "The Crisis," in spite of criticisms, heads the list.

It looks as though people's curiosity as to the authorship of "An English Woman's Love Letters" will soon be gratified. The Bookman says the se cret of the authorship will shortly made public. There is a story in Har pers by this unknown lady-if it be a lady-called "The Story of Amabel and Amoris."

The Bookman says of the twentynine different books which appeared in its monthly list of best selling books they cost $4.75 for two pairs, for a dog | during 1901, twenty-one are the work of men and six of women, while the author of "An English Woman's Love Letters" and of "Truth Dexter" have not been identified. Sidney McCall is thought by many to be a woman.

> The query was askel in the National Magazine: Who is the world's foremost living author? The replies came from every State and Territory of the United States, and even from Porto gain now! their belief that Herbert Spencer occupies that high position. It would be interesting to know how many ordinary readers have read Spencer.

The Englishwoman's Year Book gives the names of over 250 new novels published by women writers during 1901. Two of the most notable are listed as The Serious Wooing." by John Oliver Hobbs, and "Sir Richard Calmady," by Lucas Malet. Among the most prolific writers of the year were Mrs. Amelia Barr, Mrs. Katharine Tyan Hinkson, Critics have discovered, speaking of Richard Carvel, that the hynn, "Lead, Kindly Light," was not composed in time to have been sung by Mrs. Carvel. Objection is also made to having a band play "Columbia, the Gem of the "I've got to take you in to dinner, Ocean," during the Lincoln-Douglas debate at Freeport in 1858. This song was the product of war times, several years after. Well, the publishers are not fretting-"The Crisis" is still having a big run.

> Public Baths in Tokio. There are $00 public baths in Tokio, which are patronized daily by 300,00.1 persons. The charge is about half a > cent. When a man as a suit in court he always believes that the witnesses on the

SUPPOSE WE SMILE.

HUMOROUS PARAGRAPHS FROM THE COMIC PAPERS.

Pleasant Incidents Occurring the World Over-Sayings that Are Cheerful to Old or Young-Funny Selections that Everybody Will Enjoy.

"I want a piece of blue ribbon that will tie nicely into a hangman's knot." said the sad-looking man, addressing

"This piece will answer your pur- happened to break down, 'How much do you require?"

"It is to adorn the neck of my wife's pet dog," replied the s. l. m., with a sickly smile, "so please cut it accord-

Longleigh-Then you didn't propose to Miss Gotrox, after all? Shortleigh-No. My knowledge of the signal service code saved me from making a fool of myself. Longleigh-Well, put me on. Shortleigh-Just as I was about to commit myself she hoisted the cold-wave flag. In A. D. 1905. First Automobile Girl-Why do they have a wooden Indian outside of a cigar Second Automobile Girl-I give it up!

Saved by the Signal Service.

Why do they have a wooden horse outside a leather goods store?—Puck.

No After Results.

vou with anything?"

"No; the doctor got it all."

Was Overweight.

tackled one of her biscuits at the breakfast table.

"Why not try a derrick, my dear?" suggested the brutal other half of the combination.

Her Opinion.

Mr. Quinn-I never gazed upon such beautiful bric-a-brac as the Harwoods have in their parlor. And they've had it for years.

Mrs. Quinn (contemptuously)-Oh, it just shows that they can't afford to keep a servant. If they had a maid that bric-a-brac would never be there so long .- Chicago News.

The Octopus. "What!" ejaculated the man. "Four un red dollars for that dress?" "Yes," answered the wife, soothingly, "it is the train that makes it so expensive." "Ah-h-h!" grouned the husband, "that #### cursed railroad trust again!" The Reverence for Obscurity. "What do you think of the new minster's sermon?" inquired Mr. Cum-rox's wife. "Well," he replied, "I guess it wasn't very good." "Upon what do you base your opin-

"I understood every word of it and really interested."-Washington

"John! Didn't you swear off swear ng the first of the year?" John (who has just stepped on a ack)-I did, and I'm swearing off

It Must Have Been. Miss Fisher-Now, what would you

ay my age was?

Mr. Sharpe-Eighteen. Miss Fisher (coyly)-How prompt you are. You speak as if you had certain knowledge.

Mr. Sharpe-Of course, I knew it was hat-at one time-Philadelphia Press.

Where His Genius Shone. "I tell you that poet is a genius." "A genius? Why, his stuff is the werst I ever read."

"I know." "But why do you call him a genius?" "Recause he succeeds in selling it."illadelphia Record.

At the Play. Where are you going, my pretty maid?" To the play, kind sir," she said. "M hat do you there, my pretty maid?" Stander my neighbors, sir," she said.

Up Against It. Smith-What's the trouble, old man? You look as if a squall had struck you. Jones Worse than that, my boy. I've t been struck by two squalls. Smith-Why, how's that?

Jones-Got twins at our house. As It Should Be.

Riggs - A cousin of mine was married n the west side yesterday. Diggs That's queer. Biggs-What's queer about it? Diggs-Why didn't he get married on all sides while he was about it?

"Take my advice. Don't lend Bur roughs any money." "I never did."

"Why, you used to, I'm sure, be cause---"

It Never Came Back.

"No; I used to think I was lending !! o him, but I soon discovered it was purely a gift."

Somewhat Different.

Hix-Windig evidently is not a man who hides his light under a bushel. Dix-You bet he isn't. On the contrary, he considers himself the whole electric power house and imagines the town would be in total darkness if he

Elephant-What did the camel say when the monkey referred to his humps? Giraffe-He said he didn't want any back talk.

None the Best of Him. Blobbs-Bjones has a suit of clothe for every day in the week. Slobbs-So have I. I've got it or

now.-Philadelphia Record. More Important.

means. Because when you want to get gave it to his doctor. It was to a patient quickly-"O!" interrupted the young M. D., "I don't think any patient who sent for me would be likely to die before !

reached him." "No, but he might recover before you got there."—Philadelphia Post.

Courtship Too Expensive. have broken off their engagement? Jess-Yes.

Tess-Why, I thought they were perfeetly devoted to each other.

Jess-So they are. You see, they have broken off the engagement so that "I wish I knew of a good way to he may save enough money to enable raise bread," remarked the wife as she them to get married.-Philadelphia used. Press.

> "A Poor Excuse-" "What is his excuse for not marry

"Says he doesn't want to wear darn-

"Another fire caused by friction."

"How's that?" "Aw, rubbin' a three thousand-dollar policy on a $2,000 barn!"

Ordinary Effort Wasted. Clara-Is it true that Mabel is suing her husband for divorce?

She was handicapped right from the Clara-Why, how was that? Maude-Her husband had indigestion before they were married.—Chicago

The Sad Part. Mrs. Hatterson-What! You've had fourteen cooks in three months! Mrs. Catterson-Yes. And I didn't

Justifiable. Biggs-I see your friend Cutting has engaged in a new business. He advertises himself as a man milliner. a woman milliner, would you?-Chicago News.

Other Uses.

this week. Somerville Journal.

please any of them.—Life.

Mendicant-Please, lady, will you give 10 cents to a poor man to keep him from starving? Miss Flyte Mercy no. I can't afford it! Why, I've got to get my spring suit

Awful Possibility.

"Neither the wide ocean nor iron bars will keep me from you, my love!" he cried, fervently.

"But, Reginald," whispered the Judge's daughter, as she trembled wit apprehension, "what if papa should is sue an injunction?"

Behind the Scenes.

"Dear me." exclaimed the soubrette "I've broken one of my carrings. What shall I do?" "Telephone for a glazier." suggested the low comedian.—Chicago News. No Other Inference. Sillicus-The secret of happiness is o marry one's opposite.

Cynicus-Then a man must be a fool to marry a brainy woman.-Philadelphia Record. The Latter Part. "What part of my sermons do you enjoy most?" asked Rev. Dr. Long-

"The conclusions you reach," replie Deacon Kandid.-Philadelphia Record

The Higher Education.

"You believe in the higher education for women?" "Well, I hardly know; but my daughter says that now-a-days a girl who in it."

Weak?

"I suffered terribly and was extremely weak for 12 years. The doctors said my blood was all turning to water. At last I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was soon feeling all right again." Mrs. J. W. Fiala, Hadlyme, Ct.

No matter how long you have been ill, nor how poorly you may be today, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine you can take for purifying and enriching the blood.

Don't doubt it, put your whole trust in it, throw away everything else. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsapartila. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and J. C. AYER Co., Lowell, Mass.

A carrier pigeon's speed, in calm weather, is 1,200 yards a minute. With brisk wind prevailing, and blowing in the direction of its flight, a pigeon has been known to make 1,900 yards a minute.

Just as Charles 1. was about to "Yes," said the old doctor, you should step on the scaffold, in 1649, he took try to have your own carriage, by all off a pale-blue silk under shirt and lately sold at auction in London, and brought $1,022.

Held on to a Chair.

Palmer, Mo., May 19th.-Mrs. Lucy Compton has for the past eight or ten years suffered a great deal of pain and sickness. She had Kidney Trouble with an awful pain in her back which was Tess-You don't mean to say they so bad at many times that she could scarcely get about at all.

"I have been down with my back for the past eight or ten years," she says, "and sometimes so bad that I could not get around only by holding on to a chair or some other object. "Dodd's Kidney Pills have given me more relief than anything I have ever

"After I had used the first box I was almost entirely cured of this dreadful

"I can truthfully recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to any woman suffering as I had suffered for so long." Mrs. Compton's cure was certainly a remarkable one.

Galvanized iron is merely dipped in molten zinc. The coating is not applied electrically, as the term galvanized seems to imply.

Charles Lambs Essays.

Cha-les Lamb would write one of his essays in an evening, after a day spent at his desk in the East India office. Edward Dennit was found guirty of murder in the second degree by a jury in Page county, Iowa, district court.

K. Miller at Shenandoah, Ia.

He is charged with the killing of O.

A horse can carry a pound on his back to an ounce on his foot

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY. FRANK J. CHENRY makes oath that he is the Maude-Yes, and I don't blame her. tenior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & Co., ing business in the City of Toledo. County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

> Sworn to before me and subscribed in my pres-ence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886. A. W. GLEASON, SEAL Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Q. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The English language is taught in the public schools of Japan. In the commercial cities the Japanese Diggs-Well, what of it? You cer. youth are eager to learn English tainly wouldn't expect him to pose as deeming it an essential qualification to secure a position and attain wealth.

Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION can't play basket-ball and fence isn't N.N.U. NO. 720-21 YORK, NEB.