

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF CHERRY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

VOLUME XVII

VALENTINE, NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 4, 1902.

NUMBER 33

TALK OF THE TOWN

Job work at the DEMOCRAT office.

Mark Zarr is now doing the printer act on this paper.

Mrs. M. R. Harden is working in the DEMOCRAT office.

When in need of job work call at the DEMOCRAT office.

M. P. Kincaid is in town looking after his political fences.

Geo. Bakewell purchased the H. D. Webster farm on the Niobrara river last week.

This office turned out several pieces of job work for our business men during the week.

Chas. Sherman has been suffering with quinsy during the past week but is better at this writing.

Mrs. McBride, of Rushville, is here visiting her son and daughter, U. G. McBride and Mrs. Perry Veach.

Dr. Winder accompanied by a trained nurse returned from Omaha last week. The Dr. is suffering from a cancer on the tongue.

The Annual Co. Convention of the W. C. T. U. will convene in the M. E. church at Valentine Nebr. on Wednesday September 10 at 9 a. m.

Albert Yeast spent several days last week out on his homestead haying and otherwise looking after his interests there. He returned to town Saturday morning.

Miss Mary Jordan, of Arabia, returned to her home Monday morning after having spent two weeks in our city visiting at the home of J. T. Keely and Chas. Sherman.

John Bachelor has moved his family into the house he recently purchased of C. G. Anderson and thereby becomes a resident of our city. We extend to Mr. Bachelor and family a cordial welcome.

W. E. Haley returned Saturday evening from Chas. Burns' sale at Crookston. He reports a large crowd in attendance and that everything sold well. This is the result of generous advertising.

Miss Etta Frown accompanied by Miss Mabel Vaughn made this office a pleasant call last week. Mrs. Vaughn succeeds Miss Moses as teacher of the 2nd primary department of the Valentine schools.

Geo. Bakewell, a ranchman who lives near Woodlake, saw the ad of Chas. Burns' public sale at Crookston in this paper and came to Valentine Friday, and Saturday went out to the sale to purchase more stock for his ranch. It pays no advertise in the DEMOCRAT.

Bob Good, of the "Bassett Eagle," was a Valentine visitor last Saturday. He came up to attend the senatorial convention. Bob is a good democrat and would like to see the principles of democracy come to the front once more. He remembered this office with a pleasant call while in town.

Miss Fanny VanBuskirk returned last Thursday morning from a four weeks visit in the west part of the state. She also visited Pine Ridge Agency and reports having had an exceedingly good time. Miss VanBuskirk returns rested and ready to resume her work of dressmaking.

Max Viertel, the genial merchant of Crookston, called at this office last Thursday combining business with pleasure. Max is an up-to-date business man and tells you through the columns of the DEMOCRAT where you can buy the best goods for the least money. Call on him when in need of anything in his line.

Rev. Cumbow returned last Friday from a two weeks vacation and resumed his work as pastor of the M. E. church at this place. Next Sabbath will be the closing services for the conference year. This closes the third years pastorate of this church for Rev. Cumbow. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services next Sunday.

Mr. Stacy, agent for the Rand, McNally publishing house of Chicago was in this city last week soliciting subscribers for a map soon to be published by the above company, showing the latest government surveys: county state and national, also the geographical changes made all over the world by the recent wars together with the location of cities, towns and post offices corrected up to July 1, 1902. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Stacy.

Our citizens are beginning to order hard coal sent to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Woodlake, accompanied by a nephew and niece were trading with our merchants yesterday.

Miss Mary Cumbow went to Kilgore Monday to get acquainted with her constituents for the coming year.

Theo. Tillson, from down the river, was in town Monday shaking hands with friends and transacting business with our merchants.

Mrs. Morrow, of Cairo Ill., returned to her home Monday after a visit of two weeks with her brother Mr. Grady who lives in the vicinity of Sparks.

Miss Tacy Collett went to Omaha last Saturday to see the latest styles in millinery so that she will be better able to cater to the wants of her customers.

W. T. Bishop has rented the Wilbur livery barn on Hall St. and opened up a livery and feed stable. Mr. Bishop is an experienced livery man and when in need of a good rig and driver call on him.

Frank Krampert, of Woodlake, accompanied by N. J. Uck were callers at our sanctum Monday. Mr. Krampert dropped a couple of dollars into the till, making his title clear to the DEMOCRAT until April 1903.

Roland Robertson has taken a vacation of a couple of months from the tailoring business on account of weak eyes. He goes to Cody to accept the position of clerk in the hotel there for Miss Wren Donoher.

Bowers and Parry purchased the livery stable property on east Catherine St. of P. F. Simons and have opened up a first class barn, equipped with new rigs, fine teams and careful drivers. They solicit a share of your patronage.

Mrs. Callen after spending a year visiting in Ill., Iowa, Kansas and eastern Nebraska has returned to make Valentine her future home. She goes to house keeping in her residence on Hall St. this week where she will be pleased to see her friends.

Miss Wren Donoher took possession of the Cody Hotel September 1. Miss Donoher is a woman of wide hotel experience, having run the Donoher in Valentine several years, also a hotel in Gordon. We wish Miss Wren success in her new location.

John Tripp, Supt. of the Indian Boarding School on Rosebud reservation, was on our streets Monday. He brought his daughter Emma and son Perry, also Miss Bessie Eaton, daughter of the matron, down to go to Wayne Nebr., to attend school the coming year.

Mr. Moses and grand-daughter, of Texas, were visiting their son and uncle, S. N. Moses of Simeon, a couple of weeks. They went from here to Hot Springs S. D. and from there will return to their former home carrying with them pleasant impressions of this great north west.

Nicholas J. Uck, a grocer of Omaha, called at our place of business Monday and gave us $1 which entitles him to read the DEMOCRAT for a year. Mr. Uck is a brother-in-law of F. Krampert and is in the county visiting friends and relatives and looking after his ranch interests south of Woodlake.

E. H. Bohle tells the people of Valentine and vicinity through the columns of this paper where to buy the best fresh fruits, bread, cakes, pies and in fact everything kept in a first class restaurant. When in need of anything in his line call on him. He guarantees satisfaction as to quality and price.

Andrew Quisenberry, a colored soldier after serving his time and receiving an honorable discharge at Ft. Niobrara last week, was preparing to leave for his former home, when he missed the where-with-all to make the journey. He was heard to say that he had been touched for $205 and a ticket, the latter he was seen to have purchased. The poor fellow was nearly distracted for he began to think he would have to enlist again in order to get home. When, alas, he awoke from one of his dreams, and remembered having put the missing articles into a pocket in his shirt. His face was wreathed in smiles and he is now a firm believer in the old adage. There is nothing so handy as a pocket in a shirt.
