Grocer Arrested

At Dayton, Ohio, a grocer named John L. Schuster, has been arrested for selling Arbuckles Ariosa Coffee. The Pure Food Department of Ohio claim that the glazing on Ariosa Coffee makes it unusable in that state. This interests other grocers. because similar actions are likely to be brought against them for selling Arbuckle's or any other coffee which has been glazed or may do and are content to get their

The trial has been set for June 2nd. It is understood that the Arbuckles will send New York lawyers to defend Commissioner, Joseph H. Blackburn. will employ the best legal talent he can secure to represent the state's side of the case. The laws of Ohio are very strict in protecting the people against impure food. It is claimed that Ar buckle's Coffee is impure, because it is coated with a glazing that serves to cover up defects and make the coffee look better than it really is, and that this glazing is cheaper than coffee. Every one who drinks coffee will be in terested in the outcome of this case.

Graduating Exercises

Last Friday night, there being a seat reserved for our benefit, we repaired to the M. E. Church to witness the graduating exercises and hear the wise things compiled by the graduates of our school.

Shortly after eight o'clock Miss Lena McCrea began playing a march on the piano, during which the graduating class marched down the aisle to the stage, led by Prof R. H. Watson, principal of our Valentine schools, Rev. A. F. Cumbow, pastor of the M. E. Church and Henry Hoenig, chairman of the school board. Well might our citizens as well as the Proffessor and his able corps of teachers feel proud of the grad uates of 1902:-Six young ladies and two young men,-Eight in all. Misses sell liquors for medicinal, mechanical and Leta A. Stetter, Laura A. Pettijohn, Alta C. Starr, Nettie M. Kneeland, Nellie C. Holsclaw, Clara M. Ayers and Messrs, Clinton E, Collet and James P. Growden.

The church was profusely decorated with bunting, flowers and tissue paper not saying anything of the display of spring millinery and numerous bright

After a fine selection on the piano by Miss Zadie Elliot the graduates began their orations, Miss Ayers leading and Miss Stetter at the close. Many good and useful things were spoken by this graduating class of which we would be pleased to tell you. Indeed the orations might well be printed as pointers or guide posts to a future destiny. They consisted principally of dealing with life stating our conditions, positions ambitions, attainments, duties and possibilities. Several of these orations were excellent not for the delivery or Samuel Patten, secretary. pose alone but for the concentrated thought given to the subject.

Hanna's Star Rising

Directly following the death of the lamentented McKinley it looked very much as though President Roosevelt would have a walkover for the nomination. He was the beloved of the nation at large, and only his tactless do ings of the last three months have hurt one black steer three years old, without his chances materially. But since Mr. Reosevelt began to decend the scale of national popularity Mr. Hanna has been "doing things." He has suddenago he was the intolerable employer who "ground under the iron heel of oppression" his own people and those whom he could in any way influence. He has suddenly become a warm ad mirer and the bosom friend, the earnest advocate, the tearful defendant of the concrete working man of the United States.-Denyer Post.

Bound Hand and Foot

The Roosevelt who was a terror t bosses, a champion of independence and a defender of good government ex ists no longer. The hope of a nomina tion for the office which he at present accidently holds has been dangled successfully before his eyes and the Roose yelt of today is as clay in the potter's hands to the selfish, practical politi cians who infest the government at Washington, Candidates for office are oftimes said to be "in the hands of their friends." Mr. Roosevelt has placed himself in the hands of the selfish and cold-blooded bosses who plotted his undoings in 1900, and who had him shelved-but for the accident of death .- Albany Argus.

District Court

District court began its grind Mou day with Judge Harrington on the bench and Court Reporter Maher-he of typewriter fame in the Spanish war-making hen tracks to represent the testimony in such cases made and provided. The first case was that of Eli McGregor and U. Hunt, who were charged with eloping with horses. They pleaded guilty and were sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. Herman Schwaberow charged with stealing a water tank is now on trial. The cases are disposed of quickly and little time is consumeed in arguing points of law as the attorneys understand pretty well what they decisions briefly. Everything in relation to court work is being done with despatch thus saving expense of witnesses' and jurors' fees which will be large enough considering the arge number of witnesses in attend-
