Politicians of other counties are getting lined up for office and in some of the exchanges that come to us, candidates announce their candidacy by notices in the paper. We counted 12 such notices of persons expecting to be nominated for some office by the republicans of Rock county—3 for county clerk, 2 for county treasurer, 2 for sheriff, 3 for assessor and 2 for county superintendent, and the end is not yet. There may be an hundred more who are either too timid or of the kind that would like to have an office but are willing to stand back when a greedy set get to the front. Wouldn't it be a good time to switch down in that county and elect a full set of good clean democrats?

The Presbyterian ladies gave a reception Monday evening in honor of the mother and sister of Rev. Edgar G. Clark, who are here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoenig. The grounds were beautifully illuminated with torches. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served to about a hundred guests. The evening was spent in social conversation, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

Bethel Hall has been fitted up as a free rest and reading room for the general public. It is furnished with a table of the best literature furnished for the use of those who desire to read, a writing desk and material, easy chairs, a toilet room containing wash bowl, pitcher, towels, combs, brushes, soap, mirrors, in fact all articles with which the weary may refresh themselves. Ladies when in town and tired call and see what a comfortable place has been fitted up for you. It was opened June 17. Up to date 354 people have availed themselves of its priveliges.

Quite a number of Indians were in town this week and amused the citizens of our town by their wild weird dress and comic dance. Though we see Indians every day, their odd way of living is ever new to us.

For when they're in war dress, in in beads and in feather,
Arrayed for their dance packed closely together,
Their wild cunning ways and the songs that they sing,
Brings back the time when the red man was king;
Was king and the ruler of this beautiful land,
When all the things bowed to his own dusky hand,
Though our country has advanced in many away.
They are still here to remind us of that wild yesterday.

It Would Seem So.

Fair Niece—Why do you object to luets so strenuously, Uncle Tom?
Uncle Tom—Because when two people attack one inoffensive piece of music simultaneously it's taking an unfair advantage.—Chicago News.

Very conservative in all matters are the Turks, and especially slow to adopt modern improvements of any kind.

When a man quits smoking and goes to chewing he is not much of a hero.—Atchison Globe.

Chauncey W. Phipps, formerly principal of the Chadron City school and later editor of the Chadronian, was drowned last Thursday evening north of Crawford near the B. & M. R. R. by a big tidal wave of water caused by a cloud burst, sweeping down over the prairie where he and two companions were camped. One of the young men ran for a horse that he had lured near camp and cutting the rope, jumped on the horse and rode as fast as he could go to get out of the way of the wave or wall of water which overtook them regardless of their efforts. The man riding the horse jumped into the water because his horse seemed helpless, and swam out. When last he saw of Phipps he had gotten on to some bridge timbers and was floating along apparently secure, but he was likely hurled into the water as the currents united and was found dead some distance below. He was taken to Chadron where funeral services were held Saturday, and Sunday he was shipped to Franklin, Nebr., the home of his people for interment.

Notice To Delinquent Subscribers.

If there is anyone getting THE DEMOCRAT who does not want it, you have only to pay up what you owe and request us to discontinue.

If everything does not suit you, it may be that it suit somebody.

If nothing suits you, your liver may be out of order and you may need a doctor.

If your subscription is not paid up, you will feel better when you have paid.

We will also feel better to know that you think of us occasionally.

There are some who may think that we are sending the paper to keep up a big subscription list, and that they are doing us a favor by accepting it.

We are willing to cut down our list if you don't want to pay your subscription.

We want all the subscribers we can get, but want them to pay.

It costs money for postage and paper besides the work of printing, folding and mailing you these papers and you should bear your part of the expense if you want the news.

During the next month we hope to mail notices to many of you who have not paid recently and to all those outside Cherry county whose subscription is not paid in advance.

Please respond with the cash or tell us when you can pay.

Remember, subscription is $1.00 per year when paid in advance but $1.50 per year for subscriptions past due.

We realize that most of our subscribers who have neglected to pay have done so as an oversight, and will appreciate a reminder.

Chicago's Centennial Celebration.

The Chicago & North-Western R'y announces that much interest is being evidenced throughout the west in Chicago's celebration of the 100th anniversary of that city's settlement in 1803. The celebration will take place from September 26th to October 1st next, with a program that includes a series of commemorative events that possess many special features of interest. A great naval display will be a part of the program, together with regattas and the spectacular arrival in canoes, by way of the lake, of 400 Indians, the descendants of tribes formerly occupying this site, who will establish a village around a reproduction of old Fort Dearborn, on the lake front.

Athletic contests, parades, great fire works displays, patriotic meetings and religious services, a grand chorus, military maneuvers by government troops, and on the concluding day a reception to the President of the United States and other distinguished guests, all contribute to a most elaborate program.

Every energy is being employed to make the occasion typical of that spirit that has made Chicago one of the greatest cities in the world.
