President Roosevelt recently accepted from a deaf-mute metal worker in New York a likeness of the former in his rough Rider costume beaten on the face of a silver dollar. His picture is a most faithful reproduction, and is so delicately done as to excite great admiration for the wonderful work of the artist.

A piece of camphor gum is a very good indicator of what the weather is going to be. If when the camphor is exposed to the air the gum remains dry, the weather will be fresh and dry, but if the gum absorbs the moisture and seems damp, it is a sign of rain.

BRAIN BUILDING.

How to Feed Nervous Cases.

Hysteria sometimes leads to insanity and should be treated through feeding the brain and nerves upon scientifically selected food that restores the lost delicate gray matter. Proof of the power of the brain food Grape-Nuts is remarkably strong.

"About eight years ago when working very hard as a court stenographer I collapsed physically and then nervously and was taken to the State hospital for the insane at Lincoln, Neb., a raving maniac. They had to keep me in a strait-jacket and I was kept in the worst ward for three months. I was finally dismissed in the following May, but did no brain work for years until last fall when I was persuaded to take the testimony in two cases. One of these was a murder case and the strain upon my nervous system was so great that I would have broken down again except for the strength I had built up by the use of Grape-Nuts. When I began to feel the pressure of the work on my brain and nerves I simply increased the amount of Grape-Nuts and used the food more regularly.

"I now feel like my old self again and am healthy and happy. I am sure that if I had known of Grape-Nuts when I had my trouble eight years ago I would never have collapsed and this dark spot in my life would never have happened. Grape-Nuts' power as a brain food is simply wonderful and I do not believe any stomach is so weak that it cannot digest this wonderful food. I feel a delicacy about having my name appear in public, but if you think it would help any poor sufferer you can use it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There are desserts and desserts. The delicious health-giving kind are told about in the little recipe book found in each package of Grape-Nuts.

LORD KITCHENER'S WAY.

An English Commander Who Always Keeps His Affairs to Himself.

No man ever kept his own counsel better than Lord Kitchener, when fighting was afoot. There was never any leakage of information because there was never any information to leak. So writes a staff officer in his account of "Campaigning with Kitchener" in Blackwood's. He gives an instance of the great general's carefulness.

Once when the enemy threatened our line of communications I expressed some anxiety about our wires, which were laid, for all the world to see, as a ground-line along the desert, glistening in the sun and bearing a meaning even to a dervish, which is saying a good deal.

Kitchener told me to ride down to the river bank and say if I felt happier. Down I went, and after diligent search discovered a second wire cunningly laid under the bush and sedges.

As I was about to ride back I saw a steamer pushing off, and asked the young engineer officer what he was about. It turned out that he had personal instructions from Kitchener to lay a third wire of telegraph on the other bank of the Nile, and no one in the army but the chief and this young officer had wind of the matter.

From an instinct of self-preservation nobody ever slept with more than one eye shut when Kitchener was with the army. A sound sleeper was always in danger of finding himself alone in the desert, and the army gone. This actually happened to a worthy officer who was rather hard of hearing. Some one whispered, "Dervishes" and the army marched softly away without beat of drum in the usual half hour or less. The officer awoke, nothing living in sight except two bald-headed vultures.

Kitchener's officers took their cue from their chief, and imitated his methods. Once a general officer was inspecting a post on the line of communications, and duly arrived at the little hut which represented the headquarters of the majesty of the army in some wind-swept hole. Enter X, who, looking round, spies an office-table and two trays, one full of papers. The empty one was ticketed, "Business," the other, "Bosh."

"Excellent officer!" purrs E. "Thoroughly understands his work and Kitchener's methods." But when he went further, and proceeded to examine the papers in the "Bosh" tray, he found that the documents consisted exclusively of his own voluminous orders and memoranda.

SUMMER IN ALASKA.

Tropical Growth of Vegetation When the Sun Climbs Northward.

To undertake to give people a correct conception of Arctic America, or of any part of it, is difficult. Although they know that the country is much larger than the United States, they look upon it as being all alike—a country of long, dark winters, fields of ice and snow, and barren wastes. In truth, within Arctic and sub-Arctic America there is much diversity of climate. And in this beautiful summer land of Alaska there are in midsummer endless fields of beautiful plant life. Many times I have left my camp at the foot of the mountains, and, passing through a little meadow where a variety of wild grasses waved their tops above my head, I would commence to climb among the dense, tangled and almost tropical jungle of alders, where grew several varieties of the most beautiful ferns.

Reaching the upper limits of the alders, great waving fields of the purple lupine and dainty red columbine covered acres and acres of the high, rolling hills. Among them, wild celery and wild pansy grew many feet high, and other luxuriant foliage plants gave my surroundings an almost tropical appearance. A little farther, many little ponds grew beautiful, yellow lilies, with their great leaves resting on the surface of the water, and the purple iris bordered the shores.

Still higher came the yellow sunflowers, white and purple daisies in endless fields, and, higher yet, violets, pinks, forget-me-nots, buttercups, and bluebells, and dozens and dozens of dainty, blossoming plants in many colors.

Purple is the predominating color, then white and yellow and blue and pink dividing honors. But few red flowers were seen. I have traveled many miles where every foot of my way was one grand profusion of beautiful flowers in many varieties.—From "An Explorer-Naturalist in the Arctic," by Andrew J. Stone in Scribner's.

"Say, me good man, exclaimed the city youth, who was undecided whether to buy shrimp or minnows, 'what do you catch fish with around here?'"

"Give me a quarter and I'll tell you," grunted the rascalite with the new cut pole.

"Here it is. Now, what do you catch them with?"

"Hooks!" —(Philadelphia Record.)

"I never buy prepared tooth powder." This is a declaration made by a woman who manages to keep house on an absurdly small sum and keep it well. This probably explains it. "I can make exactly as good a powder as I can buy, and for 20 cents I can fix up enough to last the whole family a year. I buy prepared chalk in bulk. You know chalk is the basis of all tooth powder. With it I mix some ground castile soap. The proportions are seven-eighths chalk to one-eighth soap. With this quantity I fill up all the bottles and jars in the house."

In Every Walk of Life.

People in every way of life have had bad backs—kidneys go wrong and the back begins to ache. Cure sick kidneys and a back ache quickly disappears. Read this testimonial and learn how it can be done:

A. A. Boyce, a farmer, living three and a half miles from Trenton, Mo., says: "A severe cold settled in my kidneys and developed so quickly that I was obliged to lay off work on account of the aching in my back and sides. For a time I was unable to walk at all and every makeshift I tried and all the medicine I took had not the slightest effect. My back continued to ache until I was unable for anything. Mrs. Boyce noticed 'Dodd's Kidney Pills' advertised as a sure cure for just such conditions and one day when I Trenton she brought a box home from Chas. A. Foster's drug store. I followed the directions carefully when taking them and I must say I was more than surprised and much more gratified to notice the backache disappearing gradually until it finally stopped."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Boyce will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

We are never without a bottle of Piso's Cure for Consumption in our house.—Mrs. E. M. Swayze, Wakita, Okla., April 17, 1901.

All men that reach maturity draw prizes of some sort. A few are very good, more are indifferent, but the larger number will be curses. If brotherly love, self-denial and thrift are diligently sought, the crowning gift of all is won and in happiness and peace will the days glide swiftly away. If idleness and ease is the aim of life then want and suffering is the result. If indulgence, excess and licentiousness is the heart's desire all the miseries of life will follow and at the end will come the horrible nightmare of remorse—Ex.

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A Cure for Dropsy.

Sedgwick, Ark., June 22.—Mr. W. S. Taylor of this place says: "My little boy had Dropsy. Two doctors—the best in this part of the country—told me he would never get better, and to have seen him anyone else would have said they were right. His feet and limbs were swollen so that he could not walk nor put on his shoes."

"When the doctors told me he would surely die, I stopped giving him their medicine and began giving him Dodd's Kidney Pills. I gave him three pills a day and at the end of eight days the swelling was all gone, but as I wanted to be sure, I kept on with the pills for sometime, gradually reducing the quantity, till finally I stopped altogether."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly saved my child's life. Before using them he was a helpless invalid in his mother's arms from morning till night. Now he is a healthy, happy child, running and dancing and stungling. I can never express our gratitude."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills entirely cured our boy after everybody, doctors and all, had given him up to die."

St. Paul, Neb. April 9, '03. National Medical Co., York, Neb. is a necessity to any farmer raising stock several instances of its efficiency have come under my personal notice. JOHN HARVEY, Ex-Mayor, Seward, Neb., Dec. 18, 1902. I consider Liquid Koal one of the best articles for all around purposes on the farm. For mites and lice in the chicken houses and for lice on calves and horses it is the best and cheapest thing I have ever found. Liquid Koal ought to be on every farm. CHAS. BERGMAN, Coleridge, Neb., Dec. 8, 1902. I can say that your L. K. is the best insect destroyer that I ever used. It will not injure the eggs when used on setting hens. I find it the best all around stock medicine I ever used on the place. I advise every farmer to keep a supply on hand. G. B. GROFF, Hartington, Neb., Dec. 10, 1902. National Medical Co., York, Neb. Dear Sir: I am a user of Liquid Koal and am well pleased with it. I would not try to do without it as I find it such a great many ways. I have had no sick hogs since I commenced using it a year ago. In my opinion it is the best and cheapest hog cholera preventative on the market today. You can use this as you wish. Anyone wishing to know more about this please write me. ENOCH ELY, Seward, Neb., Nov. 28, 1901. To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I have bought the third lot of Liquid Koal from the National Medical Co., and think it the best germ destroyer, appetizer and disinfectant that I have ever used. I have had occasion to use it on two different horses this summer to very severe wounds and found it the best and cheapest remedy I ever tried; would not be without it on my place. W. D. FRANCIS, Delmont, S. D. I have used your L. K., and think it is a good preventive and disinfectant. I used it as a medicine for all kinds of stock and chickens. I had two cows that were sick and would not eat and I used L. K. and it helped them. I also used it as a hog cholera preventive, and think it is all right. G. H. PATRICK, Coleridge, Neb., Dec. 8, 1902.
