Frank E. Moores was re-elected Mayor of Omaha Tuesday for the third time.

The supporters of each candidate felt confident of their success but had they been sensible enough to have kept out a three ringed fight and have gone to the poles voting for one or the other of the two men it would have decided something.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Carl Kroeger and R. L. Briggs of Hooper Nebr. are in town.

Mrs J. G. Stetter has been sick the past week but is recovering.

Sam Joice, of Gordon, was in our city yesterday as travelling salesman for the Plano machines.

Miss Elsie Sherman has resumed work in the postoffice and Miss Pease will take up teaching this fall.

George Ambrose returned last night from Norfolk, where he has been working for Mr. Butterfield for some months.

N. J. Grooms writes us from Meridan, Wash., that he is living in the finest country in the west. They are doing well.

Herman Porath of Riege called on us about a week ago and ordered the DEMOCRAT sent to his father C. H. Porath at Carroll Nebr.

A letter last week from J. J. Guth enclosed $2 for subscription and stated that they were getting along nicely at their home in Glendale, Oregon.

Dr. Lauren Jones, of Gordon, was in our city yesterday and has rented an office over T. C. Hornby's store, where he can be found Tuesdays and Saturdays.

N. S. Rowley called on us while in town yesterday buying supplies for his ranch near Kennedy. We wrote up some insurance for Mr. Rowley on his barn and stock.

We forgot to mention that Capt. Howell had returned to Valentine for a visit of a few weeks. The Captain speaks praises for the Soldiers' Home at Grand Island.

Dr. Taylor, the eye specialist, who visited Valentine some weeks ago stopped over one day on his return east yesterday. He is a bright man of considerable experience and is an expert in his line. He expects to return sometime this fall.

An insurance agent by the name of Carter struck the town yesterday representing a company that seems to be poorly represented in this county. We had an invitation to take the agency for the company but had to refuse. We are doing business for the three best companies in Nebraska and can't afford to load them down with another company.

Quite a number of stockmen were in town during the past week. Among them were Roband Wm. Gillaspie, of Chesterfield; N. S. Rowley, of Kennedy; W. G. Ballard, of Woodlake; D. A. Hancock, of Simeon; S. N. Moses, of Cody; G. W. McFarland and T. P. Hudson, from near Sparks; John Adamson, of near Valentine and a number of others.

Tuesday was field day exercises at Fort Niobrara and a number of Valentine citizens went down to witness the sports. The game of ball between the 1st and 3rd battalions was played in the afternoon. A rain sent the spectators from the field but the players after a brief stop continued the game. The 1st battalion was 10 to 6 in the 5th inning and probably won the game. We ought to have a correspondent from the Fort and will furnish writing material postage and a free copy of the paper to a writer who will report the happenings there.

Editor Lyon of the Gordon Journal is aching to get away from his town and wants to come to Valentine. We hear that he has been making overtures to Brother Barker for an interest in the Republican. We also hear that Lyon told several people in Valentine when he was here a few weeks ago, that he could buy out the DEMOCRAT but that he was a republican in politics and couldn't run a democratic paper. We do not know where Brehr Lyon got his information that he could buy the DEMOCRAT office. He should consult us before making the statement that he can buy this office.

Brosius-O'Donnell.

Jesse Samuel Brosius and Miss Margaret Jane O'Donnell were married at the Catholic church, Wednesday May 6th at 3 o'clock by Father Lechleitner in the presence of the relatives of the groom and numerous friends of both bride and groom. Miss O'Donnell has been living in the family of J. E. Cochran for some time past and will be remembered by all who have seen her as the lady who took care of the boys, Joe and Palmer. They will make their home on Cochran's ranch this summer.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, the Creator, in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our brother Mifflin P. Brosius, be it RESOLVED, that we extend to the wife and children of our deceased brother our deepest sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, that a copy sent to the bereaved wife and that they be published in the Valentine papers.

J. C. PETTIJOHN, WESLEY HOLSCLAW, E. BREUKLANDER, Committee.

Down the River.

Quite a squall of weather we had last week.

Mr. Sauerwein and Mr. Becker were in Valentine last week.

Harvey Johnson was over to his claim in the hay flats recently.

Shorty Mumford has been improving his place by adding some trees.

Mr. Bowden and family and Mr. Becker and family spent Sunday at Felix Nollett's.

Grandpa Grooms has been pretty sick for the past three weeks, but is recovering at this writing.

We have heard that Mr. Rattlebox has left the country. It must be so as we have not heard him rattling lately. YONGSTER.

McCann Items.

That will be all for this week as the writer has what you call the Pink Eye and can't hardly see to write.

Mr. Burch of Valentine was down on the Niobrara last Monday to receive the cattle he bought of W. W. White last fall.

Emma's Delight is a news paper published by P. C. Galloway. Subscription price only one dollar and a half a year. S. G. Stillwell and John P. Wilson, managers.

Some person or persons started two fires last Monday, one on the North side and one on the South side of the Niobrara. Evidently the fools are not all dead yet and the Fool Killer could get a steady job out here.

Valentine Junior Normal.

Valentine, Nebr., Apr. 28, '03. Editor VALENTINE DEMOCRAT: At a meeting of the citizens of Valentine, W. S. Barker, editor of the Republican; D. E. Sherman, postmaster; J. T. Keeley, deputy Co. clerk; Judge F. M. Walcott; L. C. Sparks, ex county supt. and J. C. Pettijohn were appointed as an executive committee to have complete control and management of all affairs relating to providing rooms and board for teachers attending the Normal.

At this writing we have pledged rooms for at least 150 non-residents of Valentine. Private board and room for about 30 will be provided at prices ranging from $3.50 to $3.75 per week, mostly at $3.50. Room will be from 50c to $1.00 per week, most of them from 50c to 75c. In most cases teachers will have to care for their own rooms.

We have raised $400.00 with which to fully equip a dining hall. We have fixed the price of board at the dining hall at $2.75 per week if the teacher pays ten weeks in advance or to the end of the term from the time she enters, providing entrance is made during first half of term. The rate will be $3 per week if paid weekly in advance or if the teacher enters school during last half of term.

If a teacher shall be unable to attend the whole term on account of sickness, a refund, for the part of term not attended will be made. The committee yet hopes that it may be able to reduce the price of board at dining hall to $2.50 and have decided that if at the end of the term there are funds sufficient on hand received from board at dining hall to refund to each teacher boarding there 25c or more per week, it will be done. The larger the attendance the cheaper the board at dining hall can be made. We hope to see a large attendance. It is the teacher's chance, and we hope they will make use of it. We will take care of all who come and will do so properly.

Remember we guarantee you that in no instance need board and lodging cost to exceed $3.75 per week. It will average about $3.50, probably less. All correspondence should be addressed to the undersigned or to J. T. Keeley, Sec., Etta Brown, Co. Supt. or R. H. Watson, Prin. of Normal. Very respectfully, J. C. PETTIJOHN, Chm. Ex. Com.

How Some Easterners Regard Us.

They wear their breeches in their boots Out west, Their jewelry's the kind that shoots Out west, The men are toughs with fighting sand The women holy terrors, and The girls are fresh to beat the band Out west. The maidens all wear cowboy hats Out west, And wear no corsets on their slats Out west, And when a lover seems to feel Too shy to make the sweet appeal, They pull a gun and make him squeal, Out west. The women vote the same as men Out west, Preach politics with voice and pen Out west, And if a husband makes a play To take the sacred right away, He grows baldheaded in a day, Out west. And yet we love those ratty cranks, Out west, We get the gold to fill our banks, Out west. They dig it up in every yard And that is why we try so hard, To hold them in our high regard, Out west. —James Barton Adams in Denver Post.

Table Items.

Little Blanche Green was on the sick list last week. Arthur Broad and wife enjoyed a day in town last Sunday. J. S. Kalbringer patronized the dipping tank at Crookston last week, also Burt Pike dipped his cattle. Frank Cowden was over from Crookston in the Harmony neighborhood last Sunday. We suppose on a "business errand" of course. A number of patent gates are being put in, in this vicinity. They are advantageous to travelers and they should be in more extensive use. H. W. Cramer utilized the time that he had a lame back, last week by being out on his claim. When he returned he brought home his son, Wendell who had been with his grand-parents a few days. Miss Alice Gaskill gave an entertainment at her school house last Friday night, it being the close of her term. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was not so large as it otherwise would have been, but the program rendered snowed very choice selection.

"Why can we not have a telephone system?" is the question now agitated among the farmers. We hear it talked of everywhere we go. We wish more could be done than a little talking. Why not call a meeting, get the farmers together and see what can be done in regard to this matter? A very feasible plan would be to utilize the wire fences so far as possible. This seems to be a spring of experiments and great enterprise. Some of the farmers are beautifying their yards with ash, cedar, box-elder and pine trees. Among those we know are J. B. Gaskill and C. W. Cramer. Caleb Gaskill has gone farthar and set out thirty apple tree. Others are experimenting with alfalfa, among them are, F. M. Walcott, Frank Segar and I. W. Cramer.
