SUFFERED FOR FIFTEEN YEARS.

Completely Restored to Health.
Mrs. P. Brunzel, wife of P. Brunzel, stock dealer, residence 3111 Grand avenue, Everett, Wash., says: "For fifteen years I suffered with terrible pain in my back. I experimented with doctors and medicines, but got little if any relief. I actually believe the aching in my back and through the groin became worse. I did not know what it was to enjoy a night's rest and arose in the morning feeling tired and unrefreshed. My suffering sometimes became insupportable. Finally I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and got a box. After a few doses I told my husband that I was feeling much better and that the pills were doing me good. When I finished that box I felt like a different woman. I didn't stop at that, though. I continued the treatment until I had taken five boxes. There was no recurrence until a week ago, when I began to feel miserable again. I bought another box and three days' treatment restored me to health. Doan's Kidney Pills act very effectively, very promptly, relieve the aching pains and all other annoying difficulties. I have recommended them to many people and will do so when opportunities present themselves."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Brunzel will be mailed to any part of the United States on application. Address: Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

NO OTHER AVENUE OPEN.

When Great-Uncle Henshaw's letter brought the invitation for Jimmie to spend his vacation at Dovedale, there was great excitement in the household. Uncle Henshaw was the distinguished member of the family, rich, unmarried and old; and as Jimmie's mother said, "No one knew what might happen." Of course Jimmie's father laughed at that, and said he hoped Uncle Henshaw would live forever. Whereupon his wife said she meant nothing of the kind, only—Jimmie alone remained calm. He had never seen Uncle Henshaw. He wondered vaguely whether he would like the great man.

"What kind is he?" he asked.
"Why," began his mother, and paused, at a loss for a description which should be impressive without being vulgarly snobbish, "why, he almost received the nomination for governor."
"Is that a kind by itself?" asked Jimmie, with unconscious irony.
His mother said Jimmie was so like his father that she did not believe it was a bit of use for him to make a visit at Dovedale. But despite the unpromising outlook, she spent the time before his departure striving to make him as unlike his father and himself as possible by words of admonition and caution.
Jimmie's parents saw him off. Great was their surprise to have him returned two days later with a note. The note was written on one of Uncle Henshaw's visiting-cards, and was brief:
"Your son will tell you why he was sent home."
"It must be something that you said," Jimmie's mother began. "After all I said to you, too!"
"No, honestly, mother, I never said a thing," protested Jimmie. "I only asked questions."
"Then it was something you did," affirmed his mother. "What did you do?"
"Not much," said Jimmie, with a reddening face. "I—just caught the goldfish in his aquarium."
"How many?" asked Jimmie's father.
"I don't know. He got there before I could count up."
"Oh, how could you be so cruel?" said his mother.
"I don't know," said Jimmie desperately. "I didn't feel cruel. Truly, I didn't. But that was the only thing I could think of that you hadn't told me not to do."

WHERE WALKING IS WORK.
In Constantinople it is a fierce and active struggle. To walk in Constantinople, is like a fierce and active struggle. One should look at once before, behind and underneath one's feet: before, behind and underneath one's feet some danger or disgust is always threatening. I never walked up the steep road which leads from the bridge to Pera, without feeling that I was fighting my way through a hostile city, says a writer in Harper's Magazine. A horn blows furiously, and a black man runs up the hill, clearing the way before the dashing and struggling horses of the tram. At the same moment a cab drives at full speed down the hill, and the horses set their feet on the pavement. In front of you a man balances a tray of coffee on a long pole across his shoulder; they dangle before and behind; he swings cheerfully with his burden through the crowd. A Kurd, stopping under a weight heavier than himself, follows, step by step, behind you. A dog with a red wound behind his ear, and a long strip of mangy skin on his back, lies asleep in the middle of the pavement. You step into the road to avoid the dogs and the hamals, and wheels and horses are upon you. You step back into the midst of the dogs and the hamals; as you stand aside for a moment a beggar with a handless arm rounded into a stump, a woman with her face eaten away in the cavity of the hood which she draws back before you, appears suddenly, filling what had seemed the only alley of escape. The sun soaks down into the narrow street; the smell of the mud rises up into your nostrils, mingled with those unknown smells which, in Constantinople, seem to ooze upward from every door and window, and pour out of every alley, and rise like a cloud out of the breath and sweat and foulness of the people.

A New Route.
The Road to Wellville.
It is by change of diet that one can get fairly on the road to health after years of sickness, for most ill health comes from improper feeding.
What a boon it is to shake off coffee sickness and nervous headaches as some can if determined upon.
One woman accomplished it in this way: "A few years ago I suffered terribly from sick and nervous headaches, being frequently confined to my bed two or three days at a time, the attacks coming on from one to four times in every month. I tried medicines of all kinds, but could get no real relief until my parents finally persuaded me to quit the use of coffee altogether and try Postum Food Coffee. It had come to a point where I was so utterly miserable that I was willing to make any reasonable trial.
"A person couldn't believe what followed, but the results speak for themselves; that was two and a half years ago, and I have never tasted coffee since. I use Postum not only for its delicious flavor, but more for the good it has done me. All of my troubles disappeared as if by magic and I have for the past two years been doing all the work for my family of six. I seldom have even a slight headache and I would not give up my Postum and go back to coffee now unless I deliberately intended to commit suicide.
"All my neighbors, it seems to me, now use Postum in place of coffee, and some of them have been doing so for several years with splendid results from the health point of view." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A Synonym.
David Warfield, the actor, was a very promising scholar as a lad when he attended the public schools of San Francisco.
"I remember an examination," said he, "which was the hardest thing I ever had to get through. The teacher I understand, has kept some of my answers, which she says are much more humorous than edifying. Among a bunch that she sent me recently was my answer to the query, 'What is a synonym?' It ran:
"A synonym is a word we use in place of one we don't know how to spell."
"Clever, wasn't it? Yet a lot of fellows appropriated that as their own and Belasco says other fellows were just as bright as I was, years before I was born. Isn't that discouraging to a budding genius?"—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A gardener planted the seed of a rare flower. When it came up the passer-by scoffed at it and called it a weed. By-and-by it grew so tall that the weeds caught up its seeds and scattered them by every tower and tree. When they grew up, people looked at it and said, "What beautiful flowers!" Men whose works have been most praised were first scoffed at as fanatics—of weeds in the garden life.—Baptist Union.

The J. P.'s Agree.
Staunton, Ark., Aug. 31.—News comes from Duff Searcy Co. this State, that Mr. T. E. Reeves, a Justice of the Peace at that place, has written a letter recommending Dodd's Kidney Pills in which he says:
"I think Dodd's Kidney Pills can't be beat for Kidney Trouble, and I wish them every success."
The local J. P., Mr. E. B. Cox, agrees with his brother Justice on this point, for he says:
"I had a bad case of Kidney Trouble and was not able to do a day's work without great distress. I bought six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and after I had used three boxes I was all right. I am as well as ever, and I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills too highly. I have given the other three boxes to some friends of mine who had found out what it was that had cured me so satisfactorily and quickly, and they all speak highly of Dodd's Kidney Pills."
No one disputes this unanimous verdict.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube becomes inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Health and beauty are the glories of perfect womanhood. Women who suffer constantly with weakness peculiar to their sex cannot retain their beauty. Preservation of pretty features and rounded form is a duty women owe to themselves.
When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removes such troubles.

Case of this Prominent Chicago Woman Should Give Everyone Confidence in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It affords me great pleasure, indeed, to add my testimonial to the great number who are today praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Three years ago I broke down from excessive physical and mental strain. I was unable to secure proper rest, also lost my appetite, and I became so nervous and irritable too that my friends trembled, and I was unable to attend to my work. My physician prescribed for me, but as I did not seem to improve, I was advised to go away. I could neither spare the time nor money, and was very much worried when, fortunately, one of my club friends called. She told me how she had been cured of ovarian troubles, and how like my symptoms were to hers, seven bottles of your medicine cured her, and she insisted that I take some.
"I did so, and am glad that I followed her advice. Within six weeks I was a different woman, strong and robust in health, and have been so ever since.
"A number of my friends who have been troubled with ailments peculiar to our sex have taken your compound, and have also been greatly benefited."—MISS ELIZABETH DALEY, President of the St. Ruth's Court, Order of Foresters, Catholic.
370 Loomis St., Chicago, Ill.

What is left for the women of America, after reading such letters as we publish, but to believe. Don't some of you who are sick and miserable feel how wicked you are to remain so, making life a burden for yourself and your friends, when a cure is easily and inexpensively obtained? Don't you think it would pay to drop some of your old prejudices and "Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is better than all the doctors for cures?" Surely the experience of hundreds of thousands of women, whom the Compound has cured, should convince all women.

Follow the record of this medicine, and remember that these cures of thousands of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great Woman's Remedy for Women's ills.
Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Moral—stick to the medicine that you know is the Best. Write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letter and signature of above testimonial. "This will prove its absolute genuineness."
