Omaha

A Trans-Continental Gateway

A new book descriptive of Omaha issued by The North-Western Line.

One of the most attractive railroad publications that has been seen in quite a while is the booklet descriptive of Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha, now being distributed by the passenger department of the Chicago & North-Western Ry. It is a very interesting publication giving a mass of information as to the historical, civic and commercial growth of the cities named, all gotten up in excellent taste, handsomely illustrated and bound in an attractive cover. The North-western Line is to be complimented on the spirit evidenced in producing this publication, which it is hoped will be of much value to those cities to whose interest the little volume is devoted.

A copy of the book may be secured on receipt of 2-cent stamp sent to E. C. Cheyney, General Agent, 1401 Farnham St., Omaha.

Chicago's Centennial Celebration.

The Chicago & North-Western Ry announces that much interest is being evidenced throughout the west in Chicago's celebration of the 100th anniversary of that city's settlement in 1837. The celebration will take place from September 26th to October 1st next, with a program that includes a series of commemorative events that possess many special features of interest. A great naval display will be a part of the program, together with regattas and the spectacular arrival in canoes, by way of the lake, of 400 Indians, the descendants of tribes formerly occupying this site, who will establish a village around a reproduction of old Fort Dearborn, on the lake front.

Athletic contests, parades, great fire works displays, patriotic meetings and religious services, a grand chorus, military maneuvers by government troops, and on the concluding a reception to the President of the United States and other distinguished guests, all contribute to a most elaborate program.

Every energy is being employed to make the occasion typical of that spirit that has made Chicago one of the greatest cities in the world.
