The Title of "Mrs." The title Mrs. was in olden time apolied to unmarried as well as to marled women and to young as well as old. Sir Walter Scott spoke of Joan in (unmarried) as Mrs. Jeanna Baillie. Although it was not perhaps so univeral to address quite young children as t was those over twenty-one by the de of Mrs., yet it was frequently The most ludicrous example of his occurs in the register of burials or the parish of St. Margaret, Westninster. The burial of Milton's second ife and that of his infant daughter, smed after her, who died at the age of five months, are both recorded in hat register, the name in each case icing entered as "Mrs. Katherin Milon," without any mark of distinction ave the letter "C" for "child," after the second name. Even in the reign of George II., as we read in "Pope's Letunmarried ladies used to be styled Mrs.

Wonderful Insect Vitality. It is a standing puzzle to the entomologists how frail little insects of the mosquito and butterfly order can brave the cold of an arctic winter and yet retain their vitality. The larva of the milkweed butterfly has been exposed to an artificial blast 68 degrees below zero. Taken out of range of this artificial blizzard and gradually "thawed out" this same worm was able to creep in less than half an hour afterward Butterflies have been found flitting joyously about in the highest latitude man has ever penetrated, and the mosquitoes of Alaska and Greenland are known to be the healthiest specimens of that race of little pests.

Wonderful Trans-Pacific Journey of Six Months via

THE NORT-WESTERN LINE

AND ITS CONNECTIONS.

In line with its well known policy of development of trans-continental and trans-Pacific travel, the Chicago & North-Western Railway is now organizing a personally conducted roundthe-world tour, to leave Unicago in October, visiting Hawaii, Japan nina, The Straits Settlements, Cevlon, India and Egypt, returning via the usual European points of interest on the way home.

The party will be most admirably provided for en route. The railway trip will be made on luxurious tast trains through the great Mississippi Valley over "the only double track railway between Chicago and the Mississippi River," and west via Denver and through the mountain wonderland of Colorado and Utah. The trip across the Pacific will be on one of the magnificent new Pacific Mair

Co's steamers. to such proportious that the service has been improved and elaborated until in many respects it is said to vie with that found on the finest trans-Atlantic greyhounds.

The trans-Pacific route is the comng highway over which American pleasure seekers will travel for rec. Now, to set a fast clipreation and sight seeing.
