on the corner north of William Ward's and will feel pretty much at home so near his old residence.

John Ormesher handed us a $ on subscription last week while in spuds we've seen this year were raised by John.

W. E. Haley being down to Omaha on account of the death of his wife's sister, Capt. Laufer will put off the commissioners meeting until his return.

Jack Whipple, of Rosebud, was on our streets last Friday trading with our merchants. Mr. Whipple buys a lot of goods when he comes down but doesn't come often.

Mrs. Mabel Anderson, a granddaughter of Mrs. Susan J. Berry, is up from Ainsworth visiting her.
She and her husband will probably live on Mrs. Berry's farm next year.

moved into the Frank Brayton church and is having a barn built 14x24 by Sam Parry and Charles Maxwell.

John E. Nye started Monday morning for Merriman where he will meet Dan Alder and another gentleman and the three will go to Portland and through the state of Oregon looking up a location.

C. L. Latta was in the city this week from his ranch near Oasis.
He tells us that people are having good prospects for hay out his way. Mr. Latta set his subscription a year in advance to THE DE-MOCRAT.

The sale last Saturday resulted in the exchange in ownership of a dozen or more horses. There will be a sale Saturday and each succeeding Saturday. Bring in your stock and put it up. Saturday will be market day for everyone to buy or sell.

We have received a new Webster's International Dictionary which we buy for cash and advertising. It is the latest edition and is authority on words of our language. It is the most useful book to the student and every household should have one.

J. R. Lewis came out last Thursday from Chicago to go out to his claim near his father-in-law, Abram Peyton. He went out Friday and says he found his claim jumped. He however managed to dispossess the fellow who had got-ter in behind the stove, but could not get rid of the perfume.

E. A. Austin, of Greeley Centre, and H. P. Savage, of Sargent and a brother to H. S. Savage of this place, are here on a visit.

the arrival home of his wife from five weeks. Mrs. Webb thinks Valentine is not such a bad place and is glad to get home.

Miss Mabel Smylie and Miss Nettie Sisson will give a recital at the M. E. church Friday night, July 17th. They are known as good entertainers and you will miss a treat if you do not attend. Tickets will be on sale at Quigley & Chapman's.

Lee Bennett and a colored boy by the name of Jim—got into a quarrel and some hard names caused a combat last Saturday near the Palace saloon. One of the men offered Lee a quarter to lick the colored boy. Another man made it another quarter and Lee soon had Jim knocked out and his nose bleeding, though Jim was a third larger.

Carl Lurz and his son Carl, Ole Brockley and wife, who is a daughter of Mr. Lurz, Herman Welke a son-in-law and his sister Miss Ida came up to town last Friday and Carl Lurz, Jr. and Miss Ida Welke were married the following day.
THE DEMOCRAT extends congratulations to this worthy young couple and wishes them a pleasant journey on life's pathway.

Dr. A. N. Compton's team was returned last Thursday night and turned into Will Clarkson's pasture where it was found Friday morning. The horses had been ridden and driven until they were skin and bone and what was once a pretty team, now is a fearful sight to behold. But an ad in THE DEMOCRAT pays. It brings results for it travels from Omaha to the Black Hills and from the southern half of South Dakota to Oklahoma.
They can't get away from us.

J. W. McCloud, of Simeon and a son of W. H. McCloud of this place, was transacting business in our city last Thursday and called to subscribe for THE DEMOCRAT.
Joe is raising grass and horses and though he doesn't have to work as hard as he used to he is making just as much and he'll find reading THE DEMOCRAT a pleasure and profit. By the way, there are a lot of people who do not take THE DEMOCRAT yet but we have a lot of subscriptions for sale. A great many have subscribed recently.

Dr. Compton has gone to Omaha taking Geraldine Tracewell with him to the St. Joseph's hospital to have an operation performed on her throat. This is the youngest daughter of Geo. Tracewell and wife. She has been troubled for several years in breathing and as she got no better as she grew older it was thought best by her parents, and which was also advised by the resident physicians, to have a polypous growth cut out which partly closed the air passages to her nose from the bronchial tube.

M. E. Church Notes.

Three new members were received into the church last week.

Morning subject, "Christians should Stand Firm." Evening, The fourth special sermon will be delivered on the subject, "Abode of Departed Souls Before the Jugement." The clear true Bible view of this great question will be given and it will pay you to hear it discussed.
